Awards to outstanding alumni were presented Saturday evening, May 4, at the Methodist College Alumni-Senior Banquet.

Miss Cynthia A. Walker of Henderson, N.C., awarded a B.S. in mathematics in 1965, was the recipient of the Outstanding Alumnus Service Award for "outstanding loyalty and dedication in service to the Methodist College Alumni Association."

Receiving the Business and Economics Alumnus Award was David B. Herring of Berkley Heights, N.J., who was graduated in 1965 with a B.A. in English and business. The recipient was chosen on the basis of his contribution to his community, profession and to Methodist College.

Librarian at Vance High School in Henderson, Miss Walker is the daughter of Mrs. Harry Walker of Route 2, Durham.

While a student at Methodist College, Miss Walker was a member of the Chorus, the Carillon staff and the SMALL Talk staff, secretary and vice president of the Student Government Association, and president of her dorm, Garber Hall.

Miss Walker has served on the Methodist College Alumni Association Board of Directors, Liaison Committee, as chairman of the Nominating Committee and as president of the 1972-73 MCAA. She is a candidate for this year's Alumni Association Board of Directors.

NEWS

Completing requirements for an MLS at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, she is listed in the 1971 edition of "Outstanding Young Women in America." Miss Walker is currently president of the Henderson(N.C.) Junior Woman's Club.

Herring, awarded an MBA from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, is director of budgeting, Sea-Land Service, Inc., Elizabeth, N.J.

A dean's list student at Methodist, he was also a member of the SMALL Talk staff, sophomore class president, president of the Dramatics Club, vice president of both the SGA and the Student Christian Association. Herring served as chief justice of the Judicial Council, chairman of the Ambassadors and was elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities."

Herring has served as vice president of the MCAA, as chairman of the Liaison and Finance Committees, and as a member of the Association's Board of Directors.

He is listed in the 1972 edition of "Outstanding Young Men of America". His wife, the former Wanda G. Allen, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon E. Allen of Fayetteville. Mrs. Herring is also a Methodist College graduate, Class of 1966.

More than 250 alumni, administrative staff and former faculty members returned for the Alumni Weekend. The Class of 1964 celebrated its 10th year reunion, while the Class of 1969 marked its 5th reunion. Special tables at the banquet were set aside for the classes and also for the current senior class.

"Greeks...college fraternities and sororities...are here to stay".

"The Greeks, men and women, share a need to project the image of the 70's", according to Mrs. M. Philip Stump of Hutchinson, Kan., national president of Alpha Xi Delta.

Speaking at the installation banquet of Alpha Xi Delta's new chapter at Methodist College, Zeta Mu, Mrs. Stump explained that "Greeks need to see their position on campus in relation to other students and other groups, as well as their responsibility to the college. This is true also for the Zeta Mu Chapter."

Mrs. Stump told the some 100 guests, "25 earnest, eager, lovely and sensitive young women made a pledge to cherish the Quill of Alpha Xi Delta for as long as they will love and honor it. The act of formal initiation is the beginning of an experience of sharing with others for a lifetime."

"Every Greek, no matter to which group he or she belongs, must be a full-sharing partner in this endeavor. There is no room for half-hearted response to the challenge of fraternal membership", the president pointed out. "This is true for the collegian and alumna alike."

Describing the National President's medallion which she wore for the occasion, Mrs. Stump said that each link in the gold chain is enscribed with the designation of a chapter of Alpha Xi Delta. "Today we have added the link of the Zeta Mu Chapter."

NEWS

Concluding, Mrs. Stump said "the relationship with Alpha Xi Delta must be a life that perpetuates the good of our association so that our concern and love for each other will strengthen the bond of sisterhood and brotherhood toward a peaceful world. Our commitment to these principles, our belief in the "Sisterhood of Women" gives credence and validity to the Greek organization to which you now belong."

Toastmistress for the banquet was Mrs. J. Robert Blackburn of Oxford, Miss., national council member-at-large. The fraternity roll call was read by Mrs. Eugene Farkas of Indianapolis, Ind., national installation director.

Zeta Mu director, Mrs. Alan Porter, assistant professor of French at Methodist, was praised for "being the moving force behind the formation of the new chapter." The new chapter president, Miss Joan Nunnery of Stedman, presented Mrs. Porter with a sterling silver bracelet and charm in "recognition of her dedication to the college and the sorority."

Six new Zeta Mu pledges introduced were Pamela Greene, Gayle Johnson and Desiree Rogers, all of Fayetteville; Connie Hudson of Vass, Ann Collier of Wade and Karlene Wagner of Kings Park, N.Y.

Welcoming the guests, Methodist College President Dr. Richard W. Pearce envisions by this time next year "three national fraternities and sororities will be established on campus. We're looking for a Greek Week and a Greek Sing. The Zeta Mu Chapter is just the beginning. We're all behind you and for YOU. Let's all believe and translate the belief into action."

Province Collegiate Director, Mrs. Robert C. Newton of Asheville, presented Miss Nunnery a sterling silver baby porriger "as the newest Alpha Xi Delta Chapter." The chapter also received, from Mrs. Newton, a gold and diamond Alpha Xi Delta recognition Quill to be used as a rotating semester scholarship award in memory of the past Epsilon Province and Collegiate Director, Mary Carolyn Smith. Prior to her death in early April, Miss Smith served as chairman of the Panhellenic Building Committee at the University of Tennessee.

Mrs. R. Wayne Masters of Falls Church, Va., national vice president for alumnae, read some of the congratulatory messages from other Alpha Xi Delta Chapters across the country. Some of the gifts received by Methodist's Zeta Mu Chapter included a sterling silver punch bowl, tray and ladle; sterling silver candle snuffer, candlesticks and tray; Alpha Xi Delta paddle, symphony hand written and framed; plaque and many checks.

Alumna initiates introduced included Mrs. Tommy Yow, Mrs. Richard W. Pearce, Miss Dorothy Davis, Miss Dona Davis, Miss Dorothy Sparrow, Mrs. Robert Christian, Mrs. Mason Sykes, Mrs. Harry Motes, Mrs. Gene Clayton and Mrs. Larry Parsons.

Sunday morning, the new chapter worshiped together in Hensdale Chapel, located on campus. The Rev. William Lowdermilk, assistant to Methodist College's president, preached the service. Miss Faren Elliott was pianist; Mrs. Parsons, soloist; and Arthur McLaurin and Travis Hurt, ushers.

One hundred and seven seniors received bachelor's degrees Sunday, MAY 12, at Methodist College's 11th Commencement Exercises held in the college's Reeves Auditorium.

Commencement speaker, Dr. Arnold K. King of Chapel Hill, told the graduates "you are graduating at the end of the most turbulent decade in our nation's history."

The special assistant to the president of the Consolidated Universities of North Carolina asked the students to "reflect on such events as...Vietnam, drugs, inflation, crime, civil disorders, sex, birth rate, energy, food shortage, health care and loss of confidence in our whole political system."

He told the graduates, their friends and families "we're heading for an international disaster if the tide is not turned soon. We need to re-establish our faith...in God, in the system of justice, in the integrity of social process and we must learn to think for ourselves."

"We may never go back to the good old days. It's now up to YOU to do something about the future of our country."

Presenting the Lucius Stacy Weaver Award was Methodist College's Academic Dean, Dr. Samuel J. Womack.
