UNC CHEERLEADERS HIGHLIGHT
STAFF AT EAST COAST
CHEERLEADING CAMP

FAYETTEVILLE--Cheerleaders from the National Championship UNC-Chapel Hill squad will serve as counselors at East Coast Cheerleading Camp this summer, according to Gwen Sykes, program director.

Joining the Chapel Hill squad as counselors will be Mary Barnes, cheerleader at Clemson University; Carol Alaine, cheerleader at Georgia Tech; Dave Petrilyak and Cathy Gray of East Carolina University.

East Coast Cheerleading Camp will open its 9th annual session on Sunday, July 22 and run through Friday, July 27.

The largest private cheerleading camp in the south, East Coast Cheerleading Camp provides specialized instruction in cheerleading techniques, mounts and balance, gymnastics, and pom routines for approximately 400 cheerleaders.

The concentrated program of physical fitness and athletic competence will culminate with competition on Friday morning. Westover Senior High School will defend its title as Best Senior High Squad while Pine Forest Junior High attempts to retain its title as Best Jr. High Squad. Northern Durham High School is the returning Super Squad team.

UNC CHEERLEADERS HIGHLIGHT
STAFF AT EAST COAST
CHEERLEADING CAMP

FAYETTEVILLE--Cheerleaders from the National Championship UNC-Chapel Hill squad will serve as counselors at East Coast Cheerleading Camp this summer, according to Gwen Sykes, program director.

Mary Ann Shoaf of Morganton, Kim Cline of Lexington, and Bill Nicholson of Raleigh will represent the Tarheel squad on the East Coast Cheerleading Camp staff. All three were counselors at the camp last summer.

Joining the Chapel Hill squad as counselors will be Mary Barnes, cheerleader at Clemson University; Carol Alaine, cheerleader at Georgia Tech; Dave Petrilyak and Cathy Gray of East Carolina University.

East Coast Cheerleading Camp will open its 9th annual session on Sunday, July 22 and run through Friday, July 27.

The largest private cheerleading camp in the south, East Coast Cheerleading Camp provides specialized instruction in cheerleading techniques, mounts and balance, gymnastics, and pom routines for approximately 400 cheerleaders.

The concentrated program of physical fitness and athletic competence will culminate with competition on Friday morning. Westover Senior High School will defend its title as Best Senior High

CINNAMINSON GOLFSTAR SIGNS
WITH METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--Brian Huebner, former golfstar at Cinnaminson High School, will attend Methodist College in the fall, according to Gene Clayton, Athletic Director and golf coach at Methodist.

Huebner is a sophomore transfer from Camden County College in New Jersey. While at Camden, Huebner was a member of the golf team and in 1978 they won the Garden State Conference Championship.

"I am extremely pleased that Brian has decided to attend Methodist College. He has the dedication, ability and attitude to develop an outstanding golf program at our institution," states Clayton.

"We have the ambition to be a national contender on the NCAA Division II level and Brian has the ability to help us reach this goal. I am impressed with his ability, his experience and his attitude."

Brian will join a winning program at Methodist as the Monarchs finished second in the DIAC for 1978-79 and defeated every conference college during regular season.

Methodist College is a four-year residential college of liberal arts and sciences located on a 600-acre campus overlooking the Cape Fear River Valley.

CRISFIELD GOALIE SIGNS
WITH METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--William M. Thomas, goal keeper for the Crisfield High School soccer team, will attend Methodist College in the fall, according to Mason Sykes, soccer coach at Methodist.

Thomas played four years of varsity soccer at Crisfield as halfback, fullback, and goalie. During his junior year Crisfield won the Maryland State Championship; this past season the Crisfield team went undefeated through the regular season. The team recorded their first loss in the Maryland state semi-finals this year. Thomas had the distinction of allowing the fewest goals of any other goalie on the eastern shore of Maryland during his senior year.

"I am very pleased that a player of Billy Thomas' potential has decided to attend Methodist College," stated coach Sykes.

"I think he will be a great improvement to our program and its continued growth. With Billy's background in soccer and the help that he has received from his coach I feel that he will be very well prepared to play college soccer. It is obvious from his experience in all sports that he is a fine athlete. I am looking forward to working with him in the future."

Thomas also played basketball for Crisfield and was captain of the baseball team.

MRS. MARY BELL BIRD ELECTED
CAROLINA COLLEGE ALUMNAE
PRESIDENT

FAYETTEVILLE-- Mrs. Mary Bell Bird of Wilson has been elected to serve as president of the Carolina College Alumnae Association for 1979-80. Carolina College, located before its closing in Maxton, holds its annual reunions at Methodist College.

Also elected were Barbara Pope of Fayetteville, vice president and Ruth Cottingham of Maxton, secretary.

During their recent reunion meeting, Carolina College alumnae attended a business session and luncheon featuring songs from the 1920's and excerpts from college catalogs of the same period.

The Carolina College Scholarship, presented by the Carolina College Alumnae annually to the girl who reflects the highest standards of womanhood exemplified by the Carolina College graduates, was awarded to Sylvia Tarrt of Fayetteville.

Mrs. Bird is the wife of M.J. Bird and they reside at 206 West Green Street in Wilson.

METHODIST GRADUATE NAMED
DANFORTH FELLOW FOR 1979

FAYETTEVILLE--Mary Ann Monroe Atwater, 1969 magna cum laude graduate of Methodist College, has been named a Danforth Fellow, class of 1979.

Ms. Atwater is one of the class of 100 persons selected by the Danforth Foundation from the 2,221 applicants.

"The Danforth Fellows of 1979 are splendid academically, in their commitment to teaching and their will to have their lives enforced by moral and ethical values," states Warren Bryan Martin, Director of the Danforth Graduate Fellowship program.

Ms. Atwater received her undergraduate degree in chemistry from Methodist College and also a degree in international studies from UNC-Chapel Hill. Her masters of science degree in organic chemistry was awarded by UNC-Chapel Hill and she currently pursues a Ph.D. in science education from North Carolina State University.

While at Methodist, Ms. Atwater was a member of Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities, the Black Student Movement and Methodist College scholars.

A native of Fayetteville, Ms. Atwater is a graduate of E.E. Smith high school. She's married to Luther Anthony Atwater and they reside at Route 1, Apex, N.C. Her parents are Sgt. and Mrs. John

METHODIST COLLEGE GRADUATE IS PRESIDENT'S MOTHER

FAYETTEVILLE--Dr. Richard Pearce, president of Methodist College, awarded a bachelor of arts degree to his mother, Alice Pearce, during Commencement Exercises at Methodist College on Sunday, May 6 at 2:00 p.m.

Ms. Pearce, 82, attended Methodist College for three years in pursuit of a degree in English from the liberal arts institution located in Fayetteville. She had completed on one year at Indiana State University in 1917-18 before marrying and departing for Washington, D.C. prior to World War I.

Reentering the academic world at 80, Ms. Pearce found the adjustment a natural one despite the fact that she is now the mother of four successful children, twelve grandchildren, and four great-grand children. Her presence on campus so captured the heart of Methodist students that in October, 1977, they selected her as their Homecoming Queen.

Her well-rounded contribution to the college was honored as the Methodist faculty elected Alice Pearce to the 1979 Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities. Her credits are many as she has participated actively in Methodist College theatre productions and contributed to Tapestry, college literary magazine.

Although Ms. Pearce wears a pacemaker, her schedule rivals that of any involved college student. In addition to her own college activities, Ms. Pearce plays the cello in the Fayetteville Symphony

Dr. Richard Pearce, president of Methodist College, has the distinction of having presented college diplomas to both of his children. He now has had the additional opportunity of bestowing a diploma to his mother. Ms. Pearce has recently had her third pacemaker successfully implanted. She will enter the career world in the fall as an instructional assistant in the English Department at Methodist.
