

January 1971

Chronological File

Methodist College experienced decade of progress (January 8)
Two students from Thailand at Methodist College (January 11 and January 13)
Methodist College displays student art (January 20)
Basketball reminder: Methodist College Monarchs traveling to Virginia Wesleyan College (January 25)
Second semester classes begin (January 25)
Methodist College adds academic innovations (January 25)
Cutlines: to accompany above release (no date)
Add copy for "colleges and schools" editions of regional newspapers (January 25)
Fayetteville Community Chorus begins rehearsals (January 27)
Methodist College hosts California painter, Thom Cory (January 27)
Reception to honor artist Thom Cory (no date)
Mrs. M. V. Register (Aida June) donated a 1902 copy of The Decennial which chronicles the early years of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro (January 26)
Methodist College hosts California artist, Thom Cory (no date)
An announcement for high school art students, about Thom Cory (no date)

February 1971

Chronological file

Methodist College to host Cumberland County high school students (February 2)
Cutlines: Reception for artist Thom Cory (February 1)
Donald Welch to speak at Methodist College during Faith and Life Week (February 3)
Cutline: for the above release (no date)
Cast announced for Methodist College production of Jean Anouilh's "The Lark" (February 2)
Cutline: for the above release (no date)
Photocopy: "Local students in leading roles in 'The Lark' drama (Fayetteville Observer, February 7)
Fill-in-the-blank news release for students in "The Lark" (February 5)
Methodist College photographers schedule exhibit (February 4)
Cutlines: prospective student day (February 10)
70 Fayetteville students on Methodist College dean's list (February 11)
Fill-in-the-blank news release for dean's list students (February 11)
Methodist College adds academic innovations (February 15)
Cutline: for the above release (no date)
Cutline: Business ethics talk during Faith and Life Week (February 17)
Friends of Distinction to appear in concert at Methodist College (February 16)
Additions to the dean's list (February 24)
Dr. Terry Sanford addresses students, faculty, and administrators at Methodist College (February 24)
Terry Sanford addresses Methodist College assembly (February 25)
"The Lark" to be staged at Methodist College (February 25)

Cutlines: for the above release (February 24)
Careers Day in Mental Retardation (February 29)

March 1971

Petition urges Governor Scott to support tuition grant plan (March 2)
Methodist College chorus, spring tour (no date)
Cutlines: Methodist College production of "The Lark" (March 3)
Methodist College calendar of events (no date)
Assistant professor of voice Alan M. Porter to present tenor voice recital; (March 3)
Operation: Help the People; students collect goods to assist local tornado victims (March 3)
Methodist College's fifth annual juried art show (March 3)
Reception for student artists participating in Methodist College's fifth annual juried art show (March 3)
Methodist College's fifth annual juried student art show (March 4)
Cutline: Chester S. Makowski, a Methodist College sophomore, demonstrates karate moves (March 4)
Students express concern about faculty retention (March 8)
Winners of Methodist College's fifth annual juried student art show (March 9)
Methodist College adds academic innovations (March 12)
Methodist College student (David F. Patrick) in wrestling finals (March 16)
Methodist College coeds study brutality in self-defense class (March 16)
Cutlines: for the above release (no date)
Student government positions filled (various releases) (March 16)
Fill-in-the-blank release for baseball players (March 18)
Fill-in-the-blank release for golf players (March 22)
Fill-in-the-blank release for tennis players (March 23)
Brent Alfred Matthews to play basketball for Methodist College (March 23)
Two Methodist College students win offices at the North Carolina Colleges Young Republican convention (March 25)
Revised academic calendar for the 1971-1972 school year (March 23)
Adoption of new academic calendar (March 24)
Senior art exhibit (March 25)
Students participate in sociology field work (March 27)
Two new science professors, Dr. William W. Horner, Dr. Patrick D. Hollis (March 29)
Two Ph.D.'s hired for Science Department (March 29)
Bradford Williams to play soccer for Methodist College (March 31)
James (Jim) Houston to play soccer for Methodist College (March 31)
Summer session classes (March 31)

April 1971

Chronological file

Methodist College baseball coach Bruce Shelly designs and completes a campus baseball field (April 1)

Newsclipping: "Coach builds on field: A Methodist 'Masterpiece'" (Fayetteville Observer, April 2)

Forty-four Methodist College seniors serving as student teachers (April 5)

Yearbook (Carillon) staff elected (April 6)

Robert ("Bobby") Sherwood Hodges to graduate from Methodist College (April 7)

Methodist College students attend North Carolina Student Legislature (N. C. S. L.) (April 7)

Cutline: for above release (no date)

Mrs. Robert S. Milner, an art major, homemaker, wife, and mother of four daughters (April 15)

Senior art exhibit of Methodist College students (April 15)

Arnold Pope, Dean of Students, is caber tossing champion of the United States (April 16)

Methodist College received $5,000 grant from the W. K. Kellogg Foundation for use in environmental studies (April 15)

Joint voice recital by Methodist College students Carol Lynne Sykes and Drusilla Taylor Hall (April 16)

Cutline: for the above release (no date)

Organ recital by Methodist College junior Sharon Leigh St. Clair [handwritten draft only] (April 22)

Methodist College students start discussion group, professing the "common life goal of relevant Christian action in a chosen vocation" (April 20)

Graduation speakers and plans (April 23; various release dates)

Methodist College literary club receives a $350 grant to aid in recognition of North Carolina writers (April 27; no cover sheet)

Methodist College places forty-four student teachers in schools (April 27)

Cutlines: for above release (no date)

"She's leaving college for the first grade": Betty Lou Burns, student teacher (April 27)

Student government officers elected (April 28); with cutline

Cutlines: SGA officers (no date)

Chris Schanck to join the cross-country team (April 29)

Art exhibit by Methodist College senior Cathy Butler Alkis (no date)

May 1971

Chronological file

Methodist College Chorus annual spring concert (April 30; cover sheet dated May 3)

Tenth annual traveling exhibition of Associated Artists of North Carolina on view at Methodist College (May 3)

Methodist College Wind Ensemble annual spring concert (April 30; cover sheet dated May 3)

Mrs. Ruth Tyson donates furniture to the student union (May 3)

Board of Trustees meets [file includes Trustees' report] (May 5)
Wayne Thomas Barbour to play basketball for Methodist College (May 5)
Cutline: Methodist College presents the play "Trial By Jury" (May 6)
Alva Ashley Bradley to play soccer for Methodist College (May 6)
Class officers and student government representatives elected (May 10)
Cutline: Eight senate of the Methodist College Student Government Association (no date)
Releases for individual class officers and student government representatives (May 7)
Methodist College senior Michael Wayne Safley receives Ficken award (May 11)
Deborah Ann Bright awards United Methodist Scholarship [includes cutline mentioning two other recipients, Penny George and Wesley Brown] (May 10)
Cutline: Edwin A. West receives silver tray in recognition of 47 years of public service as an educator (May 12)
Cutline: Kitty Cook crowned May Queen (May 13)
Marshals named for graduation exercises (May 13)
Students win honors on awards day (May 13)
Area students win honors on awards day (May 14)
Philosophy professor Dr. Veselin Sarenac speaks six languages [includes cutline] (May 12)
Summer session announcement (May 14)
Spring Lake student (Mrs. Jean Guthery) wins the Balaenz-Ambrose Mathematics Award on awards day (May 14)
Drama Club elects officers (May 14)
Athletes honored at Monarch banquet (May 15)
Alumni day to be held (May 17)
Methodist Scholars named (May 17)
Students named to "Who's Who" (May 18)
Elton Stanley to play basketball for Methodist College (May 20)
150 degrees awarded (May 24)
Cutline: Alumni Association officers elected (May 24)
Cutline: for above release (May 24)
Cutline: Graduation pictures (no date)
150 degrees awarded to M. C. graduates (May 24)
Black student from Petersburg talks about Methodist College (May 27)
Trustee officers reelected at Methodist College (May 27)
Piscataway student wins award [John Wayne Brown wins L. Stacy Weaver award] (May 27)
Samuel Henry Brick III to play basketball for Methodist College (May 31)
East Coast Cheerleading Camp to be held at Methodist College (no date)

June 1971

Chronological file

Tommy Massey to play basketball for Methodist College (June 2)
Fill-in-the-blank release for graduates (June 2)
Frank Kenneth Layton, Jr., to play baseball for Methodist College (June 7)

Glen Marshall Hinnant to play baseball for Methodist College (June 7)
 Tony Glass to join the cross-country team for Methodist College (June 7)
 Durham students receive degrees (June 8)
 Raleigh students receive degrees (June 8)
 Dean's list (June 10)
 Local students named to dean's list (June 10)
 Raleigh students named to dean's list (June 10)
 Students on dean's list (June 11)
 Sampson county students on dean's list (June 11)
 Three Bladen county students on dean's list (June 11)
 Elizabeth city residents names on dean's list (June 10)
 Jacksonville residents on dean's list (June 11)
 Dean's list announced (June 11)
 McLean, Virginia, residents on dean's list (June 11)
 Four Winston-Salem students on dean's list (June 11)
 Methodist College receives $1,500 Texaco grant (June 11)
 Mark Hibbard to play baseball for Methodist College (June 14)
 Students awarded United Methodist Scholarships (June 15)
 Local student receives scholarship (Miss Nora Kathleen "Kathy" Galicia awarded United Methodist Scholarship (June 16)
 Local student receives scholarship (Miss Evelyn Benson Bonner awarded United Methodist Scholarship (June 17)
 Methodist Youth Music Workshop (June 17)
 East Coast Cheerleading Camp (June 17)
 Associate Professor Dr. T. Garland Knott to be consultant for Central United Methodist Church in Spartanburg, South Carolina (June 30)

July 1971

Chronological file

Phil C. McNeill to play basketball for Methodist College (July 7)
 Gary Hoffman to play soccer for Methodist College (July 7)
 Penny Cheryl George awarded United Methodist Scholarship (July 8)
 Rev. Wallace Kirby elected to the Methodist College Board of Trustees (July 20)
 United Methodist Youth Fellowship meets (July 20)
 Harry Allen Flipping to play basketball for Methodist College (July 22)
 Howard Hanger teaches Methodist youth new ways of worship (July 25)
 Philip L. Mullen to play baseball for Methodist College (July 27)
 Officers elected for United Methodist Youth Fellowship of North Carolina during the annual conference session at Methodist College (July 29)
 Bob Lucas elected to United Methodist Youth Fellowship office (July 29)
 Eddie L. Taylor to play basketball for Methodist College (July 29)
 North Carolina Association of Educators workshop at Methodist College (July 29)
 Local resident named to national awards volume (Miss Charlotte A. Carmine of Richmond, Virginia, and Miss Cynthia A. Walker of Henderson, North Carolina, selected "Outstanding Young Women for 1971" (July 30)

Spivey's Corner resident named to awards volume (Larry M. Barnes named for inclusion in the 1971 edition of "Outstanding Young Men of America") (July 30)
Alumni named to national publication (Rev. Tommy Yow of Fayetteville chosen for inclusion in the 1971 edition of "Outstanding Young Men of America") (no date)

August 1971

Chronological file
East Coast Cheerleading Camp at Methodist College (August 5)
Graduate Record Examination to be given (August 13)
Professor of political science Dr. John O. Tobler named to national volume (Outstanding Educator of America for 1971) (August 16)
New opening date at Methodist College (August 23)
Methodist College begins year (August 24)
New faculty at Methodist College (Dr. Kathy S. Thompson, Dr. Patrick D. Hollis, Dr. William W. Horner, William Harold Motes) (August 27)
New faculty members at Methodist College (August 30)
Methodist College 1971-1972 plans (no date; for release on September 1)

September 1971

Chronological file
Methodist College 1971-1972 plans (September 1)
Miss Teresa Lee Self employed at Methodist College (September 2)
College drama cast announced (Fill-in-the-blank forms for the Methodist College production of Pygmalion) (September 9)
Technical crew for college play announced (Fill-in-the-blank forms for the Methodist College production of Pygmalion) (September 9)
Cutlines: Methodist College production of Pygmalion (no date)
Pygmalion to be staged at Methodist College (no date)
Cutlines: Methodist College production of Pygmalion (no date)
Methodist College chorus to sing for a regional evangelism conference for men (September 10)
Methodist College hosts benefit dance for the Day Care Center for the Retarded (September 10, September 13, September 14)
Pygmalion to be staged at Methodist College (no date)
Cast for Pygmalion announced (September 12)
Methodist College student makes archeological find (Ben Esquibel, senior sociology major, discovers a Pueblo kiva) (September 13)
Don Green's sculpture display (September 14)
Alumnus hired by Methodist College (Howard Bion Arden) (September 15)
"Hats off to freshman" dance on campus (September 15)
Beanie Queen chosen at Methodist College (September 20)
Fayetteville Mayor Jackson F. Lee to speak at Methodist College (September 20)

Methodist College cheerleaders (September 20)
Cutlines: Methodist College production of Pygmalion (September 21)
Pygmalion to be staged at Methodist College (no date)
Lecturer to speak on Chinese topics (Dr. Yi Chu Wang, Danforth Visiting Lecturer)
(September 21)
Cutline: Methodist College production of Pygmalion (September 23)
Lecturer to speak on China (Dr. Yi Chu Wang, Danforth Visiting Lecturer) (September 27)
Cutlines: Methodist College production of Pygmalion (September 28)
Pygmalion to be staged at Methodist College (no date)
Summer graduates (September 28)
Methodist College Women's Club (September 30)
Cultural calendar for Sept. - Oct. (no date)
Cultural calendar for November – December (no date)

October 1971

Chronological file

AAUP organized at Methodist (Dr. Willis C. Gates elected president of the Methodist
College chapter of the Association of American University Professors) (October
4)
Feature on local students in play (Pygmalion) (October 4)
Methodist College production of Pygmalion (October 5)
Cutline: for above release (October 5)
Local student discusses role in Methodist play (Phil Bauguess of Kernersville) (October 5)
Students invited to Pygmalion (October 5)
Cynthia Ferguson displays art at Methodist (October 6)
Degree completion program evaluated by Ft. Bragg officers (October 7; includes draft dated October 5)
Freshman class officers elected (October 7)
Local alumni chapter to meet (October 12)
Methodist College joins national coalition of church-related schools in major national communications program (October 12; October 14)
Jimmy Webb and The Bells to appear at Methodist (October 14)
Student teachers begin service (October 14)
Local students serving as teacher interns (October 19)
Methodist College announces homecoming plans (October 19)
Flag of France (tricolor) given to Methodist College by Le Club Francais (no date)
Male student seeks homecoming crown (October 22)
Beulaville girl in homecoming court (Nancy Coleman Shaw) (October 22)
Jimmy Webb review (October 25)
Pittsboro girl named homecoming queen (October 25)
Local student wins office (Sylvester Elliott McKay of Raleigh elected alternate senator of the freshman class) (October 27)

Amphitheater dedication (October 28)

November 1971

Chronological file

Cultural calendar for November – December (no date)

Sears grant goes to Methodist (November 2)

Amphitheater dedicated at Methodist (November 2, November 3, November 4)

Cutlines: Methodist College students at the new amphitheater (November 5)

Methodist College cross country team in tournament (no date; tournament on November 6; includes outline)

Waynesboro student named to Methodist team (Harry Allen Flipping to play basketball) (November 8)

Henderson student named to basketball team (Russell Sneed Eaves to play for Methodist College) (November 8)

Area students named to basketball team (three Fayetteville area students to play for Methodist College) (November 8)

Cutline: Check for the Fannie B. Stein scholarship presented by the Capitol Club to Methodist College (November 11)

Local students managers for Methodist College basketball team (November 12)

Sarah Willis appointed Methodist College Financial Aid Officer (November 15)

Cutline: Flag of France (tricolor) given to Methodist College by Le Club Francais (November 15; with original submission dated October 20)

Biology specimen donated to schools (Methodist College has an overabundance of invertebrate specimen) (November 23)

Photography exhibit by David Franklin features Fayetteville airport (November 26)

December 1971

Chronological file

Shalotte native Elton E. Stanley named “Basketball player of the week” in District 29 of the NAIA (December 1; attached release dated November 29)

Students and alumni organize a recruiting program to combat declining enrollment trends (December 1, December 3)

Cutline: Campus visitors from Cape Fear High School (no date)

Local student has art display at Methodist (senior art show of Suzanne Z. Yates) (December 5)

Methodist College Monarchs play the Blue Marlins of Virginia Wesleyan College (December 9)

Students share talents with community (Bob Williams and Jim Wolffbrandt, musicians) (December 10)

Methodist College alumni – active and involved (includes cutlines; December 12)

Student ministers present new church programs (December 16)

Cutlines for above release (no date)

Former R. C. A. official gives gift to Methodist (December 17)

Methodist College chorus begins annual tour (December 30, December 31)