SENATOR TERRY SANFORD TO ADDRESS METHODIST'S 26TH GRADUATING CLASS

FAYETTEVILLE, NC--U.S. Senator Terry Sanford will deliver the commencement address at Methodist College Sunday, May 7. The college's 26th spring commencement will be held at 2 p.m. in Reeves Auditorium.

Senator Sanford served as the first chairman of the board of trustees at Methodist and still serves on the board. He will be joining members of the first graduating class - the Class of 1964 - for a 25th anniversary reunion. Members of that class will attend a luncheon and march with the newest graduates. Betty Neill Guy Parsons '64, choral music teacher at Cape Fear High School, will sing a soprano solo during the commencement program.

Vice President for Academic Affairs Lynn V. Sadler projects that Methodist will award 148 degrees to 140 members of the Class of 1989. The college will also award three honorary degrees - the Doctor of Humanities degrees to Fayetteville residents I. H. (Ike) O'Hanlon and Lura Tally and the Doctor of Divinity degree to the Rev. Charles Michael Smith, pastor of Highland United Methodist Church in Raleigh.

Rev. Smith will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at 10:30 a.m. Sunday in Reeves Auditorium.
