

January 1965

$5,050 contribution made to Methodist College by local Belk-Hensdale stores (January 18)

Cutline: Stonewall 4-H Club of Hoke County visits Methodist College campus (January 19)

Alan M. Porter, tenor, and Harlan F. Duenow, piano, to present Schubert's Die Schoene Muellerin (January 25)

February 1965

Second semester registration figures (February 9)

Dr. Arthur Cooper to speak on "Vegetation of North Carolina" to the Methodist College Science Club (February 10)

Methodist College -- On and off campus (February 12)

Cutline: Missionary on furlough from Southern Rhodesia talks with faculty and student (February 17)

Eight Methodist College music students to present recital (February 17)

Dean's list (February)

Grover French named to dean's list (February 17)

Michael Lee Culpepper named to dean's list (February 17)

Jerry Daughtry of Clinton and James S. Yearby of Dunn named to dean's list (February 17)

Jean O. Fort named to dean's list (February 17)

James Davies, Judith Ann Siege, and Michael Shay, all of Fort Bragg, named to dean's list (February 17)

Amelia Hall Harper named to dean's list (February 17)

Edwin H. Voorhees, Jr., of Morehead City named to dean's list (February 17)

Rebecca Stone Starling named to dean's list (February 17)

Martha Wallace McCrea named to dean's list (February 17)

Wayne Williamson named to dean's list (February 17)

Sixty-nine students named to dean's list (February 17)

Jean Barkley named to dean's list (February 18)

Paul Brill III named to dean's list (February 18)

Donna Davis and Richard McPeters, both of Raleigh, named to dean's list (February 18)

Mrs. Devar Burbage, Jr. (the former Susan Myers) named to dean's list (February 18)

Jerry Daughtry of Clinton and James Register named to dean's list (February 18)

Gordon Dixon of Mathews named to dean's list (February 18)

David Herring of Evansvill named to dean's list (February 18)

Cabell Luck, Jr., of Lakeview named to dean's list (February 18)

John Leeger named to dean's list (February 18)

Jane McCown McKinney named to dean's list (February 18)

Mrs. John T. McKinney named to dean's list (February 18)

Orrin B. Powell III named to dean's list (February 18)

Isadore O. Peppe named to dean's list (February 18)

Kermit Rudolph Pope, Jr., of Burke, VA, named to dean's list (February 18)

David Robertson of Fayetteville named to dean's list (February 18)
Michael R. Shay of Fort Bragg named to dean's list (February 18)
Tarmo Tanimae named to dean's list (February 18)
Frank C. Tunstall of Lake City named to dean's list (February 18)
Roberta D. West of Mount Olive named to dean's list (February 18)
Antonia Carol Young named to dean's list (February 18)
Walter Turner, Ed Voorhees, and Tommy Yow represent Methodist College at the State Student Legislature (February 18)
Cutline: During Fayetteville District lay rally (conference leaders enjoy a barbecue dinner) (February 22)
Soprano Ann Rothgeb to appear at Methodist College (February 23)
High school seniors from Virginia and North Carolina to participate in scholarship interviews at Methodist College (February 25)

March 1965

Twelve Methodist College music students present recital (March 10)
Fourteen Methodist College music students present recital (March 10)
Religious Emphasis Week to be held at Methodist College (March 16)
Dr. T. Marvin Vick presents first lecture of Religious Emphasis Week (March 22)
Dr. Horace Downs Crockford to speak on "Electromotive Force Studies in Solvents" to the Methodist College Science Club
Dr. Marvin Vick presents closing message of Religious Emphasis Week (March 26)

April 1965

Cutline: Methodist College sophomore Vicky Van Dongen serves on Azalea Queen court in Wilmington (April 5)
Methodist College Chorus to present spring concert (April 7)
Tommy Yow elected Student Government Association president (April 15)
Terry Sanford Scholarship Fund (April 20)
Methodist College to administer French examination for high school students (no date)
Music department to present annual informal chamber music program (April 22)
Music department to present an evening of chamber music (April 26)

May 1965

Notes from the Board of Trustees meeting (May 4)
Notes from the Board of Trustees meeting (May 5)
Methodist College receives $200,000 gift from John N. Reeves (May 4)
Photo: John N. Reeves with Terry Sanford and Stacy Weaver (May 6)
Summary of the long-range plans to make Methodist College a four-year liberal arts college (radio program) (May 11)
J. M. Reeves makes $200,000 gift to Methodist College (May 12)

Cutline: Local residents select exhibits to be displayed at the Methodist College student art show (no date)

Cutline: Methodist College sophomore Herbert Lyon works on a mobile for the student art exhibit (May 14)

Methodist College to present student art show (May 14)

June 1965

Third summer session registration facts (June 10)

Methodist College students Jonathan M. Cole participating in the Annual National Student Leadership Institute on the United Nations (June 16)

July 1965

Sixty-six students named to dean's list (July 1)

Stephen W. Hopkins elected sophomore class president (July 12)

Two Raleigh students elected class officers (John W. Handy and Donna Marie Davis) (July 12)

Five Fayetteville students elected class officers (Charles P. Bris-Bois, Jr., Ella Rose Hall, Daisy McKay Bryan, Mary L. Lancaster, and David M. Holmes) (July 12)

George John Pearce elected junior class vice president (July 12)

Anna Gail Dixon elected sophomore class secretary (July 12)

George W. Parker elected junior class president (July 12)

Larry M. Barnes elected student newspaper editor (July 12)

Stephen W. Hopkins elected sophomore class president (July 12)

Bradley B. Minshaw of Warsaw elected junior class president (July 12)

Jean O. Fort of Henderson named to dean's list (July 12)

Emery Pollard named to dean's list (July 12)

James Yearby and Myres Tarry Stanfield named to dean's list (July 12)

Cabell Luck, Jr., named to dean's list (July 12)

Henry B. Grant, Jr., named to dean's list (July 12)

Mrs. Roy L. Graves (the former Jerri Hoffman of Snow Hill) and Emilie Delores Askew of Snow Hill named to dean's list (July 12)

Richard B. McPeters of Raleigh named to dean's list (July 12)

Nancy Best named to dean's list (July 12)

Mrs. Guy R. Wilson, Jr., named to dean's list (July 12)

Anita Elizabeth Wiggs of Cherry Hill, NJ, named to dean's list (July 12)

Rebecca Ann Kimball of Lemon Springs named to dean's list (July 12)

Anne Butler of Marion named to dean's list and served as chief marshal (July 12)

Bobby Wayne Autry named to dean's list (July 12)

Gordon Dixon named to dean's list (July 12)

Lee Culpepper of Elizabeth City named to dean's list (July 12)

Jean Elizabeth Barkley of St. Pauls named to dean's list (July 12)

Amelia Hall Harper of Rutherford College named to dean's list (July 12)

James S. Yearby and Myres Tarry Stanfield, both of Dunn, and Thomas Harvey Matthews, Mrs. J. Nolan Smith, and Mrs. James Hoyt Warren, all of Wade, named to dean's list (July 12)

First semester 1965-1966 enrollment figures (no date)

August 1965

Wesleyan Service Guild Weekend of Study and the annual School of Christian Mission to be held at Methodist College (August 4)

Cutline: Mission school faculty (August 6)

September 1965

Opening of school orientation activities to be held (September)

Concert-lecture series slate for 1965-1966 announced (no date)

October 1965

Fall enrollment figures (October 1)

Professor Richard Walser to speak on "The Comic Muse in North Carolina" (October 4)

Danforth Visiting Lecturer Dr. H. Warner Kloepfer to speak on "Radiation and Human Genetics" (October 15)

Founders' Day to be observed (October 28)

November 1965

Fifteen Methodist College students elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" (November)

John W. Handy elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" (November 2)

Emory Pollard elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" (November 2)

Daniel J. Nau, Jr., elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" (November 2)

Edwin Voorhees, Jr., elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" (November 2)

Roberta West elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" (November 2)

Anne Butler elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" (November 2)

Thomas S. Yow, III, elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" (November 2)

Nomination forms and paperwork for "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" (November)

Pianist Nathan Twining to present concert at Methodist College (November 15)
Methodist College receives $2,000 grant from the Sears-Roebuck Foundation (November 18)
Cutline: $2,000 check from Sears-Roebuck Foundation presented to Methodist College
(no date)

December 1965

Campus activities (December)