

January 1966

Ursula Zollenkopf, contralto, to appear in recital at Methodist College (January 6)

February 1966

Dr. C. Ritchie Bell to speak on "Plant Evolution" at a meeting of the Methodist College Science Club (no date)

Cutline: Methodist College graduate Emmett Roger Williams observes laboratory technologies (February 10)

Scholarship competition to be held (February 11)

Susan Marie Lindsay to represent Methodist College at the American Institute for Foreign Study Summer School in Spain (February 11)

Carolyn Thompson represents senior class during Homecoming festivities (February 11)

Susan M. Lindsay represents freshman class at Homecoming festivities (February 11)

Alan M. Porter, instructor of music at Methodist College, to present his annual voice recital (February 16)

Methodist College Spanish Club to send Susan Lindsay to Spain as delegate to the American Institute for Foreign Study (February 17)

Alan M. Porter, instructor of music at Methodist College, to present his annual voice recital (for radio; February 21)

Cutline: Methodist College president Dr. L. Stacy Weaver accepts third-place Dixie Conference [men's] basketball trophy (February 21)

Methodist College student James B. Darden impressive in the classroom and on the basketball court (February 21)

Two Linden residents named to the All Conference Dixie Conference [men's] basketball team: William Honeycutt and James B. Darden III (February 21)

Davis Bradley named to the All Tournament Dixie Conference [men's] basketball team (February 21)

Dr. Jose Maria Chaves to speak on Latin America at Methodist College (February 21)

Spring semester registration figures (February 22)

Methodist College: on and off campus during February (Methodist College news) (February 22)

Program for voice recital by Alan Porter (February 22)

Methodist College coach and players receive recognition (Dixie Conference men's basketball) (February 22)

Classical guitarist Alirio Diaz to perform at Methodist College (short release; February 28)

Classical guitarist Alirio Diaz to perform at Methodist College (long release; February 28)

March 1966

Results of class officer elections at Methodist College (March 2)

Jim Darden continues to receive honors at Methodist College (March 2)

Classical guitarist Alirio Diaz to perform at Methodist College (two releases; March 3)

Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra to perform at Methodist College (March 8)

Classical guitarist Alirio Diaz to perform at Methodist College (March 7)

Methodist College student Roberta West to appear as piano soloist with the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra (March 8)

Cutline: Dr. L. Stacy Weaver reviews college records with a survey team from the General Board of Education of the Methodist Church (March 9)

Cutline: Dr. L. Stacy Weaver reviews college records with a survey team from the General Board of Education of the Methodist Church (March 16)
Dr. Pelham Wilder, Jr., to speak on "Modern Structural Organic Chemistry" at a meeting of the Methodist College Science Club (March 8 and March 9)
Cutline: Installation of officers of the Methodist College Student Education Association (March 10)
Mrs. Phebe Emmons addresses members of the Methodist College Student Education Association (includes cutline; March 10)
Dr. Leo W. Jenkins to speak at Methodist College chapel service (March 10)
Carlos V. McCracken and Douglas Bris-Bois named to Methodist College varsity tennis team (March 11)
Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra to perform at Methodist College (March 15)
Dr. Leo W. Jenkins speaks at Methodist College chapel service (March 16)
Cutline: Members of the Board of College Visitors of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church visit Methodist College (March 16)
1966 Methodist College [men's] golf team one of the best (March 17)
Student-faculty judicial committee to hear appeals for the Student Government Association Judicial Council established at Methodist College (March 18)
Cutline: Methodist College members of the Student Education Association discuss their upcoming trip to the North Carolina Education Convention in Raleigh (March 18)
Dr. L. A. Whitford to speak on "The Most Extensive Natural Communities: the Plankton" at a meeting of the Methodist College Science Club (March 18)
Seven Methodist College students present voice and piano recital (March 25)
Cutline: Fifteen Methodist College students receive certificates of selection from "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges" (March 28)
Twenty-five Methodist College students begin their teacher internships (March 30)
Methodist College Chorus to present spring recital (March 31)

April 1966

Four Methodist College music students present organ recital (April 1)
Dr. Rosalie Prince Gates to speak on "The Sino-Indian Border and Its Implications" at Methodist College (April 13)
Teresa Zahran, soprano, and Ann McKnight, piano, to present joint junior recital (April 14)
Dr. Rosalie Prince Gates to speak on "The Sino-Indian Border and Its Implications" at Methodist College (April 15)
Hungarian violinist Denes Zsigmondy to perform at Methodist College (April 18)
Student Government Association officers installed at Methodist College (April 19)
Seven Methodist College students to present voice and piano recital (April 19)
Fourteen Methodist College merit scholarships awarded (April 21)
Deena Stone of Ormond Beach, FL, awarded Methodist College merit scholarship (April 22)
Donna Lynn Brown of Annandale, VA, awarded Methodist College merit scholarship (April 22)
Michael D. Sharp of Hyattsville, MD, awarded Methodist College merit scholarship (April 22)
John Briggs of Cary, NC, awarded Methodist College merit scholarship (April 22)
W. Wesley Johnson, Jr., of Seaford, DE, awarded Methodist College merit scholarship (April 22)
Peggy P. Carden of Durham, NC, awarded Methodist College merit scholarship (April 22)
Bonnie Lou Starnes of Monroe, NC, awarded Methodist College merit scholarship (April 22)

Theresa Keller of Aberdeen, NC, awarded Methodist College merit scholarship (April 22)
Methodist College professor Dr. Vearl G. McBride and two of his students present program on reading improvement at Upchurch Union High School in Raeford (April 22)
Methodist College to stage Royal Fine Arts Festival (April 22)
Campus dormitories (Sanford Hall and Weaver Hall) to be dedicated (April 29)

May 1966

Trustees approve funding plan for fine arts-auditorium building (May 3)
Students named to sMALL TALK (student newspaper) positions (May 3)
Program: Dedication of Sanford Hall (May 3)
Program: Dedication of Weaver Hall (May 3)
Campus dormitories (Sanford Hall and Weaver Hall) dedicated (May 4)
Cutline: Dr. L. Stacy Weaver and others at dormitory dedication (two cutlines; May 4)
Campus dormitories (Sanford Hall and Weaver Hall) dedicated (for North Carolina Christian Advocate; May 5)
Methodist College Chorus and Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra to present "Dido and Aeneas" (May 4)
Ann Ratzell to appear in "Dido and Aeneas" at Methodist College (May 5)
Clyde Hiss to appear in "Dido and Aeneas" at Methodist College (May 5)
Barbara Allen Holmes to appear in "Dido and Aeneas" at Methodist College (May 5)
Dr. Alfred T. Brauer to speak on "Number Theory - Elementary Level" to the Methodist College Science Club (May 6)
Royal Fine Arts Week juried art exhibit winners' works to be exhibited in the Methodist College library (May 17)
Roberta West to present senior voice recital (May 19)
Intramural awards presented to Methodist College students (May 19)
Cutline: North Carolina Conference Board of Lay Activities at Camp Rockfish (May 24)
Annual alumni meeting held at Methodist College (May 26)
Methodist College Debate Club elects officers (May 27)
Cutline: Members of the Methodist College Debate Club (May 27)
Directory and brief biographical information for the Methodist College class of 1966 (no date)

June 1966

Spring dean's list announced (June 10)
Methodist College music department to present spring concert (June 15)
Methodist College receives $5,000 federal government grant to be used for library materials (June 24)

July 1966

Dr. (Ms.) Ockill Kim, president of Ewha Womans University in Seoul, to speak at Methodist College (July 1)
Cutline: Dr. (Ms.) Ockill Kim at Methodist College (July 7)
Ewha University president visits Methodist College (Dr. (Ms.) Ockill Kim) (for the North Carolina Christian Advocate; July 7)
Youth Choir of First Methodist Church, Charlotte, N. C., to perform at Haymount Methodist Church in Fayetteville (students to tour Methodist University in the afternoon) (July 13)

Youth Choir of First Methodist Church, Charlotte, N. C., to perform at Haymount Methodist Church in Fayetteville (July 14)
Dr. Harold Bosley addresses delegates to the North Carolina Annual Conference Session of the Methodist Youth Fellowship meeting (July 27)
North Carolina Annual Conference Session of the Methodist Youth Fellowship meeting held at Methodist College (July 28)
Cutline: New officers of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the North Carolina Annual Conference (July 29)

August 1966

Cutline: New officers of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the North Carolina Annual Conference (August 3)
Program: School of Christian Mission, held at Methodist College (August 8-12)
Cutlines: Opening of Camp Rockfish (no date)
School of Christian Mission held at Methodist College (August 5)
School of Christian Mission held at Methodist College (August 8)
Cutline: School of Christian Mission held at Methodist College (August 8)

September 1966

Cutline: Entering freshman Carol Burke with her family at reception (September 19)
Danforth Visiting Lecturer Mrs. Kay M. Baxter to speak on "Contemporary Theatre and Religious Communication" at Methodist College (September 20)
Works from the 28th Annual North Carolina Artists Exhibition on display in the Methodist College library (September 22)
Openings still available in the newly-formed Fayetteville Community Chorus (September 25)
Methodist College enrollment/registration statistics for Fall 1966 (September 28)

October 1966

Three Lincolnton residents enrolled at Methodist College (October 12)
Twelve Moore County residents enrolled at Methodist College (October 12)
Two Halifax County residents enrolled at Methodist College (October 12)
Twenty-two residents of the Greensboro-High Point area enrolled at Methodist College (October 12)
Thirty-three Harnett County residents enrolled at Methodist College (October 12)
Eleven Robeson County residents enrolled at Methodist College (October 12)
Officers chosen for the Community Chorus (October 14)
Methodist College Newman Club to hold prayer service (October 19)
Eight Richmond County residents enrolled at Methodist College (October 19)
Two Columbus County residents enrolled at Methodist College (October 19)
Warsaw siblings Helen and Mickey Benton attending Methodist College (October 20)
Four Orange County residents enrolled at Methodist College (October 20)
Yannula Pappas, mezzo-soprano, to appear at Methodist College (October 24)
Cutline: Yannula Pappas, mezzo-soprano, to appear at Methodist College (October 26)
Wayne Collier addresses Student Education Association at Methodist College (October 27)
Dr. E. C. Toren, Jr., speaks on "Reaction Rate Methods of Analysis" to Methodist College Science Club (October 27)

November 1966

Ten-year anniversary open house to be held at Methodist College (November 7)
Shelby resident enrolled at Methodist College (November 14)
Seven Brunswick County residents enrolled at Methodist College (November 14)
Three Chatham County residents enrolled at Methodist College (November 14)
Eleven Alamance County residents enrolled at Methodist College (November 14)
Three Burke County residents enrolled at Methodist College (November 14)
Two Caldwell County residents enrolled at Methodist College (November 14)
Six Bladen County residents enrolled at Methodist College (November 14)
Jesse Staton, Jr., of Windsor attending Methodist College (November 14)
Judy Singleton of Washington attending Methodist College (November 14)
Phyllis Ann Harper of Bayboro attending Methodist College (November 14)
Priscilla Marchant of Asheville attending Methodist College (November 14)
Four Onslow County residents enrolled at Methodist College (November 14)
Ten Carteret County residents enrolled at Methodist College (November 14)
Forrest Welch of Shelby enrolled at Methodist College (November 14)

December 1966

Three one-act plays to be presented by the Methodist College Green and Gold Masque-Keys
(December 5)