

To: FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER July 19, 1972
DAILY DISPATCH, Henderson

Methodist College Alumni Leaders Named
Contact: Jean Hutchinson, Public
Relations Office 488-7110, Ext 22

CUTLINE: Recently-elected officials for the Methodist College Alumni Association are (Left to right) Mrs. Mason Sykes of Fayetteville, director; John Brown of Piscataway, N. J., director; ~~Linda~~ Miss Linda McPhail of Fayetteville, ~~director~~ ^{secretary} Milo McBryde of Fayetteville, director; and Miss Cynthia Walker of Henderson, president. Not shown is ~~Q.~~ David Hatchell of Arlington, Va., vice president. The new officers ~~met recently with~~ ^{and} six other members of the board of directors set policies for the 2,200-member alumni organization. (M. C. Photo)

CUTLINE: Miss Cynthia Walker of Henderson (right) has been elected president of the Methodist College Alumni Association. Daughter of Mrs. ~~of~~ of Durham, Miss Walker is the first woman to hold the MCAA position at the Fayetteville liberal arts institution. Also elected were (left to right) Mrs. Mason Sykes ~~of Fayetteville,~~ and Milo McBryde ~~and Miss Linda McPhail,~~ directors, and Miss Linda McPhail, secretary, all of Fayetteville; ~~and~~ John Brown of Piscataway, N. J., director; and (not ~~w~~ shown) David Hatchell of Alexandria, Va., vice president. (Methodist College Photo)

methodist college
fayetteville, n.c.

NEWS

TO: DURHAM SUN July 20, 1972
DURHAM MORNING HERALD

Miss Walker Elected President of Alumni Group

Contact: Jean Hutchinson, Assistant Director of Public Relations - 488-7110, Ext. 228

FAYETTEVILLE-----Miss Cynthia Anne Walker of Henderson has been elected president of the Methodist College Alumni Association. Daughter of Mrs. Harry Walker of Route 2, Durham, she is a local native. She is a 1961 graduate of Hillsboro High School and a 1965 graduate of Methodist College. Miss Walker is the first woman to hold the alumni office at the coeducational liberal arts institution in Fayetteville.

A librarian in the Vance County public school system, Miss Walker has been elected twice to the alumni association's board of directors before seeking the presidency. She is listed in the 1971 publication "Outstanding Young Women of America."

####

TO: DURHAM SUN

July 20, 1972

DURHAM MORNING HERALD

Miss Walker Elected President of Alumni Group

Contact: Jean Hutchinson, Assistant Director of Public Relations - 488-7110, Ext. 228

FAYETTEVILLE-----Miss Cynthia Anne Walker of Henderson has been elected president of the Methodist College Alumni Association. Daughter of Mrs. Harry Walker of Route 2, Durham, she is a local native. She is a 1961 graduate of Hillsboro High School and a 1965 graduate of Methodist College. Miss Walker is the first woman to hold the alumni office at the coeducational liberal arts institution in Fayetteville.

A librarian in the Vance County public school system, Miss Walker has been elected twice to the alumni association's board of directors before seeking the presidency. She is listed in the 1971 publication "Outstanding Young Women of America."

####

To: DAILY DISPATCH, Henderson July 30, 1972

Miss Walker Named Alumni President at Methodist

Contact: Miss Hutchinson, Assistant Director of Public Relations - 488-7110, Ext. 228

CUTLINE: Miss Cynthia A. Walker of Henderson (far right) has been elected president of the Methodist College Alumni Association. Daughter of Mrs. Harry Walker of Route 2, Durnam, Miss Walker is the first woman to hold the MCAA position at the Fayetteville liberal arts institution. Also elected were (left to right) Mrs. Mason Sykes and Miss McBryde, directors, and Miss Linda McPhail, secretary, all of Fayetteville; John Brown of Piscataway, N. J., director; and (not shown) David Hatchell of Alexandria, Va., vice president. (Methodist College Photo)

To: FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER - Prather

July 20, 1972

MCAA Leaders Elected

Contact: Jean Hutchinson, Public Relations Office
488-7110, Ext. 228

CUTLINE: Recently-elected officials for the Methodist College Alumni Association are (left to right) Mrs. Mason (Gwen) Sykes of Fayetteville, director; John Brown of Piscataway, N. J., director; Miss Linda McPhail of Fayetteville, secretary; Milo McBryde of Fayetteville, director; and Miss Cynthia Walker of Henderson, president. Not shown is David Hatchell of Alexandria, Va., vice president. The new officers and six other members of the board of directors set policies for the 2,200-member alumni organization. Miss Walker is the first woman to hold the presidency. (Methodist College Photo)

To: FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER - Pharr July 24, 1972

ACS Youth Leaders Named

Contact: Jean Hutchinson, P. R. Office
488-7110, Ext. 228

NEWS

CUTLINE: New youth ministry leaders of the N. C. Conference, United Methodist Church, were elected last week during an annual session at Methodist College. David Broadwell (center), son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Broadwell of Fayetteville, was named president. From left are Amy Leggett of Greenville, treasurer; Ricky Morgan of Corapeake, vice president; Dennis Barwick of Kinston, legislative affairs officer; and Holly Ludwick of Chapel Hill, secretary. Some 325 youth delegates and staff attended the session. (Methodist College Photo)

methodist college
fayetteville, n. c.

NEWS

To: FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER - Pharr July 24, 1972
CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE - via B. Joyner

ACS Youth Leaders Named

Contact: Jean Hutchinson, Public Relations Office
488-7110, Ext. 228

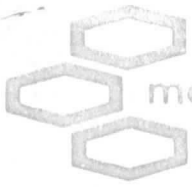

CUTLINE: New youth ministry leaders of the N. C. Conference, United Methodist Church, were elected last week during an annual session at Methodist College. David Broadwell (center), son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Broadwell of Fayetteville, was named president. From left are Amy Leggett of Greenville, treasurer; Ricky Morgan of Corapeake, vice president; Dennis Barwick of Kinston, legislative affairs officer; and Holly Ludwick of Chapel Hill, secretary. Some 325 youth delegates and staff attended the session. (Methodist College Photo)

To: FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER - Pharr July 24, 1972

ACS Youth Leaders Named

Contact: Jean Hutchinson, P. R. Office
488-7110, Ext. 228

CUTLINE: New youth ministry leaders of the N. C. Conference, United Methodist Church, were elected last week during an annual session at Methodist College. David Broadwell (center), son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Broadwell of Fayetteville, was named president. From left are Amy Leggett of Greenville, treasurer; Ricky Morgan of Corapeake, vice president; Dennis Barwick of Kinston, Legislative Affairs officer; and Holly Ludwick of Chapel Hill, secretary. Some 325 youth delegates and staff attended the session. (Methodist College Photo)

methodist college
fayetteville, n.c.

NEWS

94 mailed 5-30-72

To: Hometown Papers

May 31, 1972

72

Dean's List Announced at Methodist College

Contact: Jean Hutchinson, Assistant
Director of Public Relations - 488-7110, 228

FAYETTEVILLE

has been named to the second semester Dean's List at Methodist College in Fayetteville.

Dr. Samuel J. Womack, Academic Dean at Methodist, said a student must earn a "B" or better average on 15 or more semester hours to qualify for the honor.