

1960

Methodist College News and Views (no date)
Worship center opens on campus (for the North Carolina Christian Advocate) (no date)
Harold Junior Teague awarded the Terry Sanford Scholarship at Methodist College (for the Fayetteville Observer) (April 22)
Alex Bethune Scholarship and Belk-Hensdale Scholarship established at Methodist College (for the Fayetteville Observer) (no date)
Religious emphasis week (for the North Carolina Christian Advocate) (May 23)
Methodist College Board of Trustees meets (for the News and Observer) (May 26)
Radio Station W.I.D.U. establishes scholarship (June 17)
Patricia Jackson awarded the J. Warren Pate Scholarship (no date)
Hilda Grey Cashwell awarded the Lions Club Scholarship (July 15)
Methodist College reports (no date)
Dr. L. Stacy Weaver elected Chairman of the Committee on Education of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council of the Methodist Church (no date)
First chapel service at Methodist College held (no date)
First official registration period closes with 132 students (no date)
State Board of Education authorizes teacher certificate renewal classes (no date)
R. A. Matheson Scholarship fund at $690.02 (for the Raeford News Journal) (December 16, 1960)
Methodist College News and Views (no date)