METHODIST AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- Methodist College recently awarded $437,000 in scholarships for the 1987-88 academic year.

Twenty-five students won scholarships as a result of their performance at Methodist's weekend scholarship competitions. Lisa Johnson of Fayetteville and Dawn Fountain of Sorrento, Fla. were awarded Presidential Scholarships worth $5,700 each. Twenty-three other competitors were offered scholarships in varying amounts from $750-$2,000.

The college has launched a new Honors Scholarship Program for 1987-88 designed to attract top high school seniors. Under this program, a student who ranks in the top 15 percent of his high school class and scores at least 1,100 on the SAT or 26 on the ACT will qualify for a $5,700 (full tuition) scholarship.

A student in the top 15 percent of his class with an SAT score of 1,200 or an ACT score of 27 will qualify for free tuition and room worth a total of $6,650. His net cost to attend Methodist next year would be $1,700. A student ranked in the top 15 percent of his class with an SAT score of 1,000 or ACT score of 22-24 will qualify for a scholarship award of $4,275--three-fourths tuition.

"Our intent is to upgrade the academic program by attracting more of the better students," said Director of Admissions Fiore Bergamasco. "We are discontinuing the weekend scholarship competitions and will base future scholarship awards solely on class rank and SAT scores."

Honors Scholarship recipients must be fulltime resident students and must maintain a 3.0 (B) average each academic year to retain their scholarships. Methodist will continue to offer Incentive Scholarships, worth $550-$4,700 annually, to students ranked in the top 25 percent of their high school class with combined SAT scores of 800 or better. Scaled in value according to SAT scores and class rank, these scholarships are offered to both residential and commuting students.

In addition to Honors and Incentive Scholarships, Methodist College offers Transfer Scholarships (to those transferring from two-year institutions with a 3.2 grade point average or better), Greatest Gift Scholarships (one-fourth or one-eighth tuition to those recommended by MC alumni), General Scholarships (based primarily on need), Music Performance Scholarships, Military Achievement Scholarships, and Drama Scholarships.

To North Carolina residents and active duty military personnel (and dependents) stationed here, Methodist offers N. C. Legislative Tuition Grants of $1,000 per year. Federal grants and loans and part-time employment are also available to individuals who need additional financial aid.

During 1986-87, Methodist College awarded $1,212,776 in scholarships. More than 500 fulltime day students received some type of financial aid.

METHODIST COLLEGE ANNOUNCES SUMMER OFFERINGS

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- Registration is now open for the summer semester at Methodist College. The college will offer 67 courses during the day and 48 courses through the Evening College.

Day courses will be offered during three different terms--Term I: May 11-June 4; Term II: June 15-July 2; and Term III: July 6-Aug. 14. Classes will meet every weekday during each term.

The Evening College program will offer 45 courses during Term I, May 4-June 27, and 38 courses during Term II, June 29-Aug. 22. Evening classes meet either Monday, Wednesday, and Friday or Tuesday and Thursday of each week.

Included in the day offerings are a wide range of beginning and advanced courses from 24 different subject areas. Evening College offerings run the gamut from computer science to photography, representing 18 subject areas.

Persons interested in taking one or more day courses this summer may register from now until the first day of classes. Summer schedules and registration forms are available in the Registrar's Office in the Horner Administration Building and will be mailed upon request.

The registration periods for Evening College courses are April 13-May 1 for Term I and June 15-June 26 for Term II. Registration for evening courses can be handled both at the college and at Methodist's Fort Bragg office, Room 305, Building 2-1728.

Tuition is $105 per semester hour for day courses and $50 per semester hour for evening courses. Tuition is free for senior citizens age 65 and older.

WINNERS OF COLLEGE SPEECH CONTEST

TO COMPETE ON NATIONAL LEVEL

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- Donald Grimsley, Tracy Thorp, Dan Short, and Donna Conway were the winners in the first annual Methodist College Speech Contest held recently.

A panel of faculty judges awarded Grimsley First Place for a speech entitled "Good Citizenship." Tracy Thorp was second with "Crack," while Short finished third with "Support America." Conway earned fourth place with a speech entitled "Grizzly Bears."

Grimsley and Short are stationed at Fort Bragg and reside in Fayetteville and Spring Lake respectively. Conway lives in Spring Lake, while Thorp is a resident student from Grampion, Pa.

All the speeches were forwarded to the 1987 Challenge Award national contest.

DUKE PROFESSORS TO LECTURE ON CENTRAL AMERICA
DURING PUBLIC FORUM AT METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- Two Duke University professors will lecture on United States policy toward Central America and Nicaragua Wednesday, April 15 during a public forum at Methodist College.

History Professor Irving B. Holley will discuss the Reagan Administration's Central American policies, with particular emphasis on Nicaragua. Political Science Professor Timothy Lomperis will present views in opposition to the administration.

Wednesday's forum will get under way at 6 p.m. with a reception in the Student Union. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. in Dining Room No. 3. Professor Holley will speak at 7:30 p.m. and Professor Lomperis will speak at 8 p.m. A 30-minute question and answer session will follow at 8:30, moderated by Dr. Gibson Gray of Pembroke State University.

The cost for the forum is $6.50 per person. Persons desiring to attend should make checks payable to NCSCIE and mail them to Bruce Pulliam, Dept. of History, Methodist College.

The forum is being sponsored by the N. C. Southeastern Consortium for International Education, made up of St. Andrews Presbyterian College, Methodist College, Fayetteville State University, and Pembroke State University.

INVESTMENT SYMPOSIUM SLATED AT METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- The Center for Entrepreneurship at Methodist College will sponsor an Investment Symposium Wednesday evening, April 29, featuring two analysts from Interstate Securities.

Ricky Harrington and James Morgan will speak on "Opportunities in the Stock Market, 1987." Harrington writes a daily technical letter and a monthly technical report. Jim Morgan is Director of Investment Policy for Interstate.

In addition to the lectures by Harrington and Morgan, the symposium will include a reception at 7 p.m., a banquet at 7:30 p.m., and the initiation of a new member of the "Silver Spoon Club." The lectures, followed by a question-answer period, will last from 8:15-9 p.m. and will be held in the college cafeteria.

Persons interested in attending the symposium may register in advance by sending a check for $10 to Dr. Sid Gautam, director of the Center for Entrepreneurship at Methodist College.

METHODIST COLLEGE CHORUS TO GIVE CONCERT

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- The Methodist College Chorus will present its spring concert Wednesday, April 22 at 8 p.m. in Reeves Auditorium.

Director Alan Porter has assembled a program of both sacred and secular works, including Haydn's "Missa Brevis," Mendelssohn's "Psalm 115," "Just a Closer Walk With Thee," "The Rhythm of Life," and a medley from "West Side Story."

The "Missa Brevis," better known as the "Little Organ Mass," will feature soprano soloist Betty Neil Parsons, with organ and string orchestra accompaniment. A 1964 graduate of Methodist, Mrs. Parsons is choral director at Cape Fear High School.

Performing with the chorus will be the mixed ensemble "Rainbow's End" and the barbershop quartet. Jane Weeks Townsend, piano instructor at Methodist, will accompany the chorus and the ensemble.

The Methodist College Chorus is a select group of 26 musicians, chosen by audition. During a Feb. 28-Mar. 6 concert tour of Florida and Nassau, the chorus sang for more than 2,500 people.

There is no admission charge for the spring concert.

METHODIST NAMES NEW BASKETBALL COACH

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- Methodist College President M. Elton Hendricks has appointed Dan Lawrence head basketball coach and assistant golf coach at the college, effective April 13.

During the last four years, Lawrence coached the women's softball and volleyball teams at Methodist. In 1980-81 and 1981-82, he coached the college's junior varsity basketball team and assisted varsity basketball coach Joe Miller.

Under Lawrence's direction, the women's softball teams at Methodist have amassed a record of 118 wins and 67 losses. The team won the Dixie Conference championship in 1985 and finished second in 1986. Methodist's volleyball teams achieved an overall record of 103-62 under Lawrence. The 1986 team won the Dixie Conference championship.

"We're very confident that Dan has the ability and energy necessary to build a winning program," said Athletic Director Tom Austin. "He's proven that he can recruit athletes to Methodist College and he has built the fast-pitch softball program into a nationally ranked program."

Lawrence graduated from Methodist in December, 1981, with a B.S. degree in physical education. He received an M.Ed. degree from Campbell University in 1983.

"I want our men's basketball program to be as successful on the conference and national levels as the two I'm leaving," said Lawrence. "Realistically, it may not happen in the next year."

Lawrence said he told his volleyball and softball players about his new job Tuesday and plans to meet with Methodist's basketball team Friday. He said he wants to retain the nucleus of the 1986-87 basketball team and recruit some new players to augment that group.

Methodist's new basketball coach said he actively sought the position after Joe Miller resigned in March. Lawrence said he did not play basketball in high school or college, but did play during his nine years in the Army.

Coach Miller resigned as Methodist's basketball coach, after his team won only two games this season and lost 23. He will continue in the position of associate professor of physical education and chairman of the department. Miller's record in 12 seasons as basketball coach at Methodist was 99 wins versus 201 losses.

Methodist's fourth basketball coach is a native of Manassas, Va. and served nine years in the U. S. Army. He is 34, married, and lives in Fayetteville with his wife Cathy and their two children.

THEATRE DEPARTMENT TO PRESENT ONE-ACT PLAY

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- The Theatre Department at Methodist College will present Eugene O'Neill's one-act play "Hughie" Monday, April 27 in Reeves Auditorium.

The 50-minute production involves two cast members, both of whom are assigned to Fort Bragg. Charles Passacantando, a fulltime student finishing his associate's degree in theatre, will appear as Eric Smith, a traveling salesman who is constantly spinning tales about his travels.

Michael Bonner, the second cast member, was a fulltime student at Methodist last term and appeared in numerous productions. In "Hughie" he will play a night desk clerk in the lobby of a New York hotel.

Three performances will be held--at 10 a.m., 2 p.m., and 8 p.m. There is no admission for the play.
