MCGINNIS RECEIVES

METHODIST COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP

FAYETTEVILLE—Tracey McGinnis, daughter of Thomas Carey and Cynthia L. McGinnis of Dumfries, VA, has been awarded a scholarship by Methodist College. McGinnis received the award based on her performance at a week-end competition held in January on the Methodist College campus. The competition, designed to recognize academic achievement, has been held at Methodist for more than twenty years.

This year, the fifty North Carolina and East Coast high school seniors participating in the scholarship competition were required to take two CLEP tests in addition to being interviewed by a panel of Methodist College personnel. Winners were determined by totaling CLEP test results with interview scores.

Methodist College is a four-year private residential college of liberal arts sciences located on a 600-acre campus bordering the Cape Fear River in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

FORD RECEIVES

METHODIST COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP

FAYETTEVILLE—Keith Allen Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Ford of Front Royal, VA, has been awarded a scholarship by Methodist College. Ford received the award based on his performance at a week-end competition held in January on the Methodist College campus. The competition, designed to recognize academic achievement, has been held at Methodist for more than twenty years.

This year, the fifty North Carolina and East Coast high school seniors participating in the scholarship competition were required to take two CLEP tests in addition to being interviewed by a panel of Methodist College personnel. Winners were determined by totaling CLEP test results with interview scores.

Methodist College is a four-year private residential college of liberal arts and sciences located on a 600-acre campus bordering the Cape Fear River in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

GREGORY WINS METHODIST COLLEGE

PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLARSHIP

FAYETTEVILLE—Trent Gregory, son of Ellis and Sharon Gregory of Wake Forest, has been awarded a full-tuition Presidential Scholarship, valued at approximately $16,000, by Methodist College. His award is renewable for four years, contingent upon maintenance of a 3.0 grade-point average.

Gregory received the scholarship based on his performance at a week-end competition held in January on the Methodist College campus. The competition, designed to recognize academic achievement, has been held at Methodist for more than twenty years.

This year, the fifty North Carolina and East Coast high school seniors participating in the scholarship competition were required to take two CLEP tests in addition to being interviewed by a panel of Methodist College personnel. Winners were determined by totaling CLEP test results with interview scores.

Out of the twenty-seven scholarship winners, Gregory was the only student selected to receive the Presidential Scholarship.

TWO SALEMURG RESIDENTS RECEIVE
METHODIST COLLEGE AWARDS

FAYETTEVILLE-Edwin and Sandra Rose, husband and wife who are both Methodist College students, were recognized for their academic achievements at the school's Annual Awards Convocation, held April 17 in Reeves Auditorium on the Methodist College campus.

Edwin Rose was the joint winner of the Plyer-Knott Award in Religion. Established in honor of the two Methodist College religion professors, the award is given to an outstanding religion student who plans to enter a religious vocation. Co-winner of this year's award was Won Un of Seoul, Korea.

Sandra Rose was inducted into Sigma Omega Chi, the local honor society for students majoring and minoring in sociology or social work. Based on a minimum grade-point average of 2.7 and a certain number of earned semester hours in sociology or social work, Rose was one of twenty-three past and current Methodist students selected for membership.

Edwin Rose is scheduled to graduate from Methodist at the Spring Commencement, which will be held May 5 on the Methodist College campus.

MCKIMENS RECEIVES METHODIST COLLEGE

LEADERSHIP AWARD

FAYETTEVILLE-Brenda McKimens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McKimens of Fairfax, VA, received the Omicron Delta Kappa Outstanding Freshman Award at Methodist College's Annual Award Convocation, held April 17 in Reeves Auditorium on the Methodist College campus.

Given in recognition of outstanding leadership, McKimens won the award because of her involvement in Methodist College activities since she arrived on campus in August, 1984. The women's soccer player and Homecoming court member is also vice-president of "SAM," a student-based organization established to involve all students in campus life.

Also active in student government, McKimens has been elected Student Government Association Senator for the 1985-86 school year.

Methodist College is four-year residential college of liberal arts and sciences located on a 600-acre campus bordering the Cape Fear River in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

PETRONELLA RECEIVES METHODIST COLLEGE

ROTC AWARD

FAYETTEVILLE-Joseph Petronella, son of Gerald Petronella of Rome, NY, was given a Military Order of World Wars Medal at Methodist College's Annual Awards Convocation, held April 17 in Reeves Auditorium on the Methodist College campus.

The award is presented to a cadet in good standing in all military aspects. The cadet must have good scholarship and exhibit a strong desire to serve his country. In addition to Petronella, Kevin Austin of Greenville, NC, also received a Military Order of World Wars Medal.

Methodist College is a four-year residential college of liberal arts and sciences located on a 600-acre campus bordering the Cape Fear River in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

Clayton/Development

Methodist College president Elton Hendricks announced today that Gene Clayton, longtime athletic director of the college, has been named Director of Development at Methodist.

Clayton's new position will carry with it the responsibility of developing new sources of financial support for Methodist College, particularly in the area of corporate gifts and grants and single major donors.

Clayton joined the Methodist College faculty in 1963 and has served as its athletic director since 1978. Announcement of his successor as athletic director is expected in the near future.

SMITH RECEIVES

METHODIST COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP

FAYETTEVILLE—Donald Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Smith of Cary, NC, has been awarded a scholarship by Methodist College. Smith received the award based on his performance at a week-end competition held in January on the Methodist College campus. The competition, designed to recognize academic achievement, has been held at Methodist for more than twenty years.

This year, the fifty North Carolina and East Coast high school seniors participating in the scholarship competition were required to take two CLEP tests in addition to being interviewed by a panel of Methodist College personnel. Winners were determined by totaling CLEP test results with interview scores.

METHODIST COLLEGE

AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS

FAYETTEVILLE-Methodist College has recently awarded scholarships to several high school seniors who will enter the freshmen class in the fall. The scholarships given were determined by a week-end competition held at the end of January on the Methodist College campus, with fifty high school seniors from North Carolina and states along the East Coast vying for awards.

Trent Gregory of Wake Forest has received a full-tuition Presidential Scholarship valued at approximately $16,000. His award is renewable for four years, contingent upon maintenance of a 3.0 grade-point average.

Other scholarship monies awarded vary from $500-$3000. Winners from Fayetteville include Camelia Hunt, Ray Jenkins, Dawn Knowlton, Alesia Morris, Lora Reid, Sheri Shelby, Jo Beth Sill, John Smith, and Mark Tygh. Two Stedman residents receiving scholarships are Donald Phipps and Jennifer Thigpen.

Additional North Carolina students given scholarships are Marty Cayton and Deanna Holden, both of Spring Lake; Donald Smith of Cary; Marc Richter of Shelby; Rachel Weatherford of Morganton; and Connie Kibben of Pikeville.

Out-of-state winners include Mary Anglin of Avenel, NJ; Leah Kennedy of Decatur, GA; Tracy Gillin of Conemaggh, PA; Keith Ford of Front Royal, VA; Christie Wolosenko of Dale City, VA; Tracey McGinnis of Dumfries, VA; Alan George of Johnson City, TN; Caroline Bennett of Columbia, MD; and Mark Landes of Keyser, WV.
