METHODIST COLLEGE RECORDS
FIFTH CONSECUTIVE ENROLLMENT
INCREASE

FAYETTEVILLE--Final figures are in, drop-add is over and Methodist College once again is boasting an enrollment increase of some 12 percent in dormitory occupancy.

This is the fifth consecutive year of rising enrollment at Methodist with 866 fulltime equivalency students for fall semester, 1979. Statistical breakdown reflects 765 are enrolled in the regular college day program while 181 are pursuing their degree through continuing education programs. Total enrollment for fall is 943 registered students.

During formal opening ceremonies at Methodist, Bishop Robert Blackburn praised the college for being "not just Methodist, but Christian--not just sectarian, but ecumenical."

Methodist president Dr. Richard Pearce cited many factors contributing to the increase including the continued strong support from the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

"The conference support of $200,000 allows the college to maintain a strong financial profile," says Dr. Pearce.

"That support, coupled with over $280,000 given by the Fayetteville community and $16,000 given by the Alumni, puts us in the position of working on our second million dollars of endowment."

Over 60% of the Methodist student body comes from the Eastern North Carolina counties served by the N.C. Conference. Other students represent over 16 states and 11 foreign countries.

Methodist begins the academic year with a faculty of 52% doctorates and numerous capital improvements completed over the summer. New lighting, designed to utilize less than 50% of the current energy expended on lighting, has been installed in Davis Memorial Library and the Methodist Gymnasium. Tennis courts and the track have been resurfaced and a golf practice range has been constructed.

Vice-president Bill Lowdermilk stated that 25 years ago Eastern North Carolina dreamed of a college of Christian ideals.

"Methodist College strives to be true to those dreams of 25 years ago," pledged Lowdermilk.

JEAN ISHEE TO PERFORM
INAUGURAL ORGAN RECITAL
AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

FAYETTEVILLE--Jean Ishee, organist-choirmaster at St. John's Episcopal Church and assistant professor of music at Methodist College, will perform the Inaugural Recital at the Holtkamp Organ at St. John's Church on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 7, at 4 o'clock.

Ms. Ishee will highlight the program with selections from Buxtehude, Couperin, Bach, Franck and Mulet. These selections include Buxtehude's "Prelude and Fugue in D Major," Couperin's "Messe Pour Les Convents," Bach's "Fantasia and Fugue in G Minor, S. 542," Franck's "Chorale in A Minor," and Mulet's "Esquisses Bysantines."

A graduate of Greensboro College, Ms. Ishee holds a master's degree from UNC-Chapel Hill and has taken additional graduate work in music at Juilliard, Westminster Choir College and the Peabody Conservatory of Music. During the past summer, Ms. Ishee studied organ and church music at the Royal School of Church Music in England.

The recital is sponsored jointly by St. John's Episcopal Church and Methodist College. Both the recital and the reception in the Parish Hall following the recital are open to the public.

DIAC CHAMPS GET NEW COACH

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. - Tom Austin, former baseball coach of Bishop Moore High School in Orlando, Fla, has been named Head Coach at Methodist College. Austin is a graduate of Rollins College where he played outfield for Coach Boyd Coffin. He also received his Masters Degree from Rollins.

Austin played Junior College baseball at Seminole Community College where he played for Coach Jay Bergman, currently the head coach at University of Florida.

Austin inherits 12 returning lettermen from last year's Dixie Conference Champs. The big question mark for the Monarchs will be on the mound, where last year's Number one David Flowers opted to pass up his senior year and sign with the Montreal Expos.

Field improvements are commanding Austin's attention. A new Bermuda infield was installed and a Press and concession stand are scheduled for construction in December.

Austin states, "We want our baseball facility to be appealing to our fans and our opponents."

METHODIST COLLEGE COEDS
VIE FOR HOMECOMING TITLE

FAYETTEVILLE--Sixteen coeds will compete for the title of Methodist College homecoming queen during the week-long festivities on the Fayetteville campus this week.

Jo Anne Jones, 1978 Homecoming Queen, will return for the crowning on Saturday afternoon during halftime festivities of the soccer game between Methodist and Christopher-Newport of Newport News, Va. Ms. Jones graduated from Methodist in May and currently teaches sophomore English at Wadesboro Bowman High School.

Contestants for Homecoming Queen include Sheliah Burroughs, Cheri DePriter, Cindy Gilliam, Ann Johnson, Denise Lugo, Kim McCormick, Julie Ragan, Kathy Southerland, Mary Talley, Tricia Turner and Judy Naylor, all of Fayetteville.

Also running are Valerie Houston of Charlotte, Sandra Madden of Greenville, S.C., Karen Didolci of Bloomingdale, N.J., and Ruby Wilson of Goldsboro, and Susan Matthews of Clayton, N.C.

All former homecoming queens from previous years will be on hand to celebrate the fifteenth annual homecoming at Methodist. Special recognition will be given to them as well as returning student body presidents and sweethearts couples, who met on the Methodist campus.

METHODIST SOCCER TEAM FACES
'MAKE IT OR BREAK IT WEEK'

FAYETTEVILLE--Coach Mason Sykes' soccer team is resting as the fall break at Methodist College gets underway on Wednesday. For the Monarchs, this is the calm before the storm that finds them playing Campbell College, highly-rated UNC-Wilmington, Atlantic Christian and UNC-Greensboro in a period of ten days.

"There is no perfect schedule," says Sykes. "I would rather play these top teams at the end of this season when we are strong and more experienced."

The experience the Monarchs have come at the expense of some tight competitors like Christopher-Newport of Norfolk, Virginia, Catawba College, Pembroke State University, St. Andrews and Greensboro College. Methodist's only defeats were to DIAC leader Averett College of Danville, Va., and Baptist College of Charleston, S.C.. A tie with defending DIAC champion Virginia Wesleyan completes the Monarch's 5-2-1 record.

Where to from here? That depends on the next week, says Sykes.

"Averett College was beaten Saturday by Virginia Wesleyan which means that no one is unbeaten in the conference. We have a strong shot at the title if we continue to play the caliber of ball that the team has played in our last two games."

Those games were shining stars for both the offense and the defense of the Monarchs, as they defeated St. Andrews 2-0 and Christopher-Newport 6-0. Even scoring threat is a strength of the Methodist team; eight of the eleven starters has scored this season. Leading scorer is Atsuo Kumazaki with 6. Freshman Denny Laird has added 5 to the Monarch total.

METHODIST PLACES FOUR ON DIAC ALL-CONFERENCE TEAM

FAYETTEVILLE-- Methodist College outnumbered all other Dixie Conference schools on the All-Conference Baseball team for 1979, according to the conference president, Bev Vaughan.

Because of the early graduation dates of colleges, baseball season frequently extends beyond the academic year. Thus, post-season honors are not announced until the fall.

The Monarchs placed four players on the All-DIAC team including pitcher David Flowers of Lumberton, outfielder Chet Chester of Sanford, shortstop Art Finley from Lower Richlands, S.C. and second baseman Jimbo Rattz of Sanford.

Methodist retains the talents of Chester, Finley and Rattz for this year, but lost the pitching powerhouse Flowers to the Montreal Expos. Flowers is a student at Methodist this semester, but will leave in February for his second season with the Montreal farm team.

FAYETTEVILLE-- High school juniors and seniors are invited to visit the Methodist College campus for Campus Visitation Day on Saturday, Nov. 10.

"It's a time for students to come out, look around, meet faculty and ask questions about financial aid, scholarship exams, entrance fees, fraternities, athletics or any other phase of college life," says G. Thomas Dent, Director of Admissions.

Students will have meals in the college cafeteria and tour the student dormitories. Faculty and staff will be available for questions.

"Parents are invited, too," says Dent.

"They also have a number of questions we can answer and a number of concerns we can eliminate just by letting them see college life in action."

Activities are scheduled to begin at 1:30 with an open house in the Student Union and campus tours conducted by Methodist students.

After the evening meal, Donna Holt, Director of Financial Aid, will hold a 6:30 workshop for students on assessing financial need for college and completing federal assistance forms.

Students are invited to spend the night in the college dormitories on Saturday evening and attend the Disco dance slated for 8 o'clock. Sunday Worship services will be held at

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OCTOBER 30, 1979

WES BROWN COMES HOME

AS 'MINISTER-IN-RESIDENCE'

FAYETTEVILLE-- Wes Brown graduated from Methodist College in 1973 with summa cum laude honors after a distinctive college career that included service in student government, dormitory councils and student publications.

Wes will come home to the Methodist campus six years later to serve as a Minister-In-Residence from the North Carolina Conference during the week of Nov. 12. He currently serves as minister of the Moncure-Buckhorn charge of the United Methodist Church.

After graduation from Methodist, the Reverend Wesley Free-land Brown received a M. Div. degree, magna cum laude, from Duke University and served as associated Minister at Hayes Barton United Methodist Church in Raleigh. He has been particularly active in Conference Youth Ministries- ACS, LASER, etc.

The Minister-In-Residence program is part of the continuing effort for campus outreach within the N.C. Conference. Appointments are made by Bishop Robert Blackburn, presiding bishop of the N.C. Conference.
