METHODIST COLLEGE ANNOUNCES EVENING COLLEGE REGISTRATION

FAYETTEVILLE--Methodist College is currently holding registration for evening courses to be offered during Term I of the Spring Session, according to Nell Thompson, director of the evening division.

Term I courses will begin Monday evening, January 14, at 6:30 on both the main Methodist campus and the Ft. Bragg campus. Classes are held two evenings per week and conclude at 9:20. Over sixteen courses are available in the evening program for those people seeking advancement toward a college degree. Term I concludes on February 28.

In addition to regular evening courses, Ms. Thompson announced the continuation of both Lunchtime and Weekend College programs at the Fort Bragg campus. Students can take advantage of the 12-1 o'clock lunch break to pick up three hours of microeconomics or choose from four courses offered from 9-12 o'clock every Saturday morning through April 24.

Decisions 1980 and Career Counseling are special courses to be offered on every other Friday evening from 6:30-8:30 on the Methodist campus.

Complete information is available from Methodist College,
488-7110, ext. 220.       ###

METHODIST COLLEGE OFFERS SPRING SESSION FOR
PREPARATORY MUSIC DIVISION

FAYETTEVILLE--Methodist College will offer a spring session in its Community Music Program, Preparatory Division, according to Ms. Rennie Beyer, director of the division.

The Community Music Program includes classes in theory-musicianship, private lessons in piano, voice, organ and group lessons in guitar. A possibility of group lessons in piano is under consideration for the near future.

"Musicians require the finest of instruction from an early age," states Ms. Beyer. "That's what the preparatory division offers for young children, teenagers or adults--anyone who wishes to develop his musical talent."

Lessons are arranged between teacher and student and will begin the week of January 14, 1980, usually in the afternoons, evenings and on Saturdays. Fourteen lessons complete the semester.

Students wishing to enroll in the preparatory division of the Community Music Program are asked to attend an audition/interview on Tuesday, Jan. 15 or Wednesday, Jan 16 between 3-6 p.m. in room G-4 of the Fine Arts Building on the Methodist College campus. Complete information is available from Methodist College, 488-7110, ext. 256.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN
ESTABLISH ARCHIVES
AT METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--The United Methodist Women of the North Carolina Conference have established a permanent archive for historical documents relating the activities of their organization at Methodist College.

Evelyn Ballance of Raeford, historical chairman of United Methodist Women, placed all documents in a special display area located in Davis Memorial Library on the Methodist College campus.

"It was important to me to complete this task before going out of office," stated Ms. Ballance. Her collection contains articles of history, files, photographs and journals dating back to 1878 which will now be available for viewing through the Methodist College librarian.

Ruth Cade, <sup>past</sup> president of the United Methodist Women and a resident of Fayetteville, reiterated the need for a central place to keep records for future generations.

"Although there are some gaps of time unaccounted for in this collection, this is a notable effort toward a comprehensive archive for the United Methodist Women of the North Carolina

SOUTHERN THEATRE MAGAZINE
FEATURES COVER STORY BY FAYETTEVILL'S JACK PEYROUSE

FAYETTEVILLE--The fall issue of SOUTHERN THEATRE MAGAZINE, journal of the Southeastern Theatre Conference, features an article by local dramatist Jack Peyrouse.

"Turn-of-the-Century Touring Theatre in Southern Appalachia" describes the contributions of Oliver Taylor to the development of theatre in the South during the early 1900's. According to Dr. Peyrouse, Taylor toured Virginia, West Virginia, Georgia, N.C., S.C. and Tennessee offering theatre to remote parts of the mountain regions.

Dr. Peyrouse is director of theatre arts at Methodist College, a position he has held since 1977. During his tenure at Methodist, Dr. Peyrouse has also coordinated the Senior Adults Theatre under the auspices of the Grassroots Funding of the Arts Council. He has been active in local theatre productions, most recently the Fort Bragg Playhouse production of A Man For All Seasons.

METHODIST COLLEGE RECEIVES
REACCREDITATION EARLY FROM SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

FAYETTEVILLE--Methodist College received its 10-year reaccreditation from the prestigious Southern Association of Colleges and Universities one year early, according to Dr. Richard Pearce, president of Methodist.

"Although we were not scheduled to submit reaccreditation self-study until 1980, the college staff felt that we were prepared at this point to qualify for approval," says Dr. Pearce.

Reaccreditation efforts were coordinated by Dr. Samuel J. Womack, former academic dean at Methodist, prior to his return to the classroom in September, 1979. According to the current academic dean, Dr. Fred G. Clark, the reaccreditation committee was "most complimentary of the financial turn-around the college has made and the performance of Methodist College graduates in professional fields."

The Southern Association Accreditation of Methodist College is now valid through 1989.

MONSANTO NAMES METHODIST COLLEGE RECIPIENT OF $15,000 GRANT

FAYETTEVILLE--The Monsanto Corporation and the Monsanto Fund Board of Directors has selected Methodist College to participate in its three-year Rotational Grant Program.

According to Mrs. Lois B. Johnson, Grants Administrator for Monsanto, this program includes an unrestricted grant totaling $15,000 for the academic years 1979-80, 1980-81 and 1981-82. The first check for $5000 accompanied the letter of congratulations from Monsanto.

Dr. Richard Pearce, president of Methodist College, viewed the selection of Methodist as a vote of support for the work the college is doing.

"The generous grant from the Monsanto Corporation reaffirms my belief that, if this college fulfills its mission to provide quality education to students and tangible service to our community, financial support will continue to increase as it has considerably in the past few years," states Pearce.

The Monsanto Fund provides support to higher education throughout the United States to numerous colleges and universities.

METHODIST COLLEGE JOINS ACU-I

FAYETTEVILLE--Arthur McDaniel, dean of students at Methodist College, has announced the college's membership in the Association of College Unions-International (ACU-I).

One of the oldest intercollegiate educational associations in existence, ACU-I provides opportunities for college unions and centers to join in studying and improving their organizations, services, programs, facilities, personnel, and to assist in the development of new college unions.

Methodist joins over 900 other member colleges and universities throughout the world and is represented by the dean of students. Students on the Methodist campus will compete later this month for the right to compete on the national and international level in frisbee, bridge, foosball, billiards, ping pong and other union activities.

WECT-TV PRESENTS CHECK TO METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--Paul Bissett, president of WECT-TV of Wilmington, presented a check for $1000 to Methodist College as part of the station's continuing support of higher education in the Channel 6 viewing area.

"Methodist College continues to emerge as one of the most progressive and vital private colleges in this state," stated Bissett.

"We, at WECT-TV, applaud the college's work and show our support for Methodist College's efforts in educating the people in eastern North Carolina."

John Corbett, past president of the Methodist College Foundation, accepted the check for the college and expressed gratitude for the far-reaching concern of the staff at Channel 6.

HOLIDAY SEASON PROVES PROFITABLE TO METHODIST

FAYETTEVILLE--The holiday season has been "most profitable" for Methodist College, according to Dr. Richard Pearce, college president.

Over $140,000 in cash and properties has been received at Methodist College during the months of December and January. Gifts from the Mary Duke Biddle Foundation and a college trustee completed payments for a new organ for Reeves Auditorium, while a deed and contract gift totaled over $80,000. A home appraised at $25,000 was also given to the college.

These gifts, coupled with announced contributions of WECT-TV of Wilmington and Sears-Roebuck Foundation recently, place the Methodist College Foundation considerably ahead in their goal for 1980. The major financial campaign for Methodist College, conducted by the Foundation, is scheduled for mid-February.

METHODIST COLLEGE RECEIVES SEARS-ROEBUCK GRANT

FAYETTEVILLE--Methodist College is one of 39 privately supported colleges and universities in North Carolina selected to receive grants from the Sears-Roebuck Foundation totaling more than $49,381.

According to A. E. Rumman, area representative for the Sears Foundation, Methodist College will receive grants totaling $700.

The North Carolina colleges and universities are among over 8,000 private accredited two and four-year institutions across the country which are sharing in $1,500,000 in Sears Foundation funds for the 1979-80 academic year. Funds may be used unrestrictedly as the colleges and universities deem necessary .

Dr. Richard W. Pearce, president of Methodist College, in accepting the check stated that "Methodist College applauds the continual support of the Sears Foundation for private education."

METHODIST COLLEGE ANNOUNCES
ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIP WEEKEND

FAYETTEVILLE--Methodist College will hold its annual scholarship competition on Saturday, January 26, 1980 and February 16, 1980, for current high school seniors seeking to qualify for academic scholarships to attend Methodist College.

The actual scholarship exam will be given from 9 o'clock until 5 o'clock on both Saturdays on the Methodist campus. Panel interviews will be given to scholarship candidates from 6 o'clock until 7:30 those evenings. College faculty, staff and current students will interview the candidates for scholarships.

"Students can qualify for scholarships having a net worth of $30,000 based on the results of these exams," states Tommy Dent, Director of Admissions at Methodist.

"Three Presidential Scholarships of full tuition will be given in addition to over 27 partial scholarships. The Scholarship Weekend also provides the student an excellent opportunity to visit the campus, sit in on college classes, meet other prospective students and professors, and attend a couple of basketball games."

Overnight accommodations in the college dormitories are available and meals will be provided in the college Dining Hall. There is no cost for the exam to students.

FAITH-IN-LIFE WEEK
TO FEATURE DR. BERGLAND
OF DUKE UNIVERSITY

FAYETTEVILLE--Dr. John Bergland, professor of homiletics at Duke Divinity School, will be the featured speaker for Faith-In-Life Week to be held January 27-February 1.

Dr. Bergland will deliver five addresses centering around the theme "For the Seekers of Life." Individual addresses are scheduled as follows:

Sunday Evening (7 P.M.) - "When the Tower Falls" - subtitle:
"Will I Be A Loser?"

Monday Evening (7 P.M.) - "The One Thing Needed" - subtitle:
"What Must I Do To Have Life?"

Tuesday Convocation (11 A.M.) - "The Awkward Question"

Tuesday Evening (6:30 P.M.) - "Who and Whose? - Subtitle:
"Who Tells Me Who I am? Whose
I Am?"

Wednesday Morning (7 A.M.) - "But They Could Not" - Subtitle:
"Why Were We Not Able?"

An esteemed clergyman, author and educator, Dr. Bergland came to Duke Divinity School as Associate Professor of Homiletics in 1973. He was educated at Westmar College (A.B.), United Theological Seminary (M. Div.), and Yale. After twelve years of service in pastorate in the West Ohio Conference, Dr. Bergland returned to United Theological Seminary in 1961.

and Editorial Revision. He has experience as a television panelist and moderator, college trustee, neighborhood house chairman, suburban church building program, missionary aviation trustee, and preacher in penitentiaries. He holds commercial and flight instructor aviation ratings.

As preacher and teacher, Dr. Bergland has addressed congregations, conferences, and colleges from coast to coast. His research interests relate to preaching in churches of small membership. He is author of The Church's Calling and Conduct and co-author of Strangely Warm, as well as numerous articles in religious publications. In January, 1978, Dr. Bergland was appointed Associate Dean for External Affairs at Duke.

Other activities slated for Faith-In-Life Week include an organ concert by Jean Ishee in Hensdale Chapel on Monday, 12:40-1:00, an open interview session with Hugh Cameron concerning possible summer jobs at United Methodist campus in the conference on Wednesday, 2-4 o'clock in Eubanks Conference room; a brunch with the Reverend Kathy Sluder-Jordan on Thursday at 11:25-12:30 in Dining Room # 5, and a film "I heard the Owl Call Your Name," on Friday evening, 8:00.

Faith-In-Life Week is coordinated by Koinonia the campus minister, the Reverend Milton Sluder-Jordan.

NEWS

TO: Teachers of Speech, Theatre and English
FROM: Gwen Sykes
SUBJECT: Oedipus Rex Production
DATE: January 9, 1980

Have we got news for you!

No longer need you teach OEDIPUS REX and Greek Drama as if they are only part of the past. We are making them part of the present.

The Methodist College Masque/Keys will produce OEDIPUS REX by Sophocles on February 21 and 22 at 8 o'clock in Reeves Auditorium. Admission is free (with no reservations) and we will be delighted to have you and your students see this classic detective story come to life.

We also have a couple of "teachers' aids" to offer you, First, we have an OEDIPUS REX Crossword Puzzle. A puzzle seems an appropriate way to prepare students for this dramatic Greek puzzle. We have enough puzzles to furnish as many as you need for your students. If they submit their puzzle at least one week before the play, we will check them and the winners will be photographed with the cast after whichever performance they attend. We will send each winner a picture of himself being so honored. (The answers will also be posted in the lobby at performances so audiences can check their answers against them.)

Another aid we have is an opportunity to have Dr. Jack Peyrouse, Director of Theatre at Methodist, come to one of your classes or club meetings and explain Greek drama to students, liken the ritual of Greek tragedy and comedy to Christian rituals which we have now, and prepare them specifically to see OEDIPUS REX. If you are interested in having him speak, please contact my office at 488-7110, ext. 254 and I will make the necessary arrangements for your classes to hear "Rituals--5th Century and Now."

We are excited about this production of the seldom-produced classic which is certainly on every list of the "World's Greatest Plays." We have original music composed to play in the background, stunning costumes and scenery designed, and an exciting night of theatre planned.

We hope you and your students will all attend the production and be able to take advantage of the "teachers' aids" of the Crossword Puzzle or the opportunity to hear Dr. Peyrouse speak.
