METHODIST COLLEGE PROFESSOR

RECEIVES GOVERNOR MARTIN APPOINTMENT

FAYETTEVILLE--Bruce R. Pulliam, Associate Professor of Social Science and Chairman of the Social Studies Division at Methodist College, has been appointed by Governor James G. Martin to the North Carolina Museum of History Associates Board of Directors. Pulliam received word of his selection in late April from Hal McKinney, assistant secretary to the North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources.

A member of the Methodist faculty since 1962, Pulliam holds degrees from Wake Forest and Western Carolina. He has also done additional advanced study at the University of North Carolina.

Beginning July 1, Pulliam will serve on the Board for four years.

METHODIST COLLEGE ANNOUNCES

STAFF CHANGES/ADDITIONS

FAYETTEVILLE--Dr. M. Elton Hendricks, president of Methodist College, has announced several staff changes and additions, most of which will become effective July 1, 1985.

Gene Clayton has been named Vice-President for Development and Dr. Dennis Gregory has been selected Vice-President for Student Life.

Clayton, athletic director at Methodist for twenty-two years, graduated from Catawba College, and earned his master's degree in education from the University of North Carolina. His new responsibility will become effective July 1, 1985.

Dr. Gregory will join the Methodist staff on June 1, as Dean of Students. He has recently completed his doctoral studies at the University of Virginia. Prior to that, he served as Chief Student Affairs Officer at Ferrum College.

In other changes, Gwen Sykes, director of publications at Methodist since 1977, will become Director of Special Projects July 1, 1985. Sykes holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Methodist.

Tom Austin, current assistant professor of physical education, will become Athletic Director July 1. He holds both a bachelor's degree and a master's degree from Rollins College.

Joe Miller, also an assistant professor of physical education, has been named chairman of the physical education department. Miller graduated from Ohio Northern University and earned his master's degree from Bowling

WICOMICO GOLF STANDOUT
TO ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--Rose Marie Turner, golf standout at Wicomico Senior High School, will attend Methodist College this fall, according to Darci Wilson, Methodist College women's golf coach.

Turner, the only female to play on the Wicomico golf team in seven years, has consistently shot in the mid to high 80's all-season. She was named MVP of the Wicomico team her junior year.

In addition to golf, Turner also played basketball at Wicomico.

"Rose Marie is an outstanding golfer from Maryland who finished fourth in the state high school tournament this fall," says Coach Wilson. "She will be a very big contributor to our team next year."

Turner is the daughter of Mrs. Bobbie Ellis of Salisbury, Maryland.

Methodist College is a four-year private college of liberal arts and sciences located on a 600-acre campus bordering the Cape Fear River in Fayetteville, NC. Methodist is a member of NCAA Division III and the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.
