METHODIST COLLEGE TO OFFER LOVE FEASTS

FAYETTEVILLE, NC.—Methodist College will celebrate Christmas with two Moravian Love Feasts Sunday, December 4 in Hensdale Chapel. The public is invited to attend either the 6 P.M. or the ~~8:15 P.M.~~ ^{8 P.M.} service.

The traditional Moravian Love Feast celebrates the birth of Christ through scripture reading and prayer, the singing of hymns, the lighting of candles, and the serving of Moravian bread and coffee. The Love Feast has been an annual tradition at Methodist since 1974.

The Rev. Carrie Parrish, campus minister at Methodist College, will serve as worship leader. She will be assisted by student servers, a guest soloist, and a guest organist.

Admission to the Love Feast is by ticket only. Tickets are free and can be obtained by sending a request, along with a stamped, self addressed envelope to: Rev. Carrie Parrish, Methodist College, 5400 Ramsey Street, Fayetteville, NC. 28311 by November 28. Persons requesting tickets should specify how many tickets they need and which service— the 6 P.M. or the ~~8:15~~ ⁸ P.M.— they wish to attend.

JEFF BAKER ART EXHIBIT OPENS NOVEMBER 28 AT METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C.—The senior art exhibition of Jeff Baker, a student at Methodist College, opens November 28 in the college's Mallet-Rogers House Art Gallery. An opening reception is planned for 7-9 p.m. The exhibition will also be open to the public November 29 - December 5 from 2-4 p.m.

Baker is noted for his whimsical sculptures of animals acting as humans—a Florida gator shooting pool, for example.

His work was displayed along with that of three other Methodist College students earlier this fall at The Arts Center in downtown Fayetteville.

METHODIST COLLEGE DEBATERS TAKE TOP HONORS AT JAMES MADISON UNIVERSITY

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C.—Julie Kahl and Billie Martin, two members of the Methodist College Debate Team, won the Novice Division of the James Madison University Invitational Debate Tournament November 4-6. Kahl and Martin defeated a team from the U.S. Naval Academy to win the division title.

Three teams from Methodist competed in two divisions. All three teams received awards after qualifying for and advancing in the elimination rounds.

The tournament consisted of 78 teams representing 25 schools from 12 states, debating this year's national topic, "Resolved: That the federal government should substantially change rules and/or statutes governing criminal procedure in federal courts in one or more of the following areas: pretrial detention, sentencing."

In the Novice Division, the team of Billie Martin and Julie Kahl and the team of Liz Guzman and Ha Quach advanced to the elimination rounds. The team of Martin/Kahl completed the preliminary competition with a 5-1 record and Guzman/Quach compiled a 4-2 record. In the octofinal rounds they defeated Liberty University and the U.S. Naval Academy respectively to advance to quarterfinals.

In quarterfinals the Methodist teams were paired against each other and the team of Kahl/Martin was advanced, without debating, based on its preliminary record. In the semifinal debate, Kahl/Martin defeated a team from George Mason University on a 2-1 decision to advance to finals, where they defeated the top team from the U.S. Naval Academy on a 2-1 decision to win the tournament.

Debate Coach John E. Humphreys was extremely pleased with the results. "Our program is very new," he said. "This was the first time we have ever advanced more than one team in a tournament, our first junior varsity award, and of course, our first championship in a major tournament. Coming on the heels of last year's fifth place finish at nationals, I think it shows that the Methodist program is growing in both size and competitiveness."

In the junior varsity division, the team of Todd Lyden and Thomas Wooldridge completed the preliminary competition with a 4-2 win-loss record and qualified for the octofinal elimination round. In the elimination rounds they advanced to the quarterfinal round after defeating a team from Liberty University on a 2-1 decision. This was the first tournament in which Methodist College has advanced a team in the Junior Varsity Division.

MONARCH PLAYMAKERS TO PRESENT THE JACK TALES

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—The Monarch Playmakers of Methodist College will present The Jack Tales, four Blue Ridge Mountain folk tales, November 18-20 in Reeves Auditorium.

The Jack Tales will be staged November 18 and 19 at 7 p.m. and November 20 at 3 p.m. Admission is $5 for adults and $2 for children and senior citizens. Special matinees for school children are set for Nov. 17 at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m.; and Nov. 18 and 19 at 10 a.m. Phone 630-7483 for group reservations.

The Playmakers' annual show for children features folk tales brought to Virginia by European immigrants. The tales were collected and adapted for the stage by Professor Rex Stephenson, head of the Drama Department at Ferrum College. During the last decade, The Jack Tales have been performed before half a million people in 34 states and in England. In his stories, Jack meets a variety of characters—animals, giants, royalty, and a pretty girl—and learns some valuable lessons along the way.

The four tales the Monarch Playmakers will present are: "Jack Fear-No-Man," "Jack and the Robbers," "Foolish Jack," and "Jack and Ol' Greasy Beard." Jack will be played by Sam Williams, Jason Carter, Rob Devlin, and Stacie Cheers. Phoebe Hall is directing the production. The show will last approximately one hour.

METHODIST COLLEGE INSTRUCTOR HONORED BY USPTA

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C.—Dr. Theresa Warrell, director at professional tennis management and tennis coach at Methodist College, was recently named Tennis Professional of the Year by the North Carolina Chapter of the U.S. Professional Tennis Association.

The award was presented November 17 during an awards breakfast at the USPTA's Southern Division Convention in Pinehurst. Mr. Tom Daglis, president of the Southern Division, presented the award. Dr. Warrell was cited for her service to the tennis industry in the Fayetteville area and beyond.

Dr. Warrell joined the Methodist College faculty in 1992. In addition to coaching men's and woman's tennis and directing Methodist's professional tennis management program, Dr. Warrell holds the rank of assistant professor of business administration.

A native of Carlisle, Pennsylvania, Dr. Warrell holds M. Ed. and Ed. D. degrees from Temple University and a B.A. degree from Immaculata College.

METHODIST COLLEGE RECEIVES EHRENSBERGER AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATIONAL SERVICES TO U.S. ARMED FORCES

FAYETTEVILLE, NC--Methodist College has received the prestigious Ray Ehrensberger Institution of the Year Award, given by the Commission on Military Education for the American Association of Adult and Continuing Education.

Methodist was commended for "establishing and maintaining outstanding support for soldiers of the U.S. Army's XVIII ABN Corps and for Fort Bragg family members, civilian employees, and the total educational system of the United States armed forces." The award is named for the late Ray Ehrensberger, who as dean of continuing education at the University of Maryland, designed a worldwide network of educational services for military personnel.

Dr. Eldridge Starling, Education Services Officer at Fort Bragg, nominated Methodist College for the award, citing the college's high quality liberal arts program, friendly but business-like attitude toward military students, participation in the Army's Green to Gold officer training program, and the college's Albritton-Hurley Military Scholarship.

Dr. Starling presented the award to Dr. M. Elton Hendricks, college president, November 18, 1994. Dr. Hendricks expressed his appreciation to Dr. Starling and Mr. Ernest J. Morine, Operations Manager for Education Services at Fort Bragg's Army Education Center, and said Methodist's faculty and staff deserve most of the credit for the award.

Bobby Tuggle, director of Methodist's Fort Bragg office, said the Ray Ehrensberger Institution of the Year Award is a great honor for Methodist, "because we competed worldwide with colleges and universities offering educational services to the military." Mr. Tuggle and two other employees—Andy Edmundson and Christine Summers—staff Methodist's Fort Bragg office.

Methodist and the other nominees for the Ehrensberger Award were evaluated by a U. S. Department of Defense committee, using a variety of criteria: academic programs offered day and evening, financial assistance awarded to Dept. of Defense personnel (active duty and civilian), admission policies, academic counseling, campus security, compliance with all rules and regulations associated with Servicemembers Opportunity Colleges, college credit awarded to military personnel through the American Council on Education, student support facilities (i.e. library, bookstore, business office, registrar, computer labs), and continuity of support services.

Methodist generated over 1,500 student enrollments in 1993-94 among Fort Bragg personnel. Military students make up approximately half of Methodist's evening enrollment of 600 and approximately 8 percent of the regular day enrollment of 1,200.
