LEE COUNTY SOCCER STANDOUT
WILL ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE-Randy Burge, Lee County Senior High School's soccer standout, will attend Methodist College this fall, according to soccer Coach Mason Sykes.

Burge, 5'8"-145 lb. halfback on the Lee County soccer team, was credited with 5 assists last season. In addition to soccer, Burge also played varsity tennis.

"I have talked to Randy on a couple of occasions and was very impressed with his attitude and the overall impression that he portrays," says Coach Mason Sykes. "He will be a valuable asset to our soccer program. I am looking forward to working with Randy during his college career."

Burge, the son of David and Marie Burge of Sanford, joins a strong Methodist team seeking to capture the DIAC Conference crown they narrowly missed last fall.

Methodist College, a member of NCAA Division III, is a four-year college of liberal arts and sciences located in Fayetteville, on a 600-acre campus overlooking the Cape Fear River.

Methodist College reaped its sixth consecutive award from Associated Collegiate Press for the bi-weekly student newspaper Small Talk.

According to Small Talk editor Tricia Turner of Fayetteville, the publication once again received the top rating of Honors First Class from the national organization for the spring semester 1981. ACP judge Sally Heffentreyer also awarded Small Talk a Mark of Distinction in photography.

"Small Talk is to be commended for its extensive coverage of the energy crisis and financial aid cutbacks," says Heffentreyer. "The paper scores high in creative graphics."

SENECA VALLEY STANDOUT TO ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE—Richard Lee Kradel, golf standout for Seneca Valley High School (PA.), will attend Methodist College this fall according to golf coach Gene Clayton.

Kradel, four year letterman at Seneca Valley, received Most Valuable Player honors in golf for his sophomore, junior and senior years.

Kradel, 5'11"-160 lbs., also played guard on the Seneca Valley basketball team.

"I am most pleased with Richard's decision to attend Methodist College," says Coach Clayton. "I feel sure he will be a valuable part of our varsity golf program in the future."

Kradel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kradel is from Zelienople, PA.

Methodist College golfers placed sixth in the NCAA Division III National Tournament this season after capturing the DIAC Conference title.

Methodist College is a four-year liberal arts and sciences college located in Fayetteville, NC on a 600-acre campus overlooking the Cape Fear River.
