METHODIST COLLEGE AWARDS 100 DEGREES AT 16TH WINTER COMMENCEMENT

FAYETTEVILLE, NC--Methodist College awarded 100 degrees to 96 persons at its 16th winter commencement Dec. 15.

John G. Dicks III, a lawyer and legislator from Chesterfield, VA, urged members of the graduating class to cherish the values and friendships acquired at Methodist and to accept fully the responsibilities of citizenship. Dicks is a 1973 graduate of Methodist and a member of the Virginia House of Delegates.

"America's challenges are too great and too complex and too compelling for any of us to say 'It's someone else's responsibility,'" he stated. "As graduates of this exceptional institution, you're well equipped. For the cause of peace, for the success of commerce, and for the future of democracy, the implications are astronomical. The challenge is yours. Meet it head on and you will succeed."

Dicks spoke highly of his alma mater, noting that his success in law school and in the Virginia legislature was due largely to what he had learned at Methodist. "This exceptional institution transforms promise into leadership," he said.

Dr. M. Elton Hendricks, president of Methodist College, awarded Dicks a Methodist College Medallion for his service to the college, his native state, and his fellow man.

Sheri Lee Weeks, a music education major from Corvallis, OR, graduated first in the winter class with a perfect 4.0 average.

Jimmy Espinoza, a graduating senior from Arlington, VA, presented Dr. Hendricks with the flag of his native Ecuador, continuing a tradition for international students begun in May, 1985. Methodist has now received the flags of 19 foreign countries and these are carried in all academic processions.

METHODIST COLLEGE CHEERLEADERS TO COMPETE IN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

FAYETTEVILLE, NC--The varsity cheerleaders from Methodist College will compete in the 1989 National Cheerleaders Association National Collegiate and Pom Pon Championship Jan. 7 in Dallas, Texas.

The Methodist squad was invited to participate after winning the Award of Excellence in the fight song competition at NCA's summer cheerleading camp. The Monarchs will compete in Division II, against squads from 17 other small colleges and universities. They will perform a three-and-a-half minute routine created and choreographed by Rickey Hill, a junior from Mount Holly, NC.

In the 1988 NCA Championship, the Methodist cheerleaders finished fourth among the nine squads competing in Division II. Nine members of that team will be returning for the 1989 competition.

Tricia Turner, Director of Student Affairs Programming and Cheerleading at Methodist, is the coach of the 16-member squad. She was captain of the Methodist cheerleaders from 1979-82. "I'm very excited and optimistic about our chances," said Ms. Turner. "We're stronger in gymnastics and teamwork than we were last year."
