METHODIST COLLEGE PRESENTS
MEDALLIONS TO GARRICK, DAVIS

FAYETTEVILLE-Methodist College awarded the prestigious Methodist College Medallion to A. Dano Davis and Grier Garrick during formal Commencement Exercises at the College on Sunday, May 2.

Davis, senior vice-president of Winn-Dixie, Inc., delivered the graduation address to the May graduates. A native of Jacksonville, Florida, Davis attended the Bolles School and Stetson University prior to service in the U.S. Army Reserves as combat engineer and military police.

Beginning his career with Winn-Dixie as a bottle boy in 1962, Dano Davis has held numerous positions within the company. As senior vice-president, Davis directs the operations of Winn-Dixie in the Jacksonville, Atlanta and Orlando divisions. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of Winn-Dixie Stores.

In presenting the medallion citation, Methodist College president Dr. Richard Pearce called Davis "by definition and accomplishment, a successful man."

Dano Davis is married to the former Mary Lou Varnedoe and they have two sons.

Garrick is a recognized leader in United Methodist laity, having served as Lay Leader of the North Carolina conference for six years. He has also held numerous conference and jurisdictional offices as well as serving as a trustee for the Methodist Retirement home and North Carolina Wesleyan College.

As president of Carolina Office supply, Garrick has established six stores throughout eastern North Carolina and has held state and national offices in various professional organizations.

"Christianity is fundamentally the love of God, the love of mankind and devoted service to both. Grier Garrick is a Christian man," read the Medallion citation.

Garrick and his wife Martha are the parents of three children.

The Methodist College Medallion is awarded to individuals who have "lived a lifetime beyond one's self with outstanding contributions in business, civic service and in spiritual commitment."

LOCAL GOLFER HEADS TO NCAA FINALS

FAYETTEVILLE Brian Hamric of Moundsville, WV, will join Methodist College golf team members at the NCAA Division III Nationals on May 18-21 at the Reid Park Golf Course in Springfield, Ohio.

The Methodist College team received the official NCAA bid this week, according to Methodist coach Gene Clayton who led his team to an overall record of 122-13, NCAA Division III record of 48-0 and a Dixie Conference record of 34-0 this season.

The Monarchs placed sixth in the national tournament last year and look to finish higher this time.

"I certainly expect us to finish in the top four," says Clayton. "We are averaging better as a team and playing more consistantly than last year."

Team members to accompany Hamric are Mike Hartman of Dansville, NY; John Lavin of Myrtle Beach, SC; Mitchell Morgan of Georgetown, SC and Mickey Sokalski of Coopersburg, PA.

Hamric, a freshman at Methodist, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Hamric of Moundsville, and a 1981 graduate of John Marshall High School.

TO NCAA FINALS

FAYETTEVILLE-Mitchell Morgan of Georgetown, SC, will join Methodist College golf team members at the NCAA Division III Nationals on May 18-21 at the Reid Park Golf course in Springfield, Ohio.

The Methodist College team received the official NCAA bid this week, according to Methodist coach Gene Clayton who led his team to an overall record of 122-13, NCAA Division III record of 48-0 and a Dixie Conference record of 34-0 this season.

The Monarchs placed sixth in the national tournament last year and look to finish higher this time.

"I certainly expect us to finish in the top four," says Clayton. "We are averaging better as a team and playing more consistantly than last year."

Team members to accompany Morgan are Mike Hartman of Dansville NY; John Lavin of Myrtle Beach, SC; Mickey Sokalski of Coopersburg, PA; and Brian Hamric of Moundsville, WV.

Morgan, a freshman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene L. Morgan of Georgetown and a 1981 graduate of Winyah High School, Tournament wins to his credit include the 1980 Ping Classic, the 1979 George Holiday Memorial Tournament

LOCAL RESIDENT WILL PLAY IN NCAA BASEBALL PLAYOFFS

FAYETTEVILLE-Rod Waddell, freshman outfielder from Sanford, will travel with his Methodist College baseball team to the NCAA Division III South Regional Baseball Tournament to be held May 20-22 in Rocky Mount.

Methodist, 34-11 for the season and co-champion of the DIAC Conference, received the bid for the nationals after ranking as high as fifth in NCAA Division III baseball.

Waddell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Beady B. Waddell and a 1981 graduate of Lee County High School. He was selected to the 1982 DIAC All-Conference team recently with a .327 batting average and 49 stolen bases to his credit.

Methodist will face NC Wesleyan, Lynchburg and one more team still to be determined in the double-elimination tournament. The winner there will advance to the NCAA Baseball Nationals in Marietta, OH, later in the month.

Methodist College is a four-year college of liberal arts and sciences located on a 600-acre campus in Fayetteville, NC overlooking the Cape Fear River Valley.

LOCAL RESIDENT WILL PLAY IN NCAA BASEBALL PLAYOFFS

FAYETTEVILLE-Billy Robinson, junior outfielder, and Norm Harris, junior infielder, both of Titusville, FL, will travel with the Methodist College baseball team to the NCAA Division III South Regional Baseball Tournament to be held May 20-22 in Rocky Mount.

Methodist, 31-10-1 for the season and co-champion of the DIAC conference, received the bid for the nationals after ranking as high as fifth in NCAA Division III baseball.

Robinson is the son of Mrs. Pat Robinson and a 1979 graduate of Titusville High School. Batting .294, Robinson has scored 52 runs for the Monarchs this season.

Harris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Harris and is also a 1979 graduate of Titusville High School. He is batting .267 currently.

Methodist will face NC Wesleyan, Lynchburg and one more team still to be determined in the double-elimination tournament. The winner there will advance to the NCAA Baseball nationals in Marietta, OH later in the month.
