THREE LEE COUNTY BASEBALL STANDOUTS TO ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--Rod Waddell, Ricky Wade and Ronnie McNeill, baseball standouts at Lee County Senior High, will attend Methodist College this fall, according to Methodist coach Tom Austin.

Waddell was an all-conference selection in baseball this past season and he received best defensive award during his junior year. The second baseman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Beady B. Waddell, Jr.

"Rod runs extremely well and is versatile enough to challenge for an infield or an outfield slot," says Austin.

Ricky Wade pitched for Coach Ronnie Wicker's Lee County team for his junior and senior years. He is the son of Jimmy and Susie Wade of Sanford.

"Left-handed pitchers are always an asset to our staff," says Austin. "Ricky will most probably see action in relief."

Ronnie McNeill played varsity baseball for three years at Lee Senior. He was all-conference and Most Valuable Player of the team for the past two years. Recording 116 strikeouts this past season, McNeill posted a record of 8-3. He is the son of Grady and Judy McNeill of Broadway.

ENCLEWOOD BASEBALL STANDOUT TO ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- David Hackley, baseball standout at Englewood High School (Jacksonville, FL), will attend Methodist College this fall, according to Methodist coach Tom Austin.

Hackley, 5'9"-165 lb. third baseman, batted a strong .364 for Coach Ernie Delucco's Englewood team this spring.

Hackley is the son of Alfred and Nettie Hackley of Jacksonville, FL.

"David's bat will be expected to provide more offensive punch to the Monarch lineup," says Austin. "David swings the bat exceptionally well."

Hackley joins a strong Methodist team returning from a national ranking of 27th in the nation last spring. The Monarchs had five members named to the DIAC All-Conference baseball team in 1981.

Methodist College is a member of the NCAA, Division III and the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. Located on 600 acres overlooking the Cape Fear River, Methodist College is a four-year residential college of liberal sciences.

RED SPRINGS BASEBALL STANDOUT TO ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--Billy Klingenschmidt, baseball power at Red Springs High School, will attend Methodist College this fall, according to Methodist coach Tom Austin.

Klingenschmidt, 6'-165 lb. shortstop and occasional pitcher, was selected to the All-Conference for both his junior and senior year at Red Springs High as well as receiving honorable mention as a freshman. He had the highest batting average on Coach Chuck Pope's RSSH team during his junior season with a .472 average.

Klingenschmidt, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Klingenschmidt of Brooks Avenue in Red Springs, also played football at Red Springs at the quarterback and strong safety positions.

"Billy runs well and knows the game," says Austin. "We know that he can play infield, but we also plan to look at him as a pitcher since he threw a no-hitter this past spring."

Klingenschmidt will join a strong Methodist team returning from a national ranking of 27th in the nation last spring. The Monarchs had five members named to the DIAC All-Conference baseball team for 1981.

CAPE FEAR'S FRANK SESSOMS AND TARRY FAIRCLOTH
WILL ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE THIS FALL

FAYETTEVILLE--Franklin Sessoms and Tarry Faircloth, baseball powers at Cape Fear High School, will attend Methodist College this fall, according to Methodist coach Tom Austin.

Sessoms, 5'11"-175 lb. pitcher and shortstop for the Colts, posted a senior record of 7-4 and a career record of 22-8. The All Conference pitcher also received Most Valuable Player honors for Coach Frank Lopes' team.

The son of Leon Sessoms and Naomi Kessner, Frank also played football for the Cape Fear team.

"Frank will give us immediate help on the mound and also will get some work at shortstop," says Austin. "He will be used to the pressure after leading his team to the runnerup position in the State 4A baseball tournament this past spring."

Sessoms will join a strong Methodist team returning from a national ranking of 27th in the nation last spring. The Monarchs had five members named to the DIAC All-Conference baseball team for 1981.

Joining Sessoms at Methodist will teammate Tarry Faircloth, leading homerun hitter for the Colts last season.

FORMER EASTERN WAYNE SHORTSTOP
WILL ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--Roger May, former baseball standout at Goldsboro's Eastern Wayne High School and transfer from Mount Olive Junior College, will attend Methodist College this fall, according to Methodist coach Tom Austin.

May, 6'0"-175 lbs., was the shortstop on Coach Danny Southerland's Eastern Wayne team in 1979. He received the Coaches Award during his senior year. May has played two years for the Mount Olive team before transferring to Methodist.

"Roger is a junior college transfer who possesses a smooth glove," says Austin. "He will challenge for the shortstop slot."

May is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger D. May of Stallings Street in Goldsboro. He will join a strong Methodist team returning from a ranking of 27th in the nation last spring. The Monarchs had five members named to the DIAC All-Conference baseball team for 1981.

CHRIST SCHOOL BASKETBALL STANDOUT TO ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--Stuart Joines, basketball standout at Christ School, will attend Methodist College this fall, according to Methodist College coach Joe Miller.

Joines, 6'3"-185 lbs., was captain of the Christ School team and played guard. He received the Most Valuable Player award for defense.

"Stuart Joines is a fine addition to our basketball program at Methodist," says Miller. "I am really excited about Stuart attending and I am looking forward to working with him."

Joines is the son of William and Elizabeth Joines of Durham. He played his high school basketball under Coach Pat James.

Joines will join a young Methodist team who will have a chance to put the experience gained last year into effect next season in DIAC competition. Lane Whitlow, 6'7" center from Charlotte will return as a sophomore as will James Green of New Bern and Fred Turretine of Durham.

Methodist College is a member of NCAA, Division III, and the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. Located on 600 acres overlooking the Cape Fear River, Methodist College is a four-year residential college of liberal arts and sciences.

WESTOVER'S EDWARDS BROTHERS TO ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--John and Greg Edwards, powerful brother combination for Coach Randy Ledford's Westover baseball team this spring, will both attend Methodist College this fall, according to Methodist Coach Tom Austin.

John Edwards was the Wolverine's Most Valuable Player in baseball this season. The 6' 0"-155 lb. first baseman set school records for most runs and RBI's.

Greg, 6' 0"-164 lb., played behind the plate for the Westover team. He received All-Conference honors as catcher during his senior year.

"Greg is a sound defensive catcher and will battle for a starting berth," says Austin. "John hits and runs well. He will be given a shot at first base and at an outfield position."

John and Greg are sons of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Edwards of Bedford Drive. They join a strong Methodist team returning from a national ranking of 27th last spring. The Monarchs boasted five members on the DIAC All-Conference baseball team for 1981.
