METHODIST COLLEGE RECEIVES $250,000 ENDOWMENT GRANT

FAYETTEVILLE, NC--Methodist College has received a $250,000 Title III Endowment Grant from the U.S. Dept. of Education.

Under the terms of the award, the college had to match the grant with an equal amount. The money must be held in the endowment fund for 20 years. Methodist can spend up to one-half of the income earned annually from the investment. At the end of 20 years, the college may use the entire principal.

College President Elton Hendricks said income earned from the grant will be used as general support for the fledgling Reeves School of Business. He said the grant will generate approximately $25,000 annually, which can be used "to make a good school even better."

The stated purpose of the federal Title III Institutional Aid Endowment Grant Program is "to help eligible colleges and universities to solve problems that threaten their ability to survive and to stabilize their management and fiscal operations so that they may achieve self-sufficiency."

MORAVIAN LOVE FEASTS SLATED AT METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE, NC--Methodist College will celebrate Christmas with two Moravian Love Feasts Sunday, Dec. 6 in Hensdale Chapel. Both the 6 p.m. and 8:15 p.m. services are open to the general public.

The Rev. Philip Baugess '72, pastor of Covenant Moravian Church in Wilmington, will be the worship leader. Paul Tamblyn of Fayetteville will play the organ and Tammy Hightower Edens of Mebane will sing "Morning Star."

The traditional Moravian Love Feast celebrates the birth of Christ through scripture reading and prayer, the singing of hymns, the lighting of candles, and the serving of Moravian bread and tea.

Admission to each Love Feast is by ticket only. Tickets are free upon request. Persons desiring tickets should send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Rev. William Green, Methodist College, 5400 Ramsey St., Fayetteville, NC 28301 by Dec. 1, specifying which service--6 p.m. or 8:15 p.m.--they wish to attend.

ALLISON, REAVES WILL DISCUSS ECONOMIC OUTLOOK FOR 1988

FAYETTEVILLE, NC--John A. Allison, IV, president of Branch Banking & Trust Co., will deliver the "Outlook for 1988" address at the annual Economic Outlook Symposium Thursday, Dec. 3 at Methodist College.

Prospects for continued growth in the American economy have dimmed in the face of recent sharp declines in the U.S. and foreign stock exchanges and uncertainty over whether the U.S. Congress and the Reagan Administration can agree on actions to reduce the federal budget and trade deficits.

"The twin deficits--budget and trade--are endangering the health of the stock market," noted Dr. Sid Gautam, economics professor at Methodist. "The U.S. markets directly affect global markets. It is of utmost importance that we carefully examine the economic outlook for 1988," he added.

Sponsored jointly by Methodist College, the Fayetteville Area Chamber of Commerce, and the N.C. Small Business and Technology Development Center, the Economic Outlook Symposium will begin with a reception at 7 p.m. in the college cafeteria on the lower level of the Student Union. The banquet will begin at 7:30 p.m., followed by the formal program at 8.

H. D. "Cobby" Reaves, Jr., executive vice-president and managing officer of Home Federal Savings and Loan Association of Fayetteville, will deliver the "Outlook for Cumberland County" address. Reaves is currently serving as president of the Fayetteville Area Chamber of Commerce.

Methodist College will recognize outstanding individual achievements during 1987 by presenting awards to: the Entrepreneur of the Year, the Outstanding Business Student (Wall Street Journal Award), the Economics and Business Alumnus of the Year, and the Business Person of the Year (a new award).

Last year's award recipients were: Albert O. McCauley, Entrepreneur of the Year; Harvey T. Wright, Alumnus of the Year; and Richard T. Dail, Wall Street Journal Award.

Tickets for the symposium and banquet are $12 per person. Reservations can be made with Dr. Sid Gautam, director of the Center for Entrepreneurship, Methodist College, 5400 Ramsey St., Fayetteville, NC 28301, (919) 488-7110, Ext. 308.
