THREE FAYETTEVILLE SENIORS

AWARDED MC SCHOLARSHIPS

Three Fayetteville high school seniors have been awarded Presidential Scholarships by Methodist College for the 1977-78 academic year. They are Olivia P. Guzman, Thomas R. Michel and David A. Castaneda.

Presidential Scholarships are the highest academic scholarships conferred by Methodist College, and only three are awarded to each entering freshman class. Four criteria are used in determining recipients: Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) scores, high school grade point average, College Level Examination Program (CLEP) scores, and interview performance.

The scholarships are renewable annually provided the student maintains a "B" average. If the scholarship is renewed for the full four years, the total value of each scholarship is $5,520.

Miss Guzman is a senior at Douglas Byrd High School where she is a member of the Beta and Hero Clubs and was voted the "Outstanding Senior" by her classmates. She is the daughter of Mrs. Ingeborg Guzman of Fargo Dr., Fayetteville.

Michel and Castaneda are both seniors at Seventy-First High School.

Michel plans to major in political science, pre-law emphasis, and minor in mass communication. He is the son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Thomas E. Michel, 517 Southwick Dr., Fayetteville.

Castaneda plans to major in science, pre-medicine emphasis, and also minor in mass communication. At Seventy-First he is a member of the math and drama clubs. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arturo L. Castaneda, 414 N. Platte Rd., Fayetteville.

LOWDERMILK NAMED

VICE-PRESIDENT OF MC

FAYETTEVILLE--William P. Lowdermilk has been named vice-president of Methodist College.

The announcement came from President Richard W. Pearce at the board of trustees spring meeting.

In his new position Lowdermilk will be responsible for development and public, church, alumni and community relations.

"Since I arrived here four years ago, Bill has served as my strong 'right arm,'" said Dr. Pearce. "What we're really doing is formally recognizing the dedication and service of this very hard-working individual who has been a faithful and efficient member of our administrative staff for 14 years."

Lowdermilk is the son of Mrs. Jennie W. Lowdermilk of Norman and the late Dallas Lowdermilk. He is a graduate of Emory University and the Duke University Divinity School.

He joined the Methodist College staff as assistant director of public relations in 1963, having served previously for five years as minister of Culbreth Memorial United Methodist Church.

Lowdermilk is included in "Who's Who in the United Methodist Church" and "Who's Who in American College and University Administration." He is a member of the Communications and Annual Conference Entertainment committees of the North Methodist College.
