MONARCH SOFTBALL LOOKS

TO GOOD BEGINNING

The Dixie Conference will be strong again this year but Coach Dan Lawrence expects to be in the thick of things.

"We are going to work hard to contend for the Conference Championship," Lawrence says.

And they may very well do just that. They have a good new battery. Lisa Weymer, a freshmen from Culpeper, Virginia was 16-1-1 as a senior last year with a .690 ERA. Donna Jackson will round out this one-two punch. Donna, a freshman from Lake City, SC was her high school's best all-around performer. "She's a strong hitter," said Lawrence. "She could help us in the power hitting area!"

Some of the top returners for the Lady Monarchs include Jimmie Lou Morris, a sophomore and Fayetteville native. Morris was selected to the 2nd team all-conference last season and is the team's most consistent player. Karen Mason, a sophomore short stop from Culpepper, Virginia, will also continue to help the Lady Monarchs. Mason, too, was selected to the 2nd team all-conference team last season. Sonja Mixon, another sophomore, will add some strength at the plate. Mixon was 2nd in the conference in home-runs and third in RBI's last season.

The Monarchs are looking at a strong 46-game schedule which includes ECU, UNC-W, and Francis Marion.

"We hope to gain experience in the early games, so we can be ready for the conference games," explained Lawrence.
