METHODIST OPENS BRANCH AT POPE AIR FORCE BASE

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- Methodist College opened a branch office at Pope Air Force Base June 1. Methodist will begin offering courses at the base Aug. 10.

Mary Underwood, the new director of Methodist's Evening College, will double as site director at Pope until the extension program enrolls 75 students, at which time a full-time site director will be employed.

For the last three years, Ms. Underwood directed a junior college extension program at Pope for Central Texas College. A Charlotte native, she holds a bachelor's degree in English from UNC-Charlotte and a master's degree in English education from Auburn University.

Methodist's Pope branch will follow the "accelerated semester" schedule, in which a semester's work is compressed into a single nine-week term. The college will initially offer at Pope all the classes needed to earn bachelor's degrees in psychology and business.

Fourteen classes will be offered during Term I (August-October, 1987) at the Pope Education Center. The lineup includes beginning courses in business, psychology, history, religion, math, and accounting. Classes will be offered during lunch hours Monday-Friday, at night (either in Monday-Wednesday or Tuesday-Thursday combinations) and on Saturday mornings.

"We will offer complete student services at Pope," said Ms. Underwood, "to include counseling, registration, and textbooks. We are pleased to have this opportunity to serve the military community at Pope."

The Pope AFB branch of Methodist College is located in Room 218, Building 308, Academy Street. The office hours are 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Monday-Friday. The phone number is 436-3495.

Methodist is the only four-year liberal arts college authorized to offer classes at Pope. The college has offered classes at Fort Bragg for more than 10 years.

METHODIST ANNOUNCES ELDERHOSTEL CLASSES

FAYETTEVILLE, NC-- Methodist College will offer three courses Sept. 20-26 as part of the North Carolina Elderhostel program.

Elderhostel is a national educational program for adults over 60. Participants spend a week on a college campus, taking three different mini-courses.

Methodist will offer the following courses: "Psychology: The Science of Everyday Life," taught by Dr. Ted Jaeger; "Communal Societies Past and Present," taught by Dr. John Sill; and "Local Flora Along the Upper Cape Fear," taught by Dr. Linda Sue Barnes.

The psychology and sociology courses will be taught in the morning. The biology course will meet in the afternoon and will utilize slides, lectures, and visits to the Pauline Longest Nature Trail.

Methodist is one of 19 colleges and universities participating in North Carolina Elderhostel. Walt Swing is serving as project director.

The cost for the program, which includes on-campus housing and meals, tours, receptions and cookouts, and special entertainment, is $215 per person. A limited number of commuting participants will be accepted at a cost of $100 each, which includes only the noon meals.

Those interested in attending Methodist's Elderhostel should phone Walt Swing or Mrs. Elaine Porter at 488-7110 for a registration form. Participants must enroll through the national Elderhostel office at 80 Boylston Street, Suite 400, Boston, MA 02116.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JUNE 19, 1987

FREE CONCERTS SLATED AT METHODIST

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- Methodist College will showcase the musical talents of both amateurs and professionals in four free concerts June 29-July 3.

Slated as part of the Piano and Choral Music Camp, the concerts will feature guest artists Joan Miller and Angela Cheng and summer camp participants ages 12-18. The concerts will be held in Reeves Auditorium.

Soprano Joan Stoltz Miller, a guest artist for the camp, will appear in concert Monday, June 29 at 8:15 p.m. A Sanford native and honors graduate of UNC-Greensboro, Ms. Miller has sung professionally for more than 10 years. She has performed in operas, oratorios, and recitals throughout the state and appeared as guest soloist with the Yale Symphony Orchestra in 1976.

Pianist Angela Cheng will appear in concert Wednesday, July 1 at 8:15 p.m. A native of Hong Kong, Miss Cheng is a doctoral student at Indiana University. The highly acclaimed artist has performed throughout the United States and Canada and has appeared with symphony orchestras from Montreal to Turin, Italy. She has won first prize in 13 major piano competitions over the last seven years.

Music campers--both pianists and vocalists--will present a talent show Thursday, July 2 at 8:15 p.m. A choral concert by camp participants is slated for 10:30 a.m. Friday, July 3.

Receptions for the guest artists will be held immediately following their performances.

NEWSCASTER, PUBLISHER ELECTED TO METHODIST COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- A television newscaster and a newspaper publisher are among five new members of the Methodist College Board of Trustees.

Elected to the board recently were: Raleigh newscaster Charlie Gaddy, Whiteville newspaper publisher James C. High, Fayetteville contractor Joseph M. Hatcher, Sr., and textile executives James Bennett Noe of Wilmington and Harrison H. Williamson of Fayetteville.

The new trustees were elected at the recent annual session of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, after being nominated by the current board. They will attend their first regular board meeting Oct. 8. Their election brings the board membership to 36, the maximum number allowed under the college charter and by-laws.

Charlie Gaddy, 55, is the evening news anchorman for WRAL-TV in Raleigh. The Roxboro native is a graduate of Guilford College, a U. S. Army veteran, and the recipient of numerous press and community service awards. He attends Edenton Street United Methodist Church and has served on the administrative board there.

James C. High, 54, is the publisher of The News Reporter, a semi-weekly newspaper in Whiteville. He is a graduate of UNC at Chapel Hill and has served as president of the North Carolina Press Association, the Whiteville Chamber of Commerce, and the Southeastern Community College Foundation. An Army veteran, he currently serves on the United Carolina Bank Board of Directors and on the board of the Journalism Foundation of North Carolina.

Harrison H. Williamson, 54, is co-owner of Holt-Williamson Manufacturing Co. of Fayetteville. The Greensboro native holds a B.S. degree from Davidson College. His civic activities have included work on behalf of the Cumberland County Sheltered Workshop and service as an elder at First Presbyterian Church in Fayetteville.

James Bennett Noe, 45, is chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Dorothy's Ruffled Originals in Wilmington. A native of Paint Lick, Kentucky, he holds degrees from the University of Kentucky and Vanderbilt University. He is active in the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce and is a deacon and Sunday school teacher at College Acres Baptist Church.

Joseph M. Hatcher, Sr., 53, is chairman of the board of Hatcher Construction Co. of Fayetteville. He is a licensed general contractor and real estate broker and a graduate of North Carolina State University. The retired Air Force captain is past president of the Fayetteville Kiwanis Club, past chairman of the Cumberland County Heart Association, and past chairman of the administrative board at Haymount United Methodist Church.

The terms of the new board members will vary, depending on the slot each person is filling. Charlie Gaddy and James High were elected to four-year terms and will join seven other trustees in the Class of 1991.

James Noe and Harrison H. Williamson were elected to two-year terms and will serve in the Class of 1989.

Hatcher joins the Class of 1988.

Current trustees reappointed to four-year terms in the Class of 1991 include: the Rev. William H. Gattis, Mrs. Maria Minges, W. Daniel Pate, Louis Spilman, Jr., R. Dillard Teer, Mrs. Terri Union, and the Rev. Herman S. Winberry.

The officers of the Methodist College Board of Trustees for 1987-88 are: I. H. O'Hanlon, chairman; R. Dillard Teer, vice-chairman; Walter Clark, secretary; and Louis Spilman, Jr., treasurer.

STATE CHAMPION RUNNER TO ATTEND METHODIST

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- Cross country standout Jessica Lynn Trippett, daughter of Shirley and Arwin Trippett of Rt. 9, Box 2366, Parkersburg, West Virginia, will be attending Methodist College in Fayetteville, N. C. this fall.

The Parkersburg High School senior is a two-time state champion in cross country. At Methodist, she will join at least 10 other freshman recruits on the women's track and cross country teams.

"I'm very happy to have her," said Methodist Track and Cross Country Coach Jeff DeGraw. "She is a hard worker and I feel she will be very successful at Methodist. With our other new recruits, including a state champion from Vermont, we have an excellent chance of going to the national meet in cross country."

Methodist College is an NCAA Division III member and competes in the Dixie Conference. Last year the four-year liberal arts college produced two All-Americans in women's soccer and its women's golf team won the National Golf Coaches Association women's championship.
