AMANDA H. WUNDER NAMED DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—Amanda H. Wunder has been named director of development at Methodist College, effective June 2.

A native of Columbia, South Carolina, Ms. Wunder holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of South Carolina. She was formerly employed as development assistant with the Hammond School, an independent preparatory school in Columbia.

In her new position, Ms. Wunder will serve as liaison with the Methodist College Foundation and coordinate its Annual Loyalty Fund Drive in the Fayetteville community. She will also assist with fund-raising aimed at other constituencies, particularly corporations and parents, during the final phase of the College's $6.5 million "Expanding the Vision" capital campaign.

"We are fortunate to have Mandy on our development team," said Jay Dowd, vice president for institutional advancement. "I believe she will work well with our current supporters, while helping us find and secure new gifts, as well."

METHODIST COLLEGE P.A. STUDENT AWARDED P.A.F. SCHOLARSHIP

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—Robin Suzanne Lincoln, a senior physician assistant student at Methodist College, was recently awarded a $2,000 Physician Assistant Foundation Scholarship. The scholarship was funded by Smith Kline Beecham.

Robin was one of 44 PA students awarded scholarships through the Physician Assistant Foundation's 1996-97 Annual Scholarship Program. A "straight-A" student at Methodist, she is the daughter of Clinton and Nancy Lincoln of Durham, N. C. She is one of four members of Methodist's first class of physician assistants and is slated to graduate in May 1998.

A six-member P.A.F. Scholarship Committee reviewed 337 applications, considering each applicant's financial need, academic record as a PA student, extra-curricular activities, and future goals as a physician assistant. Committee Chairman Jack Pike said the judging was extremely difficult because of the record number and high quality of the applications received this year.

"We are very proud of Robin," said Ron Foster, director of Methodist's physician assistant program. "She had an outstanding junior year and is very deserving of this honor."

METHODIST COLLEGE TRUSTEES ELECT NEW OFFICERS

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—Ramon L. Yarborough, president of Fayetteville Publishing Co., was recently elected chairman of the Methodist College Board of Trustees. Effective July 1, he will succeed Frank Barragan, Jr., who is retiring as chairman after five years' service.

Ramon Yarborough has been a trustee since 1991 and is currently serving as vice-chairman. He is the son of the late Wilson F. Yarborough, one of the original trustees of Methodist College, and he previously served on the College's board of visitors. A graduate of U.N.C. at Chapel Hill, he also serves on the board of trustees of the Independent College Fund of North Carolina. He and his family have been generous supporters of the College for more than 40 years.

Richard L. Player, Jr., president of Player, Inc., will succeed Yarborough as vice-chairman. Dick Player has been a college trustee since 1994 and his family made the lead gift for the Richard L. Player Golf and Tennis Learning Center to honor his father. He is a past president of the Methodist College Foundation and holds degrees from Duke University and the University of Illinois.

In other action taken at the May 22 trustees' meeting, the board reelected Walter Clark secretary and Vance Neal treasurer. The board of trustees elects officers annually.

The board also named Fayetteville attorney Wade E. Byrd a trustee, filling a vacancy on the board. Mr. Byrd is a 1970 graduate of Methodist and earned his law degree at Wake Forest University; he is the immediate past president of the N. C. Academy of Trial Lawyers. In recent years, he has made generous gifts to the College, to the Fayetteville Area Youth Soccer Association, and to the Democratic Party in support of local, state, and national candidates.
