LOUIS SPILMAN JR. NAMED

MC'S OUTSTANDING ALUMNUS

Louis Spilman Jr. is the 1976 recipient of the "Outstanding Alumnus Service Award" of the Methodist College Alumni Association (MCAA).

The award honors one alumnus each year who has rendered outstanding loyalty and dedication in service to the MCAA. Nominations are made by the general membership and approved by the board of directors.

Spilman, a member of the class of 1964 and the first person to complete the requirements for graduation at Methodist College, served on the original alumni committee that wrote the constitution and bylaws of the Methodist College Alumni Association. He has served on the MCAA Board of Directors and was a member of the Liaison Committee of the association for two years.

Since 1970, he has served on the board of trustees of Methodist College and as a member of its development committee. From 1973-75 he was executive secretary of the Methodist College Foundation and still serves as a director of the foundation.

After graduating from Methodist, Spilman did graduate work at East Carolina University. He is listed in "Who's Who in the South and Southwest" and in 1964 was elected to appear in "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." He is the owner of Speediprint shops of Fayetteville.

From 1951-53 Spilman served in the United States Army and was discharged with the rank of captain. For the next six years he published three newspapers in Tennessee. In 1958 he was named the outstanding journalist by the Tennessee Press Association.

He is a member of several organizations including the Fayetteville Rotary Club, North Carolina and Cumberland County Wildlife Federation, Sons of the American Revolution, Fayetteville Area Chamber of Commerce, Fayetteville Area Industrial Development Corporation, and the North Carolina Quarter Horse Association.

At present he is president of the local camp of Gideon's International, vice-chairman of the Salvation Army Advisory Board, and president of the 71st Ruritans. This year he was also named Ruritan of the Year in Eastern North Carolina. In 1974 Spilman was elected to a four year term on the Cumberland County Board of Education.

Spilman is a deacon in the MacPherson Presbyterian Church. He and his wife Mary have four children: Mary, a 1974 graduate of Methodist College who now teaches reading at Cumberland Road Elementary School; Theodore, a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy currently serving aboard a destroyer escort as an ensign; Emily, a college sophomore; and Samuel, a sixth grader at Van Story Hills Elementary School.

WRITING CONTEST WINNERS

ANNOUNCED AT METHODIST

Winners in the second annual Methodist College Writing Contest were announced recently at the closing College Convocation.

The contest, open to all Methodist College students, is designed to strengthen the quality of the research paper and to recognize good writing of all kinds. Entries in three categories were accepted: humanities and fine arts, social sciences and education, and natural sciences and mathematics.

Winning the $100 first prize in the humanities-fine arts division was Jim Nash of Silver Spring, Md. His essay was entitled "Byron and the Byronic Hero: A Philosophical Discussion of Life, Existentialism, Perseverance and Nature."

Daniel Hood of Durham won the $50 second place award in this category with his research paper entitled "Immortality: The Beliefs of the Pre-Socratic Greeks." Luz Baumann of Ft. Bragg won the $25 third place award with her poem, "Nocturnal."

Sharing the $25 third place award in the social sciences-education division was the essay "Vote! Utilize Your Right" by Frank Guy Braley of Garner and "Pu Yi: The Powerless Ruler" by Gary Rigsbee of Fayetteville.

No awards were made in the natural sciences-mathematics area.

METHODIST COLLEGE ALUMNI ELECT ASSOCIATION OFFICERS

Three Fayetteville residents swept the top offices of the Methodist College Alumni Association (MCAA) elections held recently.

Mike Alloway, a 1971 graduate of Methodist College, was elected president; Mike Servie, also a member of the class of 1971, becomes vice-president; and Winifred McBryde, of the class of 1973, was elected to her third consecutive term as secretary.

Persons elected to the Board of Directors include: Fran Ziegler of Richmond, Va., Steven Harden of Fayetteville, John Brown of Virginia Beach, Va., and Kathy Woltz of Fayetteville.

Officers are elected to one year terms which begin July 1. Board of Directors begin their three year terms on the same date.

Alloway is an educational consultant for the Cross Roads Drug Treatment Unit, Cumberland County Mental Health Center. He was awarded the "Outstanding Alumnus Service Award" in 1975 and named to the 1975 edition of "Outstanding Young Men of America." Since 1974, he had served as vice-president of the association.

Servie is a menswear merchandisor for Belk-Hensdale Department Stores. He has served on the MCAA Board of Directors and the Finance and Liaison Committees. He is married to the former Patricia Moore, a member of the class of 1965, and they have two children.

Miss McBryde teaches English at Douglas Byrd High School and is a member of First Presbyterian Church. In addition to serving two previous terms as MCAA secretary, she was a member of the Membership Committee in 1975-76.

Mrs. Ziegler is a housewife in Richmond. Her previous MCAA positions held include a year on the Board of Directors and secretary and president of the Richmond MCAA Chapter for two years.

Harden is a sales representative for a Fayetteville radio station and a scoutmaster for Troop 706 sponsored by Highland Presbyterian Church. He was a member of the Social Committee for two years.

Brown is an assistant commonwealth's attorney in Virginia. He is a member of the Big Brothers of Tidewater, Va., and the Chesapeake Soccer Club.

Miss Woltz, after graduating from Methodist College, earned a master's degree from Appalachian State University. She is employed as a counselor in the Student Affairs Office of Fayetteville Technical Institute.

75 GRADUATE

AT METHODIST

"Don't measure success by wealth or power alone," advised the Reverend Jean L. Hood of Durham, Methodist College baccalaureate speaker on May 9. He endorsed one of the guiding principles of Methodist College i.e. "Methodist College is more than education to make a living--it is education to make a life" in encouraging the 75 graduates to set high goals in life.

"For those who accept the challenge, now is the time for adventurous living. Identify yourself with a great idea and give of yourself in service to mankind. This is adventurous living and herein you will find success," he told the members of the thirteenth annual commencement.

Graduation speaker Robert B. Smithwick, general manager of Texaco's International Aviation Marketing Department, based his talk on the Methodist College seal, veritas et virtus (truth and virtue), and an essay written in Baltimore in 1692 entitled "Desiderata."

Concerning the uncertainties of the future, he quoted what he considered the most important section of the essay: "You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should."

He too agreed with the Rev. Mr. Hood that success is happiness and concluded, "With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy."

GO PLACIDLY AMID THE NOISE AND HASTE, AND REMEMBER WHAT PEACE THERE MAY BE IN SILENCE. AS FAR AS POSSIBLE WITHOUT SURRENDER BE ON GOOD TERMS WITH ALL PERSONS. SPEAK YOUR TRUTH QUIETLY AND CLEARLY; AND LISTEN TO OTHERS, EVEN THE DULL AND IGNORANT; THEY TOO HAVE THEIR STORY.

AVOID LOUD AND AGGRESSIVE PERSONS, THEY ARE VEXATIONS TO THE SPIRIT. IF YOU COMPARE YOURSELF WITH OTHERS, YOU MAY BECOME VAIN AND BITTER; FOR ALWAYS THERE WILL BE GREATER AND LESSER PERSONS THAN YOURSELF. ENJOY YOUR ACHIEVEMENTS AS WELL AS YOUR PLANS.

KEEP INTERESTED IN YOUR OWN CAREER, HOWEVER HUMBLE; IT IS A REAL POSSESSION IN THE CHANGING FORTUNES OF TIME. EXERCISE CAUTION IN YOUR BUSINESS AFFAIRS; FOR THE WORLD IS FULL OF TRICKERY. BUT LET THIS NOT BLIND YOU TO WHAT VIRTUE THERE IS; MANY PERSONS STRIVE FOR HIGH IDEALS; AND EVERYWHERE LIFE IS FULL OF HEROISM.

BE YOURSELF. ESPECIALLY DO NOT FEIGN AFFECTION.

METHODIST COLLEGE RECEIVES $8,000 FOUNDATION GRANT

FAYETTEVILLE--Methodist College has received an $8,000 grant from the W. K. Kellogg Foundation under the National Library Demonstration Program.

The funds will be used for purchase of terminal equipment from the Ohio College Library Center (OCLC) and for training of Methodist College library personnel over a two year period. The OCLC is a national bibliographic network.

Dr. Russell G. Mawby, Kellogg Foundation president, explained that "the grant to Methodist College is one of approximately 300 similar grants being made to small, private liberal arts colleges throughout the United States as part of the foundation's continuing program of support for improved college library services. The new grant program brings the foundation's support of college library services to a total of nearly $7 million.

"It is now appropriate that selected colleges receive support to improve their library services through the application of modern technological advancements in the retrieval of information. Access to a computerized library network should provide each of the college libraries with increased productivity, decreased unit costs and improved services to library users."

Dr. Richard W. Pearce, president of Methodist College, said, "The Kellogg Foundation has generously supported the Davis Memorial Library at Methodist College, and this grant should enable us to expedite our administrative work in the library tremendously because the utilization of computer technology can effect economies and improve service to library users. MC BOARD OF TRUSTEES ELECT

RICHARD ALLEN AS CHAIRMAN

FAYETTEVILLE--Richard R. Allen, president of D. R. Allen & Son Inc., has been elected chairman of the Methodist College Board of Trustees. He replaces Dr. Mott Blair of Siler City, chairman for the past nine years, who resigned the chairmanship but will remain on the board.

Allen came to the board of trustees on July 1, 1975. He is a charter member of Haymount United Methodist Church and presently serves on the church's board of trustees and as chairman of the Building Committee and the Administrative Board. Allen was a district lay leader for the Fayetteville District for seven years and was a delegate to the 1966 World Methodist Conference in London.

In addition to serving as president of the construction firm founded by his father, he is chairman of the board of four corporations and a member of the board of directors of four others. A graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute, he is married to the former Joan English and they have three children.

He was recipient of the Fayetteville Jaycees "Distinguished Service Award" in 1966, was listed in the 1968 edition of "Outstanding Young Men of America," and received the Realtor's Cup for outstanding community service from the Fayetteville Area Chamber of Commerce in 1973.

He is a former director of the Fayetteville YMCA, Salvation Army, and the Red Cross, is past president of the Fayetteville Rotary Club and is a former district chairman of the Boy Scouts of America.
