

Methodist College Newsletter

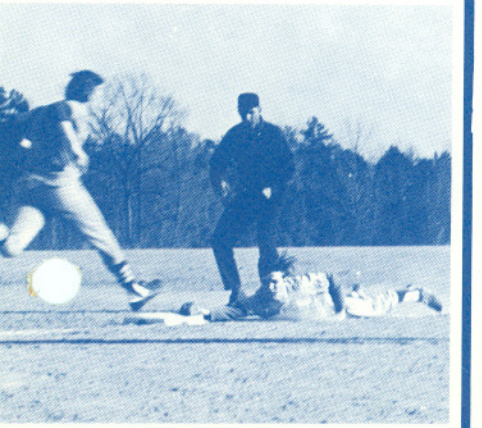

Spring semester found students pursuing studies such as a project in the physical chemistry lab . . .

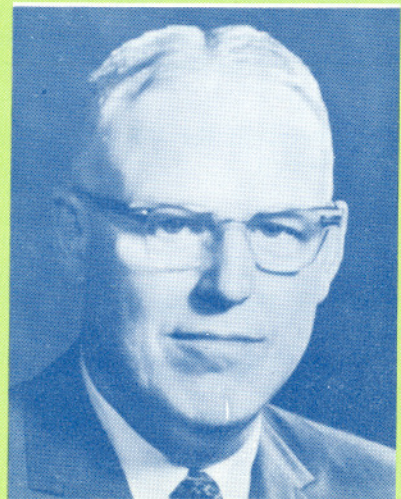

. . . and attending Concert - Lecture Series events such as the Jose Greco dance recital . . .

. and the varsity baseball games, newly added this spring.

Speakers Selected For Sixth Commencement

BISHOP WILLIAM R. CANNON

THE REV. DR. WALKER B. HEALY

Bishop William R. Cannon, Resident Bishop of the Raleigh Episcopal Area of The United Methodist Church, and the Rev. Dr. Walker B. Healy, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Roanoke, Va., will be the principal speakers for the sixth annual commencement exercises at Methodist College.

Dr. Healy will preach the baccalaureate sermon Sunday, May 25, 11 a.m., and Bishop Cannon will deliver the commencement address at the graduation exercises May 26 at 10:30 a.m. For other weekend activities, see Sixth Annual Commencement, pg. 1.

Dr. Healy, a native of Lynchburg, Va., was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Fayetteville before going to Roanoke. He holds the D.D. degree from Arkansas College as well as degrees from Union Theological Seminary (Richmond, Va.) and Lynchburg College.

He has served on the board of trustees of Mary Baldwin College (Staunton, Va.), Flora MacDonald College (Red Springs, N. C.), Arkansas College (Batesville), and the Vera Loyd Presbyterian Home for Children (Monticello, Ark.)

The director of many youth conferences, Dr. Healy has taught in numerous summer camps and conferences in North Carolina and Virginia.

(See Commencement, pg. 2)

SIXTH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

- May 24—Alumni Association Annual Business Meeting ---- 3 p.m. ---- S222
- May 24—Alumni Banquet 7 p.m. ----- College Cafeteria
- May 25—Baccalaureate Service 11 a.m. ----- The Rev Dr. Walker B. Healy
- May 25—President's Reception for Seniors and Families 4 p.m.
- May 26—Graduation Exercises 10:30 a.m. ----- Bishop William R. Cannon

Bits 'n Briefs

Commencement

Methodist College has received recognition from the American Association of University Women. All M. C. women graduates are now eligible for membership in the AAUW.

Summer session opens June 5 and runs through July 17. Final registration day for the six week session is June 4. Over 40 courses are available.

Over 40 student teachers were placed in teacher-intern positions for spring semester.

Miss Trudi Jaber, a junior from Clarksville, Va., represented the college at the Azalea Festival in Wilmington, April 10-13.

Athletic director and head basketball coach Gene Clayton was named Coach of the Year for the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. Clayton led the Monarchs to their first basketball season crown in the DIAC.

Miss Barbara Schutz, a junior from Atlanta, Ga., reigned as queen at the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Basketball Tournament. Barbara was selected from a field of eight coeds all representing a DIAC school.

Methodist College has received a $7,500 grant from Texaco, Inc. and a $25,000 grant from the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation of Winston-Salem.

Miss Pam Zollars, 1968 graduate, won the 1969 Miss Fayetteville title.

Some 166 students earned academic recognition fall semester by qualifying for the Dean's List, according to Dr. Samuel J. Womack, Jr., academic dean.

Summer conferences scheduled for the campus include:

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| June 2-4 | Synod of N. C., Presbyterian Church in the U.S. |
| June 7-21 | Civitan Youth Leadership Conferences |
| July 18-20 | Y.M.M.I.A. Conference |
| July 20-25 | Annual Conference Session of UMYF |
| July 27-Aug 2 | NCEA CTA SNCEA Conferences |
| Aug. 1-2 | UMYF sub-district workshop |
| Aug. 8-14 | School of Christian Missions, N. C. Conference of the United Methodist Church |
| Aug. 16-17 | Lay Conference on Evangelism, N. C. Conference of the United Methodist Church |
| Aug. 23-24 | Lay Retreat, N. C. Conference of the United Methodist Church |
| Aug. 26-27 | Pastor's Conference on Evangelism, N. C. Conference of the United Methodist Church |

Student Government Association officers for 1969-70 were installed May 5. They are James Russell, president; Georgena Clayton, vice president; Diane Qualiotine, secretary; and Terry Self, treasurer.

May Week was April 28 through May 3. Activities included a coffeehouse sponsored by the Interfaith Council; a production of Samuel Beckett's drama, Waiting for Godot; varsity baseball with the Monarchs going against Campbell College; and the May Dance.

Bishop Cannon, a native of Chattanooga, Tenn., was Dean of Candler School of Theology, Emory University, until his election to the episcopacy in August, 1968. He served as pastor of the Oxford, Ga. Methodist Church and the Steward Avenue Methodist Church in Atlanta prior to his appointment to the faculty of Emory.

Bishop Cannon holds the Ph.D. from Yale University, the B.D. from the Divinity School of Yale University and the A.B. from the University of Georgia.

In 1965 Bishop Cannon was an observer to II Vatican Council and in 1961 and 1968 a delegate to the World Council of Churches. He is a member of the board of trustees of Emory University and Asbury College and a member of the executive committee of the World Methodist Council.

MARSHALS

Leading the graduation marches will be seven students chosen on the basis of academic standing. The students are selected from the junior, sophomore and freshman classes with the chief marshal coming from the junior class. Each class has one female and one male representative. They are: Freshmen, Patsy Hall and Larry Lugar; Sophomores, Harriet Rollins and Kenneth Reeves; Juniors, Linda McPhail and Michael Todd; Chief Marshal, Diane Qualiotine.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS ANNOUNCED

Department of Public Relations

By

Published Semi-Quarterly

May, 1969

Vol. 10, No. 3

Fayetteville, North Carolina 28301

Methodist College

BULLETIN OF

Second Class Postage Paid

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. 28301