METHODIST COLLEGE BOARD OF VISITORS WELCOMES NEW MEMBERS

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—Harvey T. Wright II, chairman of the Methodist College Board of Visitors, has announced the appointment of 13 new members, subject to approval by the board of trustees.

The following will serve four-year terms on the 60-member board: Johnny Bryant, George Council, Russell Davenport, William Harrison, Marriana Hollinshed, Bill Hurley, Larry Ingram, Dr. Paul Johnson, Susan McMillan, Tom Miriello, Dena Potter, Lee Warren, and Jerry Wood. The new members were selected because of their success in their business or profession. All but two reside in Fayetteville; George Council is from White Oak and William Harrison is from Raeford.

"I want this board to take an active role in helping Methodist College grow and attain new levels of excellence," said Mr. Wright. "These new members are great additions to the board."

The Methodist College Board of Visitors meets twice a year—in the spring and the fall—to offer advice and new ideas for helping the college meet its mission. For the current year, the board has been divided into three subcommittees to develop plans for: 1) enhancing the public image of the college, 2) developing methods to improve recruitment and retention of students, and 3) exploring new ways to generate additional resources for the college.

The board officers for 1993 are: Harvey Wright II, chairman; David McCune, vice chairman; and Jerry Keen, secretary.
