FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For the first time ever, Methodist College has instituted a President's List.

Of the 175 students who received academic recognition for the first semester, 20 were named to the President's List, while 155 were named to the Dean's List.

According to college president, Dr. Richard W. Pearce, "we were delighted and proud to have so many students achieve this honor. We feel those students who attained the grade point average of 4.0 for the semester should be recognized separately."

December graduates named to the President's List include Miss Rebecca McDiarmid and James Steverson, both of Fayetteville; and Bruno Rizzato of Ft. Bragg.

Other President's List students are, from Fayetteville: Sarah Edge, Mrs. Sharon Elliott, Mrs. Lillian Evans, Ronald Komar, Mrs. Sandra Landis, William Langer, Mrs. Sandra Leechford, Mrs. Frances Leguerrier, Patricia Meeks, Donna Parrous, Steven Plice, Mrs. Kendall Powers, Marion Robertson and Mrs. Janet Stotts. Other North Carolina students named to the President's List include: Carolyn Harrison, Durham; Mrs. Nancy Shaw Doucette, Beulaville; and Marian Williams, Fair Bluff.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Miss Debra Elaine Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Edward Neill of 714 Caspian Avenue, North Cape May, N.J., has been awarded a United Methodist Scholarship by the Board of Education of the United Methodist Church.

A sophomore sociology major at Methodist College, Miss Neill is also a dean's list student. She has been elected to the Judicial Board of her dorm, Garber Hall.

Miss Neill is one of three Methodist College students to receive a United Methodist Scholarship Award. The others are Miss Virginia Gayle Godwin of Fayetteville, N.C., and Miss Mary Alice Gore of Tabor City, N.C.

United Methodist Scholarships are given in the amount of $500 to apply toward tuition and academic fees. The scholarships are granted on the basis of academic standing, leadership ability, churchmanship and need.

Approximately 500 awards are given annually through the Board of Higher Education and Ministry in its nationwide scholarship program. More than 12,000 United Methodist Scholarships have been granted since the program was begun in 1945. Funds for the support of United Methodist Scholarships are received from offerings given through the local churches across the nation on United Methodist Student Day, the second Sunday in June.

THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

School Methodist College

This is to advise that the students listed below have been approved for 1973-74 United Methodist Scholarships.

We are notifying the pastor of each student receiving the award and requesting that he notify his district superintendent. Since your school is in possession of more complete information on the home and home-town situation of each student, we are asking you to assume responsibility for publicity in the home-town newspaper. The enclosed sheet is our suggestion for use in this connection. We appreciate your cooperation.
