METHODIST NAMES BENSON TO WOMEN'S COACHING POSITION

FAYETTEVILLE - Terrie Lynne Benson, outstanding athlete at Appalachian State University, has been named to the coaching staff at Methodist College, according to Gene Clayton, Methodist athletic director.

Ms. Benson will coach women's volleyball, basketball and softball at Methodist, taking the reins of Laura Ferrell, former Methodist Coach. Both the volleyball and basketball teams at Methodist are current North Carolina state champions.

A graduate of Southern Durham High School, Ms. Benson has established her athletic reputation as an All-American high school basketball player and as a four-sport athlete at Appalachian. She participated in varsity basketball, volleyball, softball and field hockey at ASU while pursuing her B.S. degree in Health and Physical Education and her M.S. in Physical Education. In 1974, Ms. Benson was named Most Valuable Player of the ASU volleyball team.

During her graduate internship, the 24-year old Benson served as the women's varsity track and field coach at Appalachian where she also received a minor in athletic training.

Ms. Benson will assume recruiting responsibilities immediately and will begin her teaching/coaching duties at Methodist concurrent

YOUTH THEATRE SCHEDULES
SUMMER PRODUCTIONS
AT METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--Fayetteville Youth Theatre has a new look and a new home for the 1980 summer season. Operating on the Methodist College campus, Youth Theatre will present summer productions of The Skin of Our Teeth by Thornton Wilder, King Cole and the Country Witches, The Bad Children by Shirley Jackson, and Fiddler on the Roof by Joseph Stein.

Youth Theatre participants will be divided by grade level with grades 2-6 attending classes from 9-11 a.m., Tuesday-Friday, in Reeves Auditorium on the Methodist campus under the instruction of Alice Arrington, Theatre Director at Reid Ross High School. Older students grades 6-9 will have classes from 1:30 -3:30 in Reeves Auditorium with Dr. Jack Peyrouse, Director of Theatre Arts at Methodist College. Students in the 6th grade have the option of choosing to perform with elementary classes or middle school classes.

High School students grades 10-12 are invited to audition for productions of The Skin of Our Teeth and Fiddler on the Roof.

Free transportation to Methodist College is part of the new look of Youth Theatre 1980. Buses will pick up students at Honeycutt, Massey Hill, and Seabrook recreation centers daily at times to be announced. Sign up for transportation will take place along with registration on Monday, June 23 at Reeves Auditorium. Registration for grades 2-9 will be held from 10:00-12:00 and 1:00-3:00 in Reeves 122.

METHODIST LEADS ALL-DIXIE CONFERENCE BASEBALL TEAM

FAYETTEVILLE--Conference champion Methodist College has placed five players on the All-Conference baseball team, as selected by the four league coaches. In addition, North Carolina Wesleyan placed four players on the squad, Virginia Wesleyan three, and St. Andrews one.

Methodist coach Tom Austin was also selected as "Co-Coach of the Year" in the Dixie, sharing the honor with N.C. Wesleyan's skipper Tony Guzzo. The two young mentors tied in the balloting.

As for the team itself, 13 players were selected including two ties that could not be broken in balloting for the first base position and one of the outfield spots. There are four seniors on the team, five juniors, three sophomores and one freshman. There are four repeaters to the all-conference team, and three unanimous selections:

McDEVITT GOLF STAR SELECTS METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE - Robert Hippensteel, winner of 31 junior golf tournaments and golf Standout at McDevitt High School, will attend Methodist College in the fall, according to Gene Clayton, Methodist golf coach.

Hippensteel has played number one on the McDevitt team for the past three years, receiving Medalist honors in the South Central League. His numerous tournament championships earned him an invitation to the 1979 Invitational Junior Masters.

Among these championships are titles at Valley Green Golf Course, National Junior Professional Golfers Association, Keystone Invitational and the York County Championship.

"I am extremely pleased that Robert has selected Methodist College to continue his career," says Clayton.

"He is, without a doubt, one of the finest golfers in the state of Pennsylvania. Rob will help up achieve the national level of competition which we seek."

Methodist golfers finished second in the Dixie Conference this season and sent senior captain Jack McCormic to the NCAA National Tournament in Des Moines, Iowa, where he received All-American honorable mention distinction.

Hippensteel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hippensteel of Harrisburg and played his high school golf under Coach Tony Cennuzel.

DANSVILLE GOLF STANDOUT CHOOSES METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE -- Mike Hartman, Dansville High School golf standout, will attend Methodist College in the fall, according to Gene Clayton, golf coach at Methodist.

Hartman, a four-letterman at Dansville, holds the Dansville School record for lowest nine holes at 33. He was MVP in golf his sophomore year and won the Brae Burn Country Club championship as a junior. In the New York State Junior Amateur Championships, Hartman advanced to the quarterfinals.

"I am extremely pleased that Mike has selected Methodist College. He is an outstanding golfer and should be a valuable part of our program as a freshman," says Clayton.

Methodist College golfers placed second in the Dixie Conference and sent senior Jack McCormic to the NCAA National Tournament in Des Moines, Iowa, where he earned All-American honorable mention honors.

Hartman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hartman of Deer Park Drive, Dansville. He played his high school golf under the instruction of Coach Mike Depew.

Methodist College is a four-year college of liberal arts and sciences located on a 600-acre campus near Fayetteville, NC, overlooking the Cape Fear River. Methodist is a member of Division III of the NCAA. ###
