PENDER BASKETBALL STANDOUT
TO ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE-Derrick Andre Newkirk, basketball standout at Pender (NC) High School, will attend Methodist College this fall, according to Joe Miller, Methodist basketball coach.

Newkirk, 6'2"-175 lbs., forward, was All-Conference averaging 16.8 points per game and 5.3 rebounds per game for Coach Joe Clay Jones' team.

"I am excited about having Derrick here at Methodist College," says Miller. "Playing for Coach Jones at Pender High School has given him a fine background as there have been a lot of good players coming from this program. I am looking forward to working with Derrick the next four years."

Newkirk is the son of Mrs. Flora Newkirk of Currie, NC.

Methodist College is a four-year residential college of liberal arts and sciences located on a 600-acre campus bordering the Cape Fear River in Fayetteville, NC. Methodist College is a member of NCAA Division III and the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

Newkirk joins a strong Methodist College team that boasted wins over NCAA Division I Campbell University and NAIA power Pembroke State University this past season.

WOODSON SOCCER STANDOUT
TO ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE-Brenda McKimems, halfback and fullback for the W.T. Woodson (VA) High School women's soccer team, will attend Methodist College this fall, according to the college's women soccer coach Joe Pereira.

A member of Colegrove's team, McKimems, 5'4"-135 lbs., was named to the first team All-District in 1981, the same year she received All-Tourney recognition in the Jefferson Tournament. In 1982 and 1984, she was named to the second team All-District.

"Getting a player of Brenda's caliber is a tremendous asset to our new program," says Pereira. "She possesses a high level of skill and many years of soccer experience."

McKimems is the daughter of Bruce and Trudi McKimems of Fairfax, Virginia.

Methodist College is a four-year residential college of liberal arts and sciences located on a 600-acre campus bordering the Cape Fear River Valley in Fayetteville, NC. Methodist College is a member of NCAA Division III and the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

McKimems will join Methodist's first women's soccer team and will play a 14-game schedule, including games with UNC-CH, NC State University and Duke University.

SANFORD BASKETBALL STANDOUT
TO ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE—Stephen Collins, basketball standout at Terry Sanford (NC) High School, will attend Methodist College this fall according to Joe Miller, Methodist basketball coach.

Collins, 5'11"-155 lbs., point guard, averaged 5 assists, 3 rebounds, and 8 points per game. He joins a strong Methodist College team that boasted wins over NCAA Division I Campbell University and NAIA power Pembroke State University this past season.

"I am glad that Steve will be attending next," says Miller "The local kids that have been in the program have done well. Steve works hard and his best years are in the future. I am looking forward to working with him."

Collins is the son of Mrs. James Collins of Fayetteville, NC.

Methodist College is a four-year residential college of liberal arts and sciences located on a 600-acre campus bordering the Cape River in Fayetteville, NC. Methodist College is a member of NCAA Division III and the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

METHODIST'S NEW WOMEN'S SOCCER SCHEDULE

FEATURES TOP TWENTY COMPETITION

FAYETTEVILLE - The new Methodist College Women's Soccer team will play an impressive schedule featuring four NCAA Division I Top Twenty teams, according to Coach Joe Pereira.

After a successful recruiting season, the Methodist schedule will open with a tournament in Chapel Hill, with games against UNC-CH, Guilford College, NC Wesleyan College, and Warren Wilson College. In addition to the three-time national champion Tarheel women's soccer team, the three other Division I Top Twenty schools on the Methodist schedule are North Carolina State University, Radford University, and William and Mary College. The Tarheel team is a pre-season favorite to win the national title again this year.

Pereira, a native of Fall River, MA, assisted Methodist College men's soccer coach Mason Sykes for three seasons before being named the women's coach for 1984-85. He will also coach the women's tennis team.

METHODIST COLLEGE PRESIDENT

ANNOUNCES STAFF CHANGES

Changes have marked the Methodist College campus during the first year of presidency for Dr. M. Elton Hendricks and evidence of more change will be found as the 1984-85 academic year gets underway on Thursday, August 30.

In addition to the appointment of Dr. Mary Lynn Sadler as Academic Dean, Hendricks has announced administrative additions and changes throughout the faculty and staff.

Dr. Kenneth Collins assumed the position of Campus Minister on July 1 and will be teaching two classes during the fall semester in addition to counseling responsibilities and chapel duties. Dr. Collins will also coordinate some of the church relations activities between Methodist College and the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. Dr. Collins is a native of Brooklyn, NY and a graduate of Asbury Seminary, Princeton and received his Doctor of Philosophy degree from Drew University.

Ms. Catherine Shuford, who has taught on the Methodist campus as an adjunct instructor of religion, will assume fulltime duties in the classroom. The teaching responsibilities of Dr. Collins and Ms. Shuford will fill the vacancy left by the retirement of Dr. Samuel J. Womack in May.

Dr. Janet Savage, professor of English, has taken a one-year's leave

Methodist College

TO: News Reporter
FROM: Gwen Sykes, Director of Publications
SUBJECT: Presidential Press Conference
DATE: August 29, 1984

Methodist College officially opens the 1984-85 academic year with a Formal Convocation in Reeves Auditorium on Wednesday morning, September 5, at 10 o'clock. President Elton Hendricks will deliver his first State of The College Address at this convocation.

Members of the press are invited to attend the opening convocation and to meet with President Hendricks immediately following his address at the President's Office in Horner Administration Building.

Please let me know if I can help you in anyway with advance material. I look forward to seeing you on Wednesday, September 5.

Methodist College

TO: Frances Hasty, Observer/Times
FROM: Gwen Sykes, Director of Publications
SUBJECT: Suggestion for "Homefront"
DATE: August 31, 1984

Congratulations on your new "At Home With . . ." series in the Home Front section of the Sunday Observer/Times! The first articles have been both entertaining and informative.

Please consider using The President's Home at Methodist College as a possibility for this series. The home itself was built with the combined efforts of key trustees, acting on the strong belief that the college president should live on the college campus. Dr. Hendricks, after nine months of "the bachelor life," has been joined by his wife Jerri and his children, Pat, a freshman in college, and George, a seventh-grader at Pine Forest Junior High.

If I can help you in this matter or in any other, you know that I'm always available to you or your staff.

Gwen
