FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FAYETTEVILLE--

G. Gordon Dixon of Newport News, Va. has been appointed Registrar at Methodist College, according to Academic Dean, Dr. Samuel J. Womack.

Announcing the appointment, Womack said "Dixon comes to Methodist College with excellent qualifications. He has had extensive administrative experience on the public school level. We had high regard for his abilities and dedication to Methodist College while he was a student."

Dixon, who arrives June 17, will succeed Samuel R. Edwards, who will retire as Registrar on July 1.

A 1966 graduate of Methodist College, Dixon is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. J.E. Dixon of Mathews, Va.

Dixon, who attended the University of Richmond prior to transferring to Methodist, received an M.Ed. in administration-supervision in 1970 from the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Va.

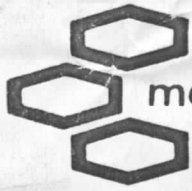

While at Methodist College, Dixon was president of the College Chorus and of his dorm, Sanford Hall, a senior senator, a dean's list student, a member of the Student Government Association Judicial Counsel and was elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities."

NEWS

A member of the Virginia and National Education Associations and of the Virginia Peninsula Association of Independent Schools, Dixon comes back to Methodist from Robert Sugden School in Hampton, Va., where he was administrative principal.

Dixon is married to the former Beverly Cahoon of Cleveland, Ohio. She also attended Methodist College.
