FAYETTEVILLE - The Methodist College Chorus will begin its fourth annual tour on January 20 with concerts scheduled in North Carolina, Virginia, Pennsylvania and Connecticut.

The chorus is a select group of thirty-four students from six states. These students are chosen by audition for their personality, moral character and leadership qualities as well as for their musical talent. About half of the group are music majors, while the others are from the various other curricula of the college. The chorus is under the direction of Alan M Porter, Assistant Professor of Music at the college.

The concert program includes great sacred chorus from the sixteenth century to the present. Composers whose works will be presented include Haydn, Faure, Compere, Aaron Copland and Hugo Distler. One of the major works of the program will be the Cantata Number 118, "O Jesus, Lord, My Light and Life" by J.S. Bach. This will be accompanied by an ensemble of wind instruments headed by Mr. John W. Rider, Instructor of Music and Band Director at Methodist College.

While some of the selections will be sung a cappella, the chorus will be accompanied at various times by both piano and organ. Two of the most popular numbers on the program are accompanied by guitar and banjo. These are "The New is Old" by Lloyd Pfautsch and "Spirit of God" by Sister Miriam Therese Winter.
