METHODIST COLLEGE DEDICATES MARGARET & WALTER CLARK HALL

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—Methodist College dedicated Margaret and Walter Clark Hall Thursday, Feb. 18, immediately following the trustees' winter board meeting.

Clark Hall honors the late Walter B. Clark of Fayetteville, founder of Mid South Insurance Co. and former secretary of the Methodist College Board of Trustees, and Mr. Clark's widow Margaret. Mr. Clark died August 8, 1997 at the age of 84. The college received an anonymous gift of $200,000 in the fall of 1997 to honor the Clarks.

At the dedication, tributes to Clark were offered by Dick Player, vice chairman of the Methodist College Board of Trustees; Joe Doll, director of the Reeves School of Business; Dr. Elton Hendricks, college president; and Jack Lindley, college trustee. Members of the Clark family presented a color portrait of Margaret and Walter Clark which will hang in the new building.

Located across the street from the Trustees Classroom Building, the $1.4 million building houses classrooms and offices for the Reeves School of Business. It opened in January. The 10,443 square-foot structure was designed by local architects Shuller, Ferris, Johnson and Lindstrom and built by Player, Inc. of Fayetteville.

Margaret and Walter Clark Hall is the second of three buildings funded through Methodist's $6.5 million "Expanding the Vision" capital campaign. Completed in 1998, the three-year campaign netted more than $8.7 million.

MC DEBATE TEAM PERFORMS WELL AT ADA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—The Methodist College Debate Team won three awards at the 1999 American Debate Association National Championships March 11-14. Methodist sent four teams of two students each to the championships at Mary Washington College in Fredericksburg, Va.

The team of Antwan Floyd and Greg Thomas took Second Place in the Junior Division, losing on a close 2-1 decision to a team from Liberty University. Both Floyd and Thomas are graduates of South View High School. In addition, both MC teams competing in the Junior Division—Floyd and Thomas, Susanne Graves and Khari Floyd—won Second Place in the Overall School Awards.

In the Novice Division, where Methodist was the defending champion, the team of Matthew Whittaker and Ron Berry lost a 2-1 decision to the eventual champions from Liberty University. The team of DeTwanette Woodert (who earlier reached elimination rounds at the CEDA National Championship) and Daniel Thomas (who was 6th speaker at the James Madison University Invitational in February) narrowly missed qualifying for the elimination rounds.

The MC Debate Team enjoyed a banner year, in which eight different debaters received awards. "This has been a great year for the team," said Forensics Director John Humphreys. "We not only expanded our depth, but also advanced our individual team performance. Over the last five years, Methodist debaters have won 13 national awards and finished in the Top Ten point rankings eight times. This is a great accomplishment, given the fact that debate has no divisions based on school size and we competed against many larger schools."
