MARDELA SOCCER STANDOUT
TO ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--Dean Eric Beach, soccer standout at Mardela (MD.) High School this season, will attend Methodist College this fall, according to Mason Sykes, Methodist's soccer coach.

Beach, 5'9" halfback, played four years for the Mardela team under coaches Dan Jones and Earl Reddish. He also participated in wrestling and baseball, playing both 2nd and 3rd base.

"Dean is a natural soccer talent," says Coach Sykes. "His finesse and speed will provide us with additional strength next fall."

Beach is the son of Don and Glenda Beach of Mardela.

Beach joins a strong Methodist team, seeking to capture the DIAC Conference crown they narrowly missed last fall. The Monarchs lost only two players to graduation and placed two on the DIAC All-Conference team. METHODIST GOLFERS RECEIVE THE NCAA NATIONAL TOURNAMENT

FAYETTEVILLE--Methodist College golf coach Gene Clayton believes in taking things in logical sequence: first, he recruited a team that could take the DIAC Conference golf championship consistently; second, he took one golfer to the 1980 NCAA National Tournament; third, he is taking his entire team to the NCAA National Tournament, 1981, to compete for the National Division III Championship in Pinehurst. Step-by-step, that's how the veteran coach likes it.

The Methodist golfers join twenty-two other college teams from across the nation to compete for the NCAA crown. Ranked high in the competition, Methodist has won all three Dixie Conference Golf tournaments this year and currently stands 34-3 against all Division III schools. The 3 losses came at the hands of conference foe Greensboro College, who will be hosting the Pinehurst event as well as competing for the title.

According to Clayton, the team average is 310--exceptional by any standards, but particularly with a team that is predominantly freshman. Playing for the Monarchs in the tournament will be Ian Joyce, sophomore from Pittsburg, PA; Jack Bartanus, sophomore from Avella, PA; Eddie Dalton, freshman from Fayetteville, NC; Mickey Sokalski, freshman from Coopersburg, PA; and Mike Baker, freshman from Bangor, MA.

Freshmen or not, these golfers have handled the pressure of collegiate golf well, setting both school and conference records for best round (290), best average (72.5), and best tournament (598). This team is the first Methodist College team to go to a NCAA national championship tournament. Previously, Methodist teams have attended NAIA national tournaments in bowling and tennis as well as AIAW tournaments in women's tennis.

GOLF UPDATE

(addition to story of May 19)

Gene Clayton lived up to his methodical style as Methodist College golfers places 6th in the NCAA Division III National Tournament, May 19-22.

"When we got together as a team in the fall, we set three goals: to win the DIAC conference tournament, to make it to the Nationals, and to make it as one of the top ten teams in the nation," says Clayton.

"We'll be ready next year to add another goal."

Methodist placed sixth after trailing by just 10 strokes midway through the tournament. The team posted a 1290 for the tournament.

California State-Stanislaus won the tournament for its sixth straight NCAA Division III golf title.

ALUMNI SOCCER GAME SLATED AT METHODIST

FAYETTEVILLE--Former soccer players at Methodist College will have a chance to play on the Monarch field once again as the first annual Alumni Soccer Game is played during Homecoming Weekend, October 9-11.

Alumni players will take to the field at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday afternoon, October 11, under the leadership of coaches Roy Philpott (veterans) and Dave Radford (rookies). Coach Mason Sykes says the game is the result of alumni interest.

"So many of the former players come back every Homecoming and each year they are eager to play themselves after the Saturday game," says Sykes.

"The interest has been so intense that we believe that the alumni players can field two teams for an exciting game--the Alumni Bowl."

If you previously played for the Monarch soccer team, make plans now to come back to the campus for Homecoming, and stay for an afternoon of alumni soccer on Sunday. Contact Dave Radford immediately at (919)383-2327 or write him at Route #2, Box 563, Durham, North Carolina 27705. Radford is coordinating the event for the MCAA.

Dear Alumni,

Culture shock is the most descriptive term for the month of May on the Methodist College campus. After the hectic pace of April (RAFT ON THE RIVER, the Fine Arts Festival, banquets galore and Spring Festival) and May graduation, suddenly the campus is quiet and empty. It's almost hard to function without all those interruptions, but the adjustment is coming quick!

When summer is brand new and your thoughts are filled with vacations, beaches, time off, tennis, longer days, gardens and suntans--it seems that October is years away. You're right--the summer still stretches ahead, but you can plan now for a visit home to the college campus during HOMECOMING WEEKEND, October 9-10-11, 1981. Thanks to the efficient planning of the newly-elected Student Union Board and the SGA, Homecoming plans are already set and a calendar is provided for you on the facing page. Look closely and you will find a few additions: an afternoon performance of the Homecoming theatre production, a later time for the Alumni banquet to allow for rest and changing after the Saturday afternoon game., and the first alumni soccer game. Make your plans to celebrate the end of summer and coming of winter at Methodist with a big weekend--but don't expect people to read your minds. If you are coming back, then call your friends

The requests vary from an MC mug for a present to a T-shirt for a new arrival. Sometimes an alum wants a sports schedule so they can attend events near them. And, quite frankly, sometimes there are requests that we haven't the capability to fill. But we sure will try. One of the requests that I have had recently is for counted crossstitch graphs of the belltower, the college seal, the Monarch, of anything symbolizing the college. If you are good at that sort of thing, I think there might be a market for your work. Please get in touch.
