AIR FORCE GENERAL URGES GRADUATING SENIORS AT METHODIST COLLEGE TO RECLAIM THE AMERICAN DREAM

FAYETTEVILLE, NC -- Americans must rediscover moral values if the American dream is to survive.

Speaking to 144 graduating seniors at Methodist College May 17, Air Force Brigadier General John W. Handy said the recent decline in moral values in America is the result of "value-free self-indulgence."

He said violence in the streets, political scandals, alcohol and drug abuse among youth, and the rising incidence of AIDS are incompatible with the "new order" envisioned by America's founding fathers. He said that new order was established through faith in the constitution, in the personal integrity of each citizen, and in God.

Gen. Handy called on the graduating seniors to reclaim the American dream of democracy, peace, and individual freedom by: 1) defending the idea of liberty, 2) maintaining personal integrity, and 3) claiming a new beginning. "Rebuilding of moral values must occur first in our hearts," he said.

During the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning, the Rev. Kermit Braswell challenged members of the Class of '92 to be faithful to God and themselves by learning from the past, living each day to the fullest, and setting goals for the future.

College President Elton Hendricks presented the following honorary degrees: Doctor of Humanities to General Handy; and Doctor of Divinity to the Rev. Kermit Braswell, and Bishop C.P. Minnick, leaders in the North Carolina Conference of the

United Methodist Church.

Three international students presented the college with flags of their native countries: Tasanee Boonnee Davis- Thailand, Annette G. Dunford- Denmark, and David Holmes- Great Britain.

Nine ROTC graduates took the Oath of Allegiance and were commissioned second lieutenants in the U.S. Army. They are: Brian M. Allin, Steve A. Deschamps, Walter M. Dixon, David J. Leach, Wesley F. MacMullen, Paul B. Mann, Curtis R. Pollock, Larry J. Waller, JoAnn Weary.

Katherine Grasso, a psychology and social work major from Fayetteville, was named recipient of the Lucius Stacy Weaver Award, denoting her selection by the faculty as the senior who best exemplified academic excellence, spritual development, leadership, and service. Ms. Grasso graduated summa cum laude last December.

Members of the Class of '92 dedicated a time capsule immediatedly following the baccalaureate. The capsule was buried beneath the bell tower and will be reopened at Homecoming in 2007.

(A list of graduates is attached.)
