TWO SOUTHWEST ONSLOW BASKETBALL STANDOUTS TO ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--Kimberly K. Floyd and Kelly A. Taylor, senior basketball standouts at Southwest Onslow High School, will attend Methodist College this fall, according to Darci Wilson, Methodist College women's basketball coach.

Floyd, a 5'6" guard, has been a four-year starter for Southwest Onslow, and was named All-Conference, All-County, and Second Team All-East this past season. She was the 1984 Player of the Year as well as MVP, co-captain, and Most Outstanding Female Athlete in 1985.

In addition, Floyd has played volleyball for three years as a setter. She was named All-Conference, MVP, and captain in that sport as well.

"Kim will be a strong contender at the point guard slot next year," says Coach Wilson. "She will also contribute to the volleyball team."

Floyd is the daughter of Jeannette Bryan of Jacksonville, NC.

Taylor, a 5'7" forward and guard, has lettered four years in basketball at Southwest. She averaged 8.2 points per game during her senior year, serving as co-captain with Floyd. The Southwest Onslow women's basketball team was Conference Champion 1984-85.

In addition to basketball, Taylor also plays softball. Her junior year at Southwest she played in the outfield.

"Kelly is a super offensive player," says Coach Wilson. "She will definitely help us offensively next year with her excellent shooting ability."

Taylor is the daughter of Jimmie and Sheila Taylor, also of Jacksonville.
