Dr. Rosalie Prince Gates, assistant professor of history at Meredith College and an authority in the field of Indian Affairs, will be guest lecturer at Methodist College on Tuesday, April 19, at 8 p.m. in the student union. The public is invited to attend.

Dr. Gates will speak on "The Sino-Indian Border Dispute and Its Implications."

She and her husband, Jack E. Gates, recently attended a reception at the Indian Embassy in Washington honoring Madame Indira Gandhi.

Born in Fayetteville, Dr. Gates attended Dunn High School and Greensboro College, and received a B.A. degree from Duke University. She later received a Master's and a Ph.D. degree from Duke.

Following her marriage to Mr. Gates in Roxboro in 1949, she taught in the schools of Person County, college preparatory groups, for eight years.

In 1963 she was a Fulbright-Hays grantee in India at the University of Mysore and Delhi International Center. Other honors include an International Scholarship of Delta Kappa Gamma Society, and grants from the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences at Duke and the Commonwealth-Studies Center at Duke for research on her doctoral thesis.

Dr. Gates is the author of a number of articles and is currently under contract with the Pergamon Press, Oxford, England, for preparation of a manuscript on the Sino-Indian Border dispute.

The Gateses have three children: Rosalie, 13; Robert, 9; and Karen, 1 1/2.

Fayetteville, N. C. - The Department of Music of Methodist College will present a joint junior recital featuring Miss Teresa Zahran, soprano, and Miss Ann McKnight, pianist, on Sunday, April 17, at 3 p.m. in the campus student union.

Miss Zahran, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Zahran of Fayetteville, is a student of Alan M. Porter, voice teacher at the college. She has appeared frequently as soloist with the Methodist College Chorus, of which she is secretary-treasurer. She is also the vice-president of the college chapter of the Music Educators National Conference and has taught both voice and piano privately.

Miss McKnight, who studies piano with Mrs. Bert Ishee, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus G. McKnight of this city. She is president and accompanist of the Methodist College Chorus and secretary of the local M.E.N.C. chapter. She is employed by the college music department as student accompanist and is organist for St. Andrews Methodist Church. She is the holder of the Scholarship for Children of Post Office employees and the Methodist College Merit Scholarship. She also teaches piano privately in Fayetteville. In this recital she will be heard in the dual role of piano soloist and accompanist to the vocalist.

The program will open with Miss Zahran singing four songs by the seventeenth century English composer Henry Purcell. They are: "Hark, the Echoing Air," "If Music be the Food of Love," "Nymphs and Shepherds," and "Man is for the Woman Made." Miss McKnight will then play the Prelude and Fugue in D major by Johann Sebastian Bach.

A group of Italian and French songs of the Early Baroque era will make up the next group. Two pieces by Scarlatti, "La Fortuna" and "Sento nel Core," will be followed by "La Musette" by Rameau, the famous "Bois Epais" by Lully, and "Le Rosier" by Rousseau. The first half of the program will close with the piano Sonata in G major (K. 283) by Mozart.

After a brief intermission, Miss McKnight will continue with the Chopin Nocturne, Op. 37, No. 2, which will be followed by Miss Zahran singing the aria "Deh Vieni non Tardar" from Mozart's opera Nozze di Figaro. The French Impressionistic period will be represented by the piano composition entitled "Le Vent dans la Plaine" by Claude Debussy.

The final section of the program will be a group of twentieth century songs in English. This group will include two songs by the English composer John Ireland, "If there were dreams to sell" and "I have twelve oxen." The recital will conclude with two American songs: "This Little Rose" by William Roy, and "Ecstasy" by Walter Rummel.

The public is cordially invited to attend this event, which will be without admission charge.

Fayetteville, N. C. - Dr. Vearl G. McBride, head of the department of education and psychology at Methodist College, and two of his students were in Raeford Wednesday to present a program on reading improvement at the Upchurch Union High School, as part of National Library Week.

The Methodist College students - Anne Butler of Marion, S. C., and Gordon Dixon of Mathews, Va., - gave a demonstration of rapid reading techniques and averaged 3,500 words per minute.

Dr. McBride, well known for his past experience in Reading Development programs, currently is serving as consultant for a Columbus County reading improvement program. He also recently gave a talk on this subject before the Fayetteville Exchange Club. At that time another of his students, Jean Barkley of St. Pauls, demonstrated rapid reading techniques.

Fayetteville, N. C. - The Methodist College campus will be the scene of a week-long Royal Fine Arts Festival, from May 2 through May 8.

The celebration's theme is "Fantasia 1966." Featuring an art show, drama productions, faculty talent night, concert, film-discussion group and other events, the festival will be climaxed by the annual May Dance and crowning of the May Queen on Saturday night, May 7.

Throughout the week a display by Mrs. Elizabeth Garthly's art students will be on view in the college library.

Parker Wilson, assistant professor of history, is overall coordinator for the Festival and is directing the Faculty Talent Night which will highlight the first day's events. Another feature of this entertainment will be the presentation of the five May Queen finalists: Pam Zollars of Fayetteville; Susan Council of Durham; Beverly Parks of Swanwyck Gardens, Del.; Charlotte Carmine of Richmond, Va.; and Gwen Pheagin of Gastonia.

Two melodramas, with plenty of audience participation, are to be presented by the Green and Gold Masque Keys on Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Mrs. Joy Jackson, English instructor, is the director.

A Royal Tournament, sponsored by Campus Intramurals and featuring a softball game between the coeds and men students, has been scheduled for Thursday afternoon. The Baptist Student Union is making arrangements for a film and a student discussion group on Thursday night.

The festival will continue on Friday with a concert sponsored by the Student Government Association and will be climaxed on Saturday night when the May Queen is crowned during intermission of the May Dance. Following the dance, a Royal Feast, under joint sponsorship of the Methodist Student Movement and Garber Hall, will be held in Garber Hall.

The Royal Festival will conclude with special worship services and a fellowship hour in the student union at 8 p.m. Sunday. Miss Sara Wilkin, instructor in Bible, is in charge of arrangements for this service.

Fayetteville, N. C. - The Methodist College campus will be the scene of a week-long Royal Fine Arts Festival, from May 2 through May 8.

The celebration's theme is "Fantasia 1966." Featuring an art show, drama productions, faculty talent night, concert, film-discussion group and other events, the festival will be climaxed by the annual May Dance and crowning of the May Queen on Saturday night, May 7.

Throughout the week a display by Mrs. Elizabeth Garthly's art students will be on view in the college library.

Parker Wilson, assistant professor of history, is overall coordinator for the Festival and is directing the Faculty Talent Night which will highlight the first day's events. Another feature of this entertainment will be the presentation of the five May Queen finalists: Pam Zollars of Fayetteville; Susan Council of Durham; Beverly Parks of Swanwyck Gardens, Del.; Charlotte Carmine of Richmond, Va.; and Gwen Pheagin of Gastonia.

Two melodramas, with plenty of audience participation, are to be presented by the Green and Gold Masque Keys on Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Mrs. Joy Jackson, English instructor, is the director.

A Royal Tournament, sponsored by Campus Intramurals and featuring a softball game between the coeds and men students, has been scheduled for Thursday afternoon. The Baptist Student Union is making arrangements for a film and a student discussion group on Thursday night.

The festival will continue on Friday with a concert sponsored by the Student Government Association and will be climaxed on Saturday night when the May Queen is crowned during intermission of the May Dance. Following the dance, a Royal Feast, under joint sponsorship of the Methodist Student Movement and Garber Hall, will be held in Garber Hall.

The Royal Festival will conclude with special worship services and a fellowship hour in the student union at 8 p.m. Sunday. Miss Sara Wilkin, instructor in Bible, is in charge of arrangements for this service.

Fayetteville, N. C. - Three entries in the recent Royal Fine Arts Week Festival art exhibit at Methodist College have been selected for display in the library for the next year.

Representing three different media, the selections include: a watercolor, "City Mist," by Eric G. Umstead of Fayetteville; a leaf mosaic, "Pleasure and Toil," by Margaret Alexander of Charlotte; and a wood-carved mask by Ellis L. Selph, Jr., of Durham.

Judging was by a faculty committee comprised of Bruce Pulliam, of the department of social studies; Parker Wilson, of the history faculty; and Dr. Christopher Ryan, professor of economics and business administration.

The exhibit was under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Garthly, assistant professor of art.

Fayetteville - A Trustee Development Program to complete the funding of a $1,050,000 Fine Arts-Auditorium Building at Methodist College was unanimously approved by the college board of trustees Tuesday.

Reporting at the annual spring board meeting, President L. Stacy Weaver said that $450,000 of the estimated cost is now available. The additional $600,000, to be raised through the special trustee project, is being sought beyond the funds provided through the organization of the Methodist Church and other sources.

In other business, Dr. Weaver reported that during the current academic year 866 students have enrolled in the college and that an enrollment of between 925 and 950 students is anticipated for the 1966-67 school year. The college will have reached a plateau, as far as resident students are concerned, in September of this year since, for the first time, all four classes will be housed in permanent dormitories and all dormitories will be filled.

The Board voted to grant degrees to 65 seniors, conditioned upon satisfactory completion of the current semester's work.

In reporting on academic affairs, Dr. Weaver said the college's Department of Spanish and the Department of Political Science will be expanded to major status with the beginning of the next academic year.

Officers of the Board of Trustees re-elected to serve for the next year are: Terry Sanford, Fayetteville, chairman; W. Robert Johnson, Goldsboro, vice chairman; John W. Hensdale, Fayetteville, secretary; Wilson F. Yarborough, Fayetteville, treasurer.

Fayetteville - Three Fayetteville students have been named to the staff of the Methodist College newspaper, SMALL TALK, for the 1966-67 academic year.

They are: Bryan Caton, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Caton of 210 Ellington St., layout editor; Jean Hutchinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hutchinson, 232 B. Street, feature editor; Kenneth Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Murray, 1715 Catawba St., editorial assistant.

Other staff members for next year will be: William Billings of Durham, editor; Susan Sharp of Fairfax, Va., news editor; Richard Alston of Louisburg, business manager; and Michael Hale of Durham, sports editor.

In a special 3-page issue on May 16, SMALL TALK will present a comprehensive review of Methodist College activities during the 1965-66 school year. Also, the staff is assembling a library display which will explain the process by which SMALL TALK is edited and published.

Fayetteville, N. C. - William H. Billings, a rising junior from Durham, has been elected editor of the Methodist College student newspaper, sSMALL TALK, for the 1966-67 academic year.

The selection of Mr. Billings as sSMALL TALK editor was announced today, following approval by the College Publications Committee and the Student Life Committee.

Mr. Billings, son of Mrs. Celeste M. Billings of 1209 Liberty Street, Durham, also has been elected to serve as a Student Government Association senator for next year and won honors in a recent debate tournament.

A 1963 graduate of Durham High School, Mr. Billings worked for a time as dispatch clerk in the advertising department of the Herald-Sun.

This year, in addition to serving as news editor of sSMALL TALK, he has served as secretary of the Literary Club, assistant editor of the literary club publication, and treasurer of his dormitory. He was on the Dean's List first semester and will serve as a sophomore class marshal for commencement. His major is English.

THE DEDICATION OF SANFORD HALL

May 3, 1966

Presiding

Dr. L. Stacy Weaver, President, Methodist College

INVOCATION -- The Reverend B. L. Davidson, Board of Trustees

O God, to whom belong adoration and praise: Prepare us, through the active presence of thy Spirit, to come before Thee worthily and to ask of thee rightly; enlighten our understanding; purify our every desire; quicken our wills into instant obedience to thy Word; strengthen every right purpose; direct this hour of worship to the magnifying of thy name, and to the enduring good of us thy children and servants; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DECLARATION OF PURPOSE -- Mr. Davidson

Dearly beloved, this building, which by the favor of God and the labor of man has been completed and set in use, embodies the obligation of each generation to impart its treasures of wisdom and knowledge to the generations following. For the fulfillment of this task we need, not only the best that men can do, but above all the blessing of Almighty God. Let us therefore bring to him our praises and our prayers on behalf of those who by their gifts or their services shall unite in fulfilling the purpose for which this building is prepared.

THE DOXOLOGY

THE SCRIPTURE LESSON -- Gordon Dixon, President, Sanford Hall

Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding. For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold. She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her. Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honor. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is everyone that retaineth her. The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens. By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew. My son, let not them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion: so shall they be life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck. Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

THE RESPONSIVE READING -- Mr. Davidson

Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

FOR MY MOUTH SHALL SPEAK TRUTH: AND WICKEDNESS IS AN ABOMINATION TO MY LIPS.

Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

FOR WISDOM IS BETTER THAN RUBIES: AND ALL THE THINGS THAT MAY BE DESIRED ARE NOT TO BE COMPARED TO IT.

But where shall wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding?

BEHOLD, THE FEAR OF THE LORD, THAT IS WISDOM: AND TO DEPART FROM EVIL IS UNDERSTANDING.

THE ACT OF PRESENTATION -- Dr. Weaver

We present this building to be dedicated to the service of Almighty God in the enlightenment of His children and in honor of TERRY SANFORD, THE FIRST CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES, GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA 1960-64 AND EDUCATIONAL STATESMAN.

THE ACT OF DEDICATION -- The Reverend J. W. Page, Board of Trustees

In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, we dedicate this Men's Residence Hall to the holy ministry of education in honor of Terry Sanford, as a place of fellowship, spiritual enrichment and enlightenment, and a place of rest and relaxation for students in the midst of the rigorous and exhaustive pursuits of academic goals.

TAKE FAST HOLD OF INSTRUCTION; LET HER NOT GO; KEEP HER; FOR SHE IS THY LIFE.

We dedicate this building to the spiritual enrichment of all who shall come here in pursuit of knowledge.

HAPPY IS THE MAN THAT FINDETH WISDOM, AND THE MAN THAT GETTETH UNDERSTANDING.

We dedicate this building to the broadening of mental horizons and the deepening of knowledge, that young and old may be awakened and informed.

THY WORD IS A LAMP UNTO MY FEET AND A LIGHT UNTO MY PATH.

We dedicate this building to Christian fellowship and to recreation of mind and body.

THOU WILT SHOW ME THE PATH OF LIFE; IN THY PRESENCE IS FULLNESS OF JOY; AT THY RIGHT HAND THERE ARE PLEASURES FOR EVERMORE.

WE DEDICATE OURSELVES ANEW TO THAT SERVICE OF OUR FELLOW MEN WHEREIN CAN BEST BE PERFORMED OUR TRUE SERVICE OF GOD, IN OBEDIENCE TO THE SPIRIT OF THE MASTER WHEN HE SAID: THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD THY GOD WITH ALL THY HEART, AND THY NEIGHBOR AS THYSELF.

THE PRAYER OF DEDICATION -- Mr. Page

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, whose eyes are ever toward the righteous, and whose ears are ever open unto their cry; graciously accept, we pray thee, this building which we now dedicate to thee, to thy service, and to thy glory, that in it love and wisdom may unite to make plain the path of knowledge to those who gather here; and we beseech thee, receive us thy servants who here dedicate ourselves anew to thee and to those offices of fellowship and good will in which thou art well pleased. Grant that those who come here may come with pure minds, upright purpose, and steadfast endeavor, to learn and to do thy holy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE RESPONSE -- The Honorable Terry Sanford

THE BENEDICTION -- Mr. Page

THE DEDICATION OF WEAVER HALL

May 3, 1966

Presiding

Terry Sanford, Chairman, Board of Trustees

INVOCATION -- The Reverend V. E. Queen, Board of Trustees

Blessed and glorious Lord God Almighty, by whose power, wisdom, and love all things are sanctified, enlightened, and made perfect; be merciful unto us and bless us, we beseech thee, and cause thy face to shine upon us, that what we now do may please thee, and show forth the honor of thy name. Amen.

DECLARATION OF PURPOSE -- Mr. Queen

Dearly beloved, this building, which by the favor of God and the labor of man has been completed and set in use, embodies the obligation of each generation to impart its treasures of wisdom and knowledge to the generations following. For the fulfillment of this task we need, not only the best that men can do, but above all the blessing of Almighty God. Let us therefore bring to him our praises and our prayers on behalf of those who by their gifts or their services shall unite in fulfilling the purpose for which this building is prepared.

THE DOXOLOGY

THE SCRIPTURE LESSON -- Miss Anna Dixon, President, Weaver Hall

We are fellow workmen for God; you are God's field, God's building. According to the commission of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and another man is building upon it. Let each man take care how he builds upon it. For to this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. Let no one despise your youth, but set the believers an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth. ... make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these things are yours and abound, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

THE RESPONSIVE READING -- The Reverend O. L. Hathaway, Board of Trustees

Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars.

DOTH NOT WISDOM CRY? AND UNDERSTANDING PUT FORTH HER VOICE?

She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

SHE CRIETH AT THE GATES, AT THE ENTRY OF THE CITY, AT THE COMING IN AT THE DOORS.

Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

O YE SIMPLE, UNDERSTAND WISDOM: AND YE FOOLS, BE YE OF AN UNDERSTANDING HEART.

THE ACT OF PRESENTATION -- Mr. Sanford

We present this building to be dedicated to the service of Almighty God in the enlightenment of His children and in honor of LUCIUS STACY WEAVER, THE BUILDER AND FIRST PRESIDENT OF METHODIST COLLEGE.

THE ACT OF DEDICATION -- The Reverend N. W. Grant, Board of Trustees

In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, we dedicate this Women's Residence Hall to the holy ministry of education in honor of Lucius Stacy Weaver, as a place of fellowship, spiritual enrichment and enlightenment, and a place of rest and relaxation for students in the midst of the rigorous and exhaustive pursuits of academic goals.

THE PRAYER OF DEDICATION -- Mr. Grant

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, whose eyes are ever toward the righteous, and whose ears are ever open unto their cry; graciously accept, we pray thee, this building which we now dedicate to thee, to thy service, and to thy glory, that in it love and wisdom may unite to make plain the path of knowledge to those who gather here; and we beseech thee, receive us thy servants who here dedicate ourselves anew to thee and to those offices of fellowship and good will in which thou art well pleased. #### THE RESPONSE -- Dr. L. Stacy Weaver

THE BENEDICTION -- Mr. Queen

Dr. Weaver's Speech concerning Dedication.

I express appreciation to the Board of Trustees, not only for myself but on behalf of the members of my family, for the honor which you have done me in decreeing that this building (Weaver Hall) shall bear my name. If men are to have monuments of steel and stone, I know of none more appropriate or more pleasing to me, than a habitation which is alive and vibrant with young people. It is my belief and hope that this building will continue to serve many generations of young women, long after this humble servant shall have departed from mortal scene. Let them find here a home away from home, A bridge between adolescence and womanhood, where they may grow in stature and wisdom and in favor with God and all mankind. Let this building be for them a haven from the storms which so often beset the pathway of youth; A quiet place to refresh body, mind and spirit; a place for opportunity to form lasting friendships; to study and to learn, that they may bring to full fruition all of the potentialities with which nature and nature's God has endowed them.

While this building is today being dedicated in my honor, its real dedication is to the glory of God and the ennoblement of young womanhood. Let it be so utilized.

Fayetteville - Dedication ceremonies for two new residence halls were held at Methodist College Tuesday.

During afternoon exercises in the lounges of the two buildings, plaques were unveiled naming the new women's hall Weaver Hall in honor of Dr. L. Stacy Weaver, president of the college, and the men's hall Sanford Hall in honor of Terry Sanford, chairman of the college board of trustees and former governor of North Carolina.

Members of the board of trustees and their wives, students, faculty and friends of the college attended the ceremonies which followed the annual spring trustee meeting.

Speaking in response to the dedication, Mr. Sanford recalled that Methodist College only a few years ago was but a "dream in a cotton field." And, "although now a success, no longer a risk or an unknown quantity, it remains a dream." He expressed the hope that "all of us remain determined as we move forward to the fulfillment of that dream."

In exercises at Weaver Hall, Dr. Weaver said that "If men are to have monuments of steel and stone, I know of none more appropriate or more pleasing to me, than a habitation which is alive and vibrant with young people."

In speaking of the generations of young women who will be housed in the dormitory, he said: "Let this building be for them a haven from the storms which so often beset the pathway of youth; a quiet place to refresh body, mind and spirit;

a place for opportunity to form lasting friendships, to study and to learn, that they may bring to full fruition all of the potentialities with which nature and nature's God has endowed them."

Also participating in the exercises were the following board members: the Rev. V. E. Queen of Sanford; the Rev. O. L. Hathaway of Durham; the Rev. N. W. Grant of Raleigh; the Rev. B. L. Davidson of Fayetteville; and the Rev. J. W. Page of Rocky Mount.

Student presidents of the two halls, Anna Gail Dixon of Burlington and Gordon Dixon of Mathews, Va., gave the scripture lessons.

Methodist College, now in its sixth year of operation, anticipates an enrollment of some 900 students for the 1966-67 academic year and expects to begin additional campus construction in the near future. There are now four residence halls, all of which will be filled for the first time this fall.

During afternoon exercises in the lounges of the two buildings, plaques were unveiled naming the new women's hall Weaver Hall in honor of Dr. L. Stacy Weaver, president of the college, and the men's hall Sanford Hall in honor of Terry Sanford, chairman of the college board of trustees and former governor of North Carolina.

Members of the board of trustees and their wives, students, faculty and friends of the college attended the ceremonies which followed the annual spring trustee meeting.

Speaking in response to the dedication, Mr. Sanford recalled that Methodist College only a few years ago was but a "dream in a cotton field." And, "although now a success, no longer a risk or an unknown quantity, it remains a dream." He expressed the hope that "all of us remain determined as we move forward to the fulfillment of that dream."

In exercises at Weaver Hall, Dr. Weaver said that "If men are to have monuments of steel and stone, I know of none more appropriate or more pleasing to me, than a habitation which is alive and vibrant with young people."

In speaking of the generations of young women who will be housed in the dormitory, he said: "let this building be for them a haven from the storms which so often beset the pathway of youth; a quiet place to refresh body, mind and spirit;

a place for opportunity to form lasting friendships, to study and to learn, that they may bring to full fruition all of the potentialities with which nature and nature's God has endowed them."

Also participating in the exercises were the following board members: the Rev. V. E. Queen of Sanford; the Rev. O. L. Hathaway of Durham; the Rev. N. W. Grant of Raleigh; the Rev. B. L. Davidson of Fayetteville; and the Rev. J. W. Page of Rocky Mount.

Student presidents of the two halls, Anna Gail Dixon of Burlington and Gordon Dixon of Mathews, Va., gave the scripture lessons.

Methodist College, now in its sixth year of operation, anticipates an enrollment of some 900 students for the 1966-67 academic year and expects to begin additional campus construction in the near future. There are now four residence halls, all of which will be filled for the first time this fall.

At the trustee meeting earlier in the day, a Trustee Development Program to complete the funding of a $1,050,000 Fine Arts-Auditorium Building at Methodist College was unanimously approved. Dr. Mott Blair, prominent Methodist layman of Siler City and chairman of the college's Development committee, outlined plans for this effort.

In his report, President Weaver said that $450,000 of the estimated cost is now available. The additional $600,000 to be raised through the special trustee project, as a <sup>extension</sup> ~~projection~~ of the fund raising efforts of the president's office, is being sought beyond the funds being provided through the organization of the Methodist Church.

He also announced that bids will be taken on June 1 for an addition to the Student Union Building.

In other business, Dr. Weaver reported that during the current academic year 866 students have enrolled in the college and that an enrollment of between 925 and 950 students is anticipated for the 1966-67 school year.

The Board authorized the granting of degrees to three students who completed their work at the close of the first semester in January 1966 and voted to grant degrees to 65 seniors, conditioned upon satisfactory completion of the current semester's work.

In reporting on academic affairs, Dr. Weaver said the college's Department of Spanish and the Department of Political Science will be expanded to major status with the beginning of the next academic year.

Officers of the Board of Trustees re-elected to serve for the next year are: Terry Sanford, Fayetteville, chairman; W. Robert Johnson, Goldsboro, vice chairman; John W. Hensdale, Fayetteville, secretary; Wilson F. Yarborough, Fayetteville, treasurer.

Fayetteville - As a contribution to the 1966 Cumberland County Fine Arts Festival, the Methodist College Chorus and the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra will jointly present a concert performance of Henry Purcell's opera "Dido and Aeneas."

The presentation will take place on Saturday, May 14 at 8:00 p.m. in the student union building on the Methodist College campus.

"Dido and Aeneas," which has long been considered as perhaps the finest pre-20th-century English opera, has as its plot the ill-fated love affair between the Trojan prince Aeneas and Dido, the beautiful queen of Carthage -- a well-known episode from Vergil's "Aeneid." The musical score is brimming with rousing choruses, beautiful songs, dramatic recitatives, witches rantings, and robust dance tunes.

The major solo roles will be sung by Ann Ratzell, instructor of voice at St. Andrews College, as Dido; Alan M. Porter, instructor of voice at Methodist College, as Aeneas; Barbara Holmes, graduate of Methodist College and now a graduate assistant at Appalachian State College, as Belinda; and Clyde Hiss, instructor of voice at East Carolina College, as the Sorcerer.

The Methodist College Chorus, which has been trained by Alan Porter, will perform the choral parts and will also furnish individuals for the minor solo roles. These include Teresa Zahran, Ann Colville, Roberta West, Barbara Simmons, and William Blalock.

The Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Willis Gates, will perform the orchestral parts. A special brass prelude will precede the opera performed by the Fayetteville Symphony brass ensemble whose members include Roy Roach, Dr. Robert Downing, and Odell Kirkhum, trumpets; James Langston, Robbie Thomas, and Pam Nichols, horns; Mike Canipe and James Allen, trombones; John McCallum and John Kirkhum, percussion.

Admission will be by Fayetteville Symphony membership cards, or tickets may be obtained at the door.

Fayetteville - A Fayetteville native, Barbara Allen Holmes, will be a guest soloist when the Methodist College Chorus and the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra present a joint concert performance as part of the 1966 Cumberland County Fine Arts Festival on Saturday, May 14.

The presentation of Henry Purcell's opera "Dido and Aeneas" will be given at 8 p.m. in the student union building on the Methodist College campus.

Miss Holmes, currently doing graduate work in the junior college teaching program at Appalachian State Teachers College in Boone, was graduated from Methodist College in 1965.

She has studied with Otis Lambert, Alan Porter, and Mrs. Virginia Ward Linney in voice, with Mrs. Jean Ishee in piano and organ, and with Robert Hord in piano. In 1963 she attended the summer music school of the University of Michigan at National Music Camp, Interlochen.

While at Appalachian she is participating in college chorus and college orchestra. During Christmas she was a soloist in Handel's Messiah. Earlier in the year, she entered the National Association of Teachers of Singing auditions in Athens, Georgia.

While an undergraduate student in Fayetteville, Miss Holmes sang in the Methodist College Chorus, participated in theatrical productions of "Brigadoon" and

"My Fair Lady," and played piano with the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra.

She was pianist for the Christian Science group and organist at Christ Methodist Church during high school and college years. As a high school senior, she was winner of the Kiwanis Talent Night. During three years of high school, she played in the district piano festivals.

Other major solo roles will be sung by Ann Ratzell, voice instructor at St. Andrews College, Alan M. Porter, voice instructor at Methodist College, and Clyde Hiss, voice instructor at East Carolina College.

Admission will be by Fayetteville Symphony membership cards, or tickets may be obtained at the door.

Fayetteville, N. C. - The Methodist College Debate Club has elected officers for the 1966-67 academic year and is formulating plans for a stronger and more active organization next year.

Elected were: president, Michael Hale of Durham; secretary, Rosemary Lands of Charlotte; and treasurer, Kathy Hawthorne of Fairfax, Va. A vice president will be chosen in the fall.

Encouraged by a good showing at a recent debate tournament in Lynchburg, Va., the Methodist College debaters have joined the American Forensic Association and expect to enter debate competition with at least three other colleges in this area.

The club was organized in October 1965, with Dr. Francis Merchant, professor of English, as faculty sponsor. Assistance also has been given by Mrs. Janet Cavano, English instructor, who accompanied the team to Lynchburg.
