Fayetteville, N. C.--More than 350 women of Eastern North Carolina are expected to attend the Wesleyan Service Guild Weekend of Study and the annual School of Christian Mission of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Carolina Conference August 7-13.

For the second consecutive year, these two activities will be held on the Methodist College campus at Fayetteville. For many years previously they were conducted on the campus of Duke University.

The Wesleyan Service Guild Weekend will begin Saturday morning and continue through noon on ~~Friday~~<sup>Sunday</sup>. The Guild is made up primarily of women who are employed during the week and, consequently, find it more convenient to participate in a weekend activity. Miss Harriet Fralix, Fayetteville, Miss Virginia Jones, Cary, and Miss Juanita Stott, Raleigh, will serve as Chairman, Registrar, and Business Manager, respectively, for the Guild Weekend. Miss Fralix is Christian Conference Secretary for the Wesleyan Service Guild.

The School of Christian Mission will begin with registration on Monday morning and will close at noon on Friday.

The staff for the School of Christian Mission consists of Mrs. H. C. Turlington, Dunn, Dean; Mrs. L. C. Vereen, Raleigh, Assistant Dean; Mrs. C. H. Boyd, New Bern, Co-Ordinator; Mrs. E. B. Fisher, Greenville, Registrar; Mrs. C. D. Barclift, Fayetteville, Treasurer and Business Manager.

Mrs. Turlington and her staff have secured an especially capable faculty for the School.

Nine Instructors

"The Witness of Every Christian" will be taught by Mrs. David Cathcart, Dr. Samuel J. Womack, Jr., and Mrs. E. L. Hillman.

Mrs. Cathcart is the wife of a Methodist Minister of the Florida conference; past president of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Woman's Society of Christian Service; served in various district and conference offices; and past member-at-large of the Board of Missions of The Methodist Church.

Dr. Womack is Dean of the Faculty at Methodist College. He is the former Area Chairman of Religion and Philosophy at the college where he has served on the faculty since the college's opening in 1960.

Mrs. Hillman of Durham is past president of the North Carolina Conference and of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. She was a member of the team invited to Korea for Christian mission to schools and colleges in 1962.

The course, "Social Issues for the Christian" will be taught by Dr. E. Clayton Calhoun and Mrs. T. S. Newbold.

Dr. Calhoun is a former missionary to China and since 1956 has served as President of Paine College, Augusta, Georgia.

Mrs. Newbold is a former teacher in the North Carolina public schools, a teacher in Leadership schools and Schools of Missions, and is former State President of United Church Women. In 1963 she was appointed State Representative for UNICEF. She is also a member of the United States Committee for UNICEF. In 1965 she was elected vice-president of the WSCS Southeastern Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church.

The third application group "Outreach Through Missions" will be taught by Mrs. T. N. Alexander, Miss Helen Rosser and Mrs. J. Fount Tillman.

Mrs. Alexander of Pompano Beach, Florida, has served as missionary teacher and Director of Collegio Americano, Porto Alegre, Brazil, for 5 years. She has also served as director of Christian Education and has held offices on the Conference and District levels in the Woman's Society of Christian Service. She has taught in Schools of Missions in 5 states.

Miss Rosser of Macon, Georgia, is a former missionary to Korea. After her capture and imprisonment during the Korean War, she returned home but went back to Korea and was instrumental in establishing a haven for orphaned boys in Pusan.

Mrs. Tillman, a native of Tennessee, is past president of the Woman's Division of the Board of Missions and is now serving on the Commission on Structure of Methodism Overseas and the Commission On Ecumenical Affairs of The Methodist Church. She is a member of the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches.

The Bible Study each day will be conducted by Dr. J. Lem Stokes. Dr. Stokes, the son of missionaries, was born in Korea. Since 1953 he has served as President of Pfeiffer College.

Conference officers of the Woman's Society of Christian Service are:

President, Mrs. Sam A. Dunn, Enfield; Vice-President, Miss Camille Staton, Bethel; Recording Secretary, Mrs. J. E. Davis, Sanford; and Treasurer, Mrs. Harold Mann, Sanford.

The Public Occasions Committee at Methodist College announces a 13-program concert-lecture series for the 1965-66 academic year.

Each program in the series is open to the public, and will be presented in the Student Union at 8:00 P.M. All programs except the Fayetteville Symphony and the Oratorio are without charge.

The series will open Tuesday evening, October 5, with a lecture by Professor Richard Walser of the English Department of North Carolina State University.

Other programs during the first semester are scheduled as follows: October 20, Dr. H. Warner Kloepfer, Danforth lecturer on human genetics. Dr. Kloepfer has the reputation of being an outstanding speaker in laymen's language on critical genetic problems of the nuclear age.

November 16, Nathan Twining, pianist, will give a concert. The son of General Nathan Twining, retired Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Mr. Twining is a young pianist who has experienced a unique and phenomenal rise in the concert world.

The Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Dr. Willis Gates will give their fall concert on December 11. The Fayetteville Symphony under Dr. Gates' leadership is rapidly becoming one of the leading symphony orchestras of the area.

On December 13, The Methodist College chorus under the direction of Alan M. Porter, instructor in voice at the college, will give their annual Christmas program. The 50-voice chorus has experienced unbelievable progress in the five years since the college opened for the first class.

On January 12, Ursula Zollenkopf, contralto, will be presented in concert. Miss Zollenkopf, who lives in West Germany, is one of the fine European singers. She has had successes all over Europe, including her performance under Stravinsky in the world's first presentation of his oratorio "Threni" in Venice.

Seven programs will be featured during the second semester.

A concert on February 15, will feature Ottomar Borwitzky, 'Cellist. Mr. Borwitzky is principal 'cellist of the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra.

Alan Porter, tenor, will give a concert on February 22. Porter, who is instructor in voice at Methodist College, has been received enthusiastically in previous recitals at the college and elsewhere.

On March 1, Dr. Jose Maria Chaves, Danforth lecturer on Latin American Affairs, will give a lecture. Dr. Chaves is a Colombian educator, lawyer, diplomat and authority on Cervantes.

Alirio Diaz, classic guitarist, will give a concert on March 8. Mr. Diaz, born in Venezuela, was assistant to the great Spanish guitar-virtuoso Andres Segovia and was presented by him to the public as one of this century's leading practitioners on the guitar.

On March 19 the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra will present their spring concert.

The College Chorus will present their spring concert on April 5.

The concluding program will be an Oratorio by the Methodist College Chorus, Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra and guest soloists. This program will be presented on May 14.
