METHODIST COLLEGE SELECTED FOR THE SEARS-ROEBUCK FOUNDATION TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARD PROGRAM

FAYETTEVILLE, NC--Methodist College has been selected to participate in The Sears-Roebuck Foundation's 1989-90 "Teaching Excellence and Campus Leadership Award Program."

"At Methodist College, our primary emphasis is on quality teaching with the student as our central focus," said Methodist College President M. Elton Hendricks. "We are especially pleased that The Sears-Roebuck Foundation has expanded its long-standing partnership with independent higher education through this new teacher recognition program."

The awards to more than 700 of the nation's leading private liberal arts colleges and universities will recognize top educators on each campus for their resourcefulness and leadership. Each winning faculty member will receive $1,000 and the institution will receive a grant ranging from $500 to $1,500 based on student enrollment. Institutional grants can be used to encourage campus leadership, faculty enrichment and improved teaching. Winners will be selected by independent committees on each campus.

The program is administered nationally by the Stamford, Connecticut-based Foundation for Independent Higher Education and locally (or regionally) by Hilburn Womble, president of the Independent College Fund of North Carolina.

"We salute Sears in recognizing one of society's most fundamental needs, excellence in teaching," said John P. Blessington, president of the Foundation for
