LAFAYETTE SCULPTURE

DONATED TO MC

FAYETTEVILLE--A bust of the Marquis de Lafayette has been donated to Methodist College by Fayetteville sculptor Fritz R. Lopez.

The bust, which was given Wednesday (Jan. 19), will be displayed in the Lafayette Room of the Davis Memorial Library. The room is a special collection of books, documents, letters and other memorabilia relating to Lafayette.

Lopez spent six months carving the bust from a black walnut tree taken from the Gray's Creek area. Actually, he carved three busts from the tree trunk; however, the first had termites, and the second had unsuitable interior wood.

The retired soldier decided to carve Lafayette because, "I've heard of Lafayette all my life, I've studied him and his career, and he's been my idol for many, many years. I admire him and what he stood for, and after awhile he sort of became part of me."

Lopez is a self-taught sculptor who uses wood (his favorite medium), stone and clay. His wife Melva, a portrait artist, has taught him about sculpture and he has read a few books by the old masters.

The bust shows Lafayette in his late 40s or early 50s, and was based on a small photo in an encyclopedia. After the bust neared completion, Lopez sought out other paintings of the Revolutionary War hero but kept returning to the small photo he had begun with. Thus the bust is almost completely based upon this one photo.

Following the carving stage, the wood was sealed and hand polished with tung oil.

AUTHENTIC GERMAN CABARET

TO BE PRESENTED AT METHODIST

FAYETTEVILLE--"Echoes of the Twenties, Songs for the Seventies," an authentic German kabarett (cabaret), will be presented in the Methodist College Student Union at 7:30 p.m. Friday, February 18. There is no admission charge, and the public is invited.

This show tells the story of the 1918-1933 era during which German experienced an almost unprecedented arts explosion. One provocative art form was born: the cabaret whose intention is to give a panorama of a particular era--of its political, economic and cultural climate as expressed in the songs and scenes of cabaret, the literary, critical, satirical, provocative art form which flourished especially in that period.

German -born Herbert Nelson will give a panorama of that era with songs done by Eva Nelson. In the second part of the program the focus will shift to the 70's and the North American scene.

In songs, scenes and monologues by the Nelsons, they will spotlight, satirize and comment on trends of our time.

The story is told with the help of slides--of tapes of actual performances--songs done by Eva in the original German or in English translation--and in conference monologue-style by Herbert.

The story is told with the help of slides--of tapes of actual performances--songs done by Eva in the original German or in English translation--and in conference monologue-style by Herbert.

Herbert, whose parents were among the founders of the Berlin Kabarett in the 20's, established his own kabarett in Holland in the early 1930's. It flourished until the Nazi occupation when Herbert joined the Dutch resistance. Soon after World War II, he immigrated to the U.S. where he met and married singer Eva Nelson.

Herbert and Eva started their own intimate theater in 1958 at the Netherlands Club in Rockefeller Center for which Herbert wrote and produced a contemporary, satirical, literary show, introducing multi-media such as slides, tapes and film. They recorded one complete cabaret show and other cabaretistic material on Panorama Records, and their performances and records were acclaimed by critics. Most recently they have appeared at the Bert Wheeler Theater off-Broadway and at various clubs.

After the one- and one-half hour program, an informal get-together and discussion with refreshments will be hosted by the local German Club.

The cabaret is the next to last program of the two-week International Festival at Methodist College, and is sponsored by the Methodist College German Department, the German Club, Germany's Goethe Institute, and the North Carolina Southeastern Consortium for International Education.

ANNUAL CAMPAIGN FEB. 8

The Methodist College Foundation will launch its annual appeal in Cumberland County on February 8 with a kickoff banquet in the College Cafeteria.

Dr. Cameron West, president of the North Carolina Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, will be the guest speaker.

The Foundation is seeking $120,000 in unrestricted gifts to fulfill the community's annual pledge dating back to the establishment of the College.

The board of directors is comprised of 32 persons from Fayetteville and Cumberland County. Ray A. Muench Jr., general manager of the Public Works Commission, is president and Joel Schur, general merchandise manager of the Capitol Department Stores, is chairman of the 1977 loyalty campaign.

The past year was the most successful Foundation effort in 15 years with gifts totaling $157,515. In May total gifts to the College from Cumberland County surpassed an accumulated sum of $2 million.

FOREIGN FILMS TO BE SHOWN AT METHODIST

FAYETTEVILLE--Five foreign films with English subtitles will be shown at Methodist College in mid-February as part of an International Cultural Festival. All showings will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Reeves Auditorium except for "A Free Woman" which will be shown in the Student Union.

The public is invited and admission will be free. The films are Mexican, Spanish, French and German, and all are rated "G."

Kicking off the series will be the Mexican film "Macario" on Monday, Feb. 7. Described as a touching allegory told in simple eloquence, the film also provides an insight into Mexican culture. In 1960 it was nominated for an academy award as best foreign film. "It flows into a bubbling comedy, spiced with morbid witticisms, and then into a drollish horror tale," said Bosley Crowther of the New York Times. After the showing, the Methodist College Spanish Club will host a reception.

"The Rise of Louis XIV" is a brilliant recreation of 17th century court life beginning with Cardinal Mazarin's death and the threats upon the 22-year-old French king's power. "...among the best films of 1970..."

it is surely a masterpiece," said Roger Greenspun of the New York Times. This film will be shown the evening of Thursday, Feb. 10.

"A Free Woman," the German sad comedy about a recently divorced woman searching for an independent, creative life will be shown Friday, Feb. 11, in the Student Union. Woman's quest for independence makes pertinent drama out of emotional suffocation.

The 16th century Spanish court, just after the death of Queen Isabella, is the setting for the tragic story of her daughter and successor. "The Mad Queen" will be shown Monday, Feb. 14. "Court intrigue flourishes in an atmosphere of pomp and circumstance--handsome costumes, befitting retinue and big, impressive sets. The acting is also in the grand manner," said the National Board of Review.

The French film "Traffic" will be shown Wednesday, Feb. 16. Monsieur Hulot, the Inspector Cluseau of the French auto industry, gets into a hilarious traffic jam.

The five films are being sponsored by the Methodist College Departments of French, German and Spanish, the Methodist College Spanish Club and the North Carolina Southeastern Consortium for International Education.
