MC BASKETBALL

COACH NAMED

FAYETTEVILLE--Dr. Richard W. Pearce, president of Methodist College, today announced the appointment of Joseph L. (Joe) Miller as head basketball coach and assistant professor of physical education. He replaces Joe Gallagher who resigned May 1 to accept the head basketball coaching position at Pembroke State University.

Miller comes to Methodist from Ohio Northern University where he has been head junior varsity coach for the past 10 years. During this time, his teams have compiled a 104-58 record. In addition, he has served as assistant varsity coach to the Polar Bears who are a member of the Ohio Valley Conference.

In addition to his head basketball coaching duties, Miller will also serve as head track coach and assistant athletic director.

The 35-year-old Ohio Northern alumnus played varsity basketball while attending the college. He received his M.Ed. in 1963 from Bowling Green State University.

He is a member of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletic Coaches, the American Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, the American Red Cross First Aid Instructors, and the National Education Association. Miller is married and has two sons, Andrew and Patrick.

Athletic Director Gene Clayton said upon Miller's appointment: "I'm extremely pleased that Joe has decided to join us. Besides being an excellent coach, he's also an excellent teacher and his recommendations were outstanding. I'm very confident that he will carry on the traditions of excellence we've established here at Methodist. From the beginning, he's been our number one choice and we're all most happy he's signed."
