

JULY 1967 CHRONOLOGICAL FILE

DATE	SUBJECT	MAILING
8-10-67	Interfaith Panel - School of Christian Mission	THE FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER (cutline and picture)
8-17-67	Interfaith Panel School of Christian Mission	N. C. CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE (cutline and picture)
8-21-67	Lay School of Evangelism: Trophy for most miles traveled, trophy for largest attendance, School leaders, and Lay Witness Mission panel.	THE NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE (Cutlines and pictures)
8-25-67	CONFERENCE LAYMEN'S RETREAT: pre-conference information	THE FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER: Jim Pharr
8-25-67	Bookstore opening date and hours.	Radio Stations WIDU, WFAI, WFLB, WFNC, WFBS
8-31-67	Layman's Retreat	N. C. Christian Advocate (cutline & picture)

THE FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER

(for immediate release)

Methodist College
Fayetteville, North Carolina
By Charles K. McAdams, Director of Public Relations
August 10, 1967

Cutline for picture

INTERFAITH DISCUSSION--These panelists during the School of Christian Mission of the North Carolina Methodist Conference meeting at Methodist College discussed yesterday the progress, impact and outlook of the current ecumenical movement in the world. They are from left, Father James Flavin, Fayetteville, Assistant Pastor, St. Patrick Catholic Church; Miss Helen Crotwell, Durham, Assistant Campus Minister to Methodist Students at Duke University; Dr. James I. Warren, Raleigh, Pastor of St. James Methodist Church, moderator of the panel, and Miss Geneva Morris, Bland, Virginia, missionary to Japan, presently on furlough.

Methodist College
Fayetteville, North Carolina 28301
By Charles K. McAdams, Director of Public Relations
August 16, 1967

Cutline for picture

INTERFAITH DISCUSSION--These panelists during the School of Christian Mission of the North Carolina Annual Conference which met at Methodist College, August 5-11, discuss the progress, impact and outlook of the current ecumenical movement in the world. They are from left, Father James Flavin, Fayetteville, Assistant Pastor, St. Patrick Catholic Church; Miss Helen Crotwell, Durham, Assistant Campus Minister to Methodist Students at Duke University; Dr. James I. Warren, Raleigh, Pastor of St. James Methodist Church, moderator of the panel; and Miss Geneva Morris, Bland, Virginia, missionary to Japan, presently on furlough. This discussion was one of the highlights of the School.

Photo- C. K. McAdams

NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

Methodist College
Fayetteville, North Carolina 28301
By Charles K. McAdams, Director of Public Relations
August 21, 1967

Pictures taken during the North Carolina Annual Conference Lay School of Evangelism held at Methodist College, August 12-13. The school was sponsored jointly by the Conference Board of Evangelism and the Conference Board of Lay Activities.

Photos--Charles McAdams

THE MEBANE METHODIST CHURCH received the trophy for the most man-miles traveled. The Reverend H. M. McLamb, right, presents the trophy to Miss Pauline Nicholson and H. H. McCauley, two of the five persons from their church in attendance at the School.

A HIGHLIGHT of the conference was a panel which discussed the various aspects of the Lay Witness Mission in the local church. Members of the panel are: from left, Bill Marley, Goldsboro; the Reverend Kenneth Sexton, Roseboro; Roy Turnage, Ayden, Panel Moderator; Mrs. Betty Richardson, West End; L. M. "Red" Lutterloh, Siler City; Jim Patrick, Durham.

LEADERS FOR THE SCHOOL discuss the weekend program. They are: from left, Roy Turnage, Ayden, Conference Lay Leader and Chairman of the Conference Board of Lay Activities; Dr. Howard P. Powell, Raleigh, preacher for the school; the Reverend Charles D. Whittle, Director of Local Church, District and Conference Evangelism of the General Board of Evangelism, Nashville, Tennessee, who served as a most effective resource person; the Reverend Howard McLamb, Raleigh, Executive Director, Conference Board of Evangelism and the Coordinator of the school.

HAYMOUNT CHURCH, Fayetteville, received the trophy for the best attendance at the school. Colonel Carl H. Weeldreyer, chairman of the church's Commission on Membership and Evangelism, receives the trophy from the Reverend H. M. McLamb. Haymount had seven persons present for the school.

Over 500 Methodist laymen of the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church will gather on the Methodist College campus Saturday and Sunday, August 26-27, for the 1967 session of the Annual Laymen's Retreat.

These laymen will come from local churches throughout eastern North Carolina from Burlington to Manteo for the two days of fellowship, instruction, and inspiration.

The Retreat will begin with registration at 10 o'clock Saturday and will conclude with lunch on Sunday. The opening session will be at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Inspirational speakers for the retreat will be Dr. James W. Sells, Executive Secretary, Committee on Lay Activities, Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church, Atlanta, Ga., and the Rev. Alvin B. Weston of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Communications Council, Atlanta. Mr. Weston will speak at 2:45 Saturday afternoon and Dr. Sells will speak at 8 o'clock Saturday evening and at the 11 o'clock worship service Sunday morning. These sessions will be in the Student Union. The Rev. L. J. Vereen of Raleigh will be the song leader for the retreat.

The theme of the retreat will be "The Stewardship of the Laity." Ten different discussion groups will meet in three one-hour sessions throughout the retreat and will discuss the various aspects of the theme. The leaders for these groups will be James T. Patrick, Durham; Charles L. McCullers, Dunn; Richard R. Allen, Fayetteville; J. Nelson Gibson, Gibson; James F. Rogers,

Page 2 - Laymen's Retreat

Burlington; Dr. F. Olen Hunt, Raleigh; Lee Parker, Raleigh; Dr. Sells; Mr. Weston; and the Rev. Robert Gibbons, Atlanta.

A highlight of the retreat will be early morning worship and fellowship around the Yarborough Bell Tower at 7 o'clock, led by the men of Hamlet Methodist Church.

The retreat is under the direction of Roy Turnage of Ayden, Conference Lay Leader and Chairman of the Conference Board of Lay Activities.

MEMORANDUM

August 28, 1967

TO: WIDU Radio Station, WFAI, WFLB, WFNC, WFBS
FROM: Charles K. McAdams
Director of Public Relations
Methodist College

We would appreciate your running the following information as a public service announcement or as a news item.

The Methodist College Bookstore is now open for business.

All students who possibly can are urged to get their fall semester books before the rush starts. Classes begin September 14.

Bookstore hours of operation are:

8:30 to 11:30 A.M. 1:00 to 3:45 P.M.
Monday through Friday except Monday,
September 4 (Labor Day) when the Bookstore
will not be open.

August 31, 1967

Dr. Stokes, you may use this picture with cutlines in connection with a story which Roy Turnage will send you concerning the Layman's Retreat.

Charles McAdams

Cutlines

Leaders for the N. C. Annual Conference Layman's Retreat which met at Methodist College August 26-27 are, from left: Roy H. Turnage, Conference Lay Leader; Robert H. Gibbons, Director of the Spiritual Life Youth Movement of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council, song leader; Dr. James W. Sells, Executive Secretary of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council, inspirational speaker; Robert R. Allen, Fayetteville District Lay Leader; and the Rev. Alvin B. Weston of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Communications Council, also one of the inspirational speakers.

Photo--Charles McAdams