Public Relations Director

MICHAEL HOGAN NAMED DIRECTOR OF SPORTS INFORMATION AT METHODIST

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—Michael Hogan has been named Director of Sports Information and Assistant to the Athletic Director at Methodist College.

His main responsibilities will deal with the public relations and promotions of the Monarchs' Division III athletic program. Additional responsibilities will include game operations and community relations.

Mr. Hogan, a native of Albany, NY, comes to Methodist after serving one year as Assistant Sports Information Director at Siena College in Loudonville, NY. While at Siena, he was responsible for media relations of the football and women's basketball teams, as well as assisting with public relations for men's basketball and baseball.

Hogan also spent one year as the Assistant Director of Public Relations and Promotions with the Fayetteville Flyers of the now defunct Global Basketball Association.

He has done freelance work with the media relations staff of New York's Empire State Games as well as Saratoga Summer, a magazine on the thoroughbred industry in New York State.

A 1991 graduate of Mount Saint Mary College in Newburgh, NY, Mr. Hogan received his bachelor's degree in communication arts, with emphasis in media studies and public relations.

METHODIST COLLEGE OFFICIAL MAKES PRESENTATION AT UNITED METHODIST WORKSHOP

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—Reverend Bill Lowdermilk, vice president for church/community relations at Methodist College, was one of nine presenters at a recent United Methodist workshop on higher education and campus ministry.

Dr. Lowdermilk spoke about "Options for Church Relations Programs" to members of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Association for Higher Education and Campus Ministry July 10 at Lake Junaluska. Approximately 11 of 16 United Methodist conferences in the Southeast were represented at the annual meeting, which is designed to strengthen conference boards of higher education and campus ministry.

In his presentation, Dr. Lowdermilk discussed: the importance of having strong chairpersons of conference boards of higher education and campus ministry, joint efforts by colleges in the N.C. Conference to explain their mission to local churches, guest minister-in-residence programs at United Methodist colleges, and special outreach projects undertaken by Methodist College.

Dr. Lowdermilk said workshops like the one held at Lake Junaluska generate new ideas for strengthening the relationship between the United Methodist Church and its colleges. "It was a wonderful experience," he said. "I was impressed by the commitment of the participants to carry out John Wesley's 'uniting of knowledge and vital piety.' I feel Don Shockley (assistant general secretary, Campus Ministry Section, Division of Higher Education) and Jim Noseworthy (director of Annual Conference Relations and Public Policy Programs, Division of Higher Education) are providing significant leadership in this area."

SUMMER BROCK NAMED DIRECTOR OF ALUMNI AFFAIRS AT METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—Summer E. Brock has joined the Methodist College administrative staff as Director of Alumni Affairs and Executive Director of the Methodist College Foundation.

Ms. Brock comes to Methodist from a similar position at St. Andrews Presbyterian College in Laurinburg. The Durham native holds a bachelor's degree in theatre from St. Andrews and a master's in speech/communications from UNC-Greensboro.

During her five years at St. Andrews, alumni participation in the Annual Fund increased from 16.5 percent in 1988 to 30 percent in 1993. She directed a team of alumni which raised $2 million in 1990-91 for St. Andrews' $12 million capital campaign. Ms. Brock also restructured Alumni Affairs to incorporate alumni from Flora MacDonald College and Presbyterian Junior College into the St. Andrews family.

Before joining the development staff at St. Andrews, Summer Brock was a manager for IT'S Inc. (a clothing store chain) in Lexington, KY, Charlotte, and Savannah. She was also assistant executive director of the Fayette Medical Society (Lexington, KY) for two years.

Ms. Brock has a special interest in theatre — set design, lighting and directing. She has taught theatre courses at St. Andrews and served as board chairman of Encore Community Theatre in Laurinburg. She is currently directing an Encore production of Cabaret.

METHODIST COLLEGE SEEKS YOUNG PERFORMERS FOR SHAKESPEAREAN COMEDY

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—The Methodist College Theatre Department will hold auditions for the Shakespearean comedy A Midsummer Night's Dream, Monday evening, Aug. 31 in Reeves Auditorium.

Three categories of youthful performers are needed to portray Puck ("a knavish hobgoblin") and other attendants to Oberon and Titania (king and queen of the sprites). The sprites are important to the comedy that results when Puck's matchmaking efforts go awry.

Auditions for female modern dancers ages 8 - 12 will be held from 5 - 6 p.m. Audition for male gymnasts ages 8 - 12 will be held from 6 - 7 p.m. Dancers and gymnasts should prepare a one-minute routine for the auditions.

For the major role of Puck, the director is seeking a male actor, 8 - 12 years of age. This person should prepare lines 430 to the end of Act V, Scene 1. For a copy of the script and other information, phone Dr. Peyrouse at 630-7104.

Methodist's Monarch Playmakers will stage A Midsummer Night's Dream Oct. 7 - 10 in O'Hamlon Amphitheater. Dr. Jack Peyrouse, professor of theatre and speech, will direct the play.

METHODIST STUDENT SELECTED FOR FELLOWS PROGRAM

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—Delana Dale Epps, a sophomore at Methodist College, has been selected as a Fellow in the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators' Minority Undergraduate Fellows Program.

Delana Epps is a sociology major from Fayetteville and a 1988 graduate of Terry Sanford High School. She is the daughter of Barbara L. Curry.

Mr. Michael Safley, vice president of student affairs at Methodist, will serve as Miss Epps' mentor during the two-year pre-professional program. The purpose of the program is to increase the number of minorities in student affairs and higher education.

"Delana has done an outstanding job as a resident advisor here and is interested in working in student affairs", said Mr. Safley. "She certainly has the talents and ability to be effective in this area."

Under Mr. Safley's direction, Miss Epps will take part in campus-based experiences related to student affairs, attend a leadership institute, and take part in an eight-week paid summer internship.

METHODIST COLLEGE OPENS WITH 1,618 STUDENTS

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—Methodist College began its 34th academic year by enrolling a record 1,618 students, 12 percent more than last fall's opening figure of 1,437.

A total of 1,116 students enrolled in the regular day program. An additional 502 students enrolled in evening classes. Evening classes began August 9 and day classes started August 24.

The college opened the fall semester with 610 resident students, the largest number in 26 years. Two apartment buildings were converted into residence halls to handle an overflow from the college's four permanent residence halls. Residential enrollment increased 11 percent over last fall's 548.

"The opening of school is especially exciting this year, with our second consecutive record enrollment," said Dr. Elton Hendricks, college president. "Our many traditional and non-traditional students come from 48 states and 17 foreign countries. It is a joy to work with them."

Methodist enrolled 528 new students (312 freshmen and 216 transfers) and 588 returning students in the regular day program. Day enrollment increased 3.8 percent over Fall '92's opening figure of 1,072.

The Evening College enrollment of 502 represents a 37.5 percent increase over last fall's opening figure of 365.

MIME ARTIST TO PERFORM SEPTEMBER 12

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—Jacquie Walker Mishoe, a pantomime artist from Charlotte, will present a show entitled "Fools Rush In" September 12 at Methodist College. The performance will be held at 7 p.m. in Reeves Auditorium.

Ms. Mishoe has studied modern dance and ballet, pantomime, circus skills, and acting. Her performances combine dance, mime, circus skills, and storytelling.

She holds a bachelor's degree in theatre from the University of South Florida and a master's in theology and the arts from the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, California.

Tickets for the Jacquie Mishoe performance are $4 for adults and $2 for children. United Methodist Youth Fellowship (UMYF) groups will be admitted free.
