LINCOLNTON BASKETBALL STANDOUT TO ATTEND
METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--Lincolnton Senior High School basketball standout Alton Robinson will attend Methodist College this fall, according to Joe Miller, Methodist College men's basketball coach.

Robinson, 5'11" -- 170 lbs., was selected MVP of the Lincolnton squad for the 1984-85 season in addition to serving as team captain. Named to the All-Western Piedmont AAA Team, Robinson averaged 12.5 points, 3.8 assists, 3.2 rebounds, and 3.0 steals per game during his senior season.

In addition to playing basketball, Robinson participated in the cross country track program at Lincolnton Senior High.

"I am real happy that Alton will be attending this fall," says Coach Miller. "I am really looking forward to working with him in Methodist's basketball program."

Methodist College is a four-year private residential college of liberal arts and sciences located on a 600-acre campus bordering the Cape Fear River in Fayetteville, NC. Methodist is a member of NCAA Division III and the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

UNITED METHODISTS MEET AT METHODIST COLLEGE
FOR 1985 ANNUAL CONFERENCE SESSION

FAYETTEVILLE--United Methodist ministers and lay delegates from the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church are attending the 1985 Annual Conference Session at Methodist College which began on Monday, June 3.

Over 1500 official delegates will conduct the business of the Conference during the four-day session, including action on a proposed 20,000 square-foot expansion of the Methodist Building, approval of a $5.7 million budget, consideration of resolutions of social concerns, and acceptance of numerous reports and presentations.

Bishop C.P. Minnick Jr. will preside at the Annual Conference Session in this his first year as bishop of the North Carolina Conference.

Bill Hurley, mayor of Fayetteville, welcomed the delegates to the recently-selected All America City and challenged them to support efforts of the North Carolina General Assembly in tightening the laws governing pornography and obscenity in North Carolina.

"As Christians, let us show unified support in the movement to eliminate the exposure to pornography and obscenity in North Carolina," said Hurley, himself a lay leader in the United Methodist Church.

RURAL RETREAT BASKETBALL STANDOUT
TO ATTEND METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE--Sandy Catron, basketball standout at Rural Retreat High School, will attend Methodist College this fall, according to Darci Wilson, Methodist College women's basketball coach.

Catron, 5'11" -- 152 lbs., averaged 28 points and 16 rebounds per game during the 1984-85 season. Selected to the Virginia All-Star West Team, Catron was named Wythe County Player of the Year 1983-84 and 1984-85. The first female basketball player at Rural Retreat to score over 1000 and then 2000 points, Catron has a career total of 2,059 points. She is ranked fifth in Virginia female basketball scoring history and fourth in rebounding history with a career total of 1,132 rebounds.

In addition, Catron has been named All District four times, All-Synth County four times, All-Region two times, and to the First Team All-Roanoke Times 1985.

"She has the potential to turn the Methodist College women's basketball program around," says Coach Wilson. "With Sandy's abilities, the possibility of winning a DIAC championship exists."

Catron is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garland L. Catron of Wytheville, VA.
