CONGRESSMAN ADDRESSES METHODIST COLLEGE GRADUATES

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—Addressing winter graduates of Methodist College Dec. 12, Seventh District Congressman Mike McIntyre challenged his fellow citizens to accept the responsibility that goes with freedom and seize every opportunity to help their fellow man.

“I have three words for you,” said the Lumberton native. “REJECT senseless selfishness. INJECT a true sense of responsibility. PROJECT yourself into the future. Only when we do these things will we realize the American dream.”

After reciting His Rule by John Wesley: “Do all the good you can, by all the means you can . . .,” McIntyre closed his address by quoting Thomas Jefferson: “To do our fellow man the most good in our power we must lead where we can lead, follow where we cannot lead, and still go with them, always looking for the favorable moment to help our fellow man take another step forward.”

“May God grant us the wisdom and the courage to seize that moment with our fellow man,” he said.

Methodist awarded degrees to 98 persons at its 25th winter commencement. College President Elton Hendricks accepted the flag of Burundi from Dominique Langira and awarded the Sam Edwards Award to May graduate JoAnn Bagley, denoting her selection as the outstanding Evening College graduate of 1997.

DECEMBER GRADUATION AT METHODIST COLLEGE

—2-2-2—

In a morning baccalaureate sermon entitled “The Ultimate You,” Dr. Samuel J. Womack told the graduates, “We are created for and meant to be lovers of life.” He based his text on I Corinthians 13.

One of the eight original faculty members at Methodist, Dr. Womack taught religion and served as academic dean at the College, retiring in 1983 after 24 years of service.

“What gives life meaning and points us to eternal joy is love,” he said. “Find a sovereign good and give yourself to it. . . I hope each of you will be caught up in the great romance and become lovers of life, of our beautiful world and the universe God has given us. We are all bound up in a mighty drama”

He concluded by saying, “If I could be granted a special wish, I would like to give each of you a magic mirror in which you could see ‘the ultimate you’ that God perceives.”
