METHODIST COLLEGE SPRING GOLF PROSPECTUS

Gene Clayton, Methodist College Golf Coach, seems excited about this year's Monarch Golf program. Although the 1984-85 Monarchs may not look at first glance as strong as they have in the past, they have an interesting mixture of veterans and newcomers that may surprise people.

Among these is veteran senior Mitchell Morgan from Georgetown, SC, an All-American and two-time All-Dixie Conference swinger, who is looking for his best season.

Along with Morgan, sophomore John Walsh of Thomson, GA and junior Kurt Hoeflein of Sugarland, Texas will add some experience. Walsh was an All-Conference candidate in 1984 and Hoeflein played number one for the Monarchs in the 1984 fall season.

Gary Kmetz, a senior from Florence, MA has been in the top 10 for the last three years and should help while sophomore Jim Cullen of Sayville, NY showed promise in the fall, according to Coach Clayton.

Clayton, who has coached his Monarchs to the NCAA Nationals for five consecutive seasons, has four freshmen with potential to break into the top six. Daryl Bock from New York City, NY; Brian Connor from Harrisburg, PA; Gary Briggs from Roxboro, NC; and Matt Golbeski from Philadelphia, PA all could make the first team.

"If two of these four freshman play to their potential, we should be as strong as the past four years," said Clayton.
