FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Mr. Bruce Shelley, Baseball Coach at Methodist College, Fayetteville, North Carolina, announces for immediate release that Mark Hibbard of Brick Town, New Jersey, has agreed to attend Methodist and participate in its varsity baseball program. Mark, a centerfielder from Brick Township High School, hit a .297 for the year. When walks for the season are added to .297, Mark reached base 50% of his times at bat. He was under the fine coaching direction of Jim Rutter. Hibbard lead the Dragons in stolen bases. He plays the outfield with the abilities of a pro, which resulted in his selection of "All County" his junior year. Mark is playing baseball this summer in the Ed Carlton League which is composed of high school and college students. Mark will enter Methodist in the fall, 1971 as a freshman.

Methodist Youth Music Workshop

Jean Hutchinson, Public Relations Office
488-7110, Ext. 228

The public is invited to attend the festival concert of the Youth Music Workshop at Methodist College on Saturday, June 19, at 10:30 a.m. The concert includes sacred music of selected styles and periods, with numerous contemporary numbers. The program will climax the June 14-19 workshop which is being sponsored by the ~~Program Council of the Council on Youth Ministry~~ for the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Workshop participants include seventy high-school-aged registrants from North Carolina and fifteen staff members. Workshop director is James Marshall, Director of Music at Edenton Street United Methodist Church in Raleigh.

Guest choral director is James Mc Hart, organist and choirmaster at Peachtree Presbyterian Church in Atlanta. He has provided leadership for music clinics and workshops in many states throughout the nation. With degrees from Westminster Choir College and the University of Michigan, Hart has studied under Carl Weinrich, Alexander McCurdy, and John Finley Williamson.

Youth Music Workshop activities included instruction in the Festival Choir and classes in music theory, conducting, voice, hymn playing, and handbell ringing, as well as private voice lessons for staff members.

Various recreational, dormitory and worship programs are scheduled daily for the workshop.

East Coast Cheerleading Camp

Jean Hutchinson, Public Relations Office
488-7110, Ext. 228

"Miss Cheerleader U.S.A.," Barbi Blackwell, will be chief instructor of the East Coast Cheerleading Camp to be held at Methodist College during the first week of August.

The camp is the first of its kind to be offered on the Atlantic Coast and is designed to meet the needs of today's cheerleaders. A three-phase program will cover training through physical cheerleading skills, seminars on social aspects of cheerleading, and group competition.

Extensive instruction in physical skills will cover 13 different jumps, various chants, stunts, two-and-three-person balances, and pom-poms routines. A physical fitness program of calisthenics and gymnastics has been developed to increase individual skills, agility and flexibility. Seminars will be held on make-up and hairstyling for girls, cheerleading etiquette, crowd control and sports fundamentals, spirit booster techniques, and poster and art work. A display of latest styles in cheerleader uniforms and accessories will be held also.

Instruction for beginning and experienced cheerleaders will be offered. Male and female cheerleaders in junior and senior high school or those entering college as freshmen this fall may participate in the camp. Applications are now being received by Gene Clayton, Camp Director, through Methodist College. The cut-off date for registration is July 15. (Camp dates are August 1 - 7.)
