Fall Enrollment Tops Last Year

Methodist College opened its 32nd academic year August 21 with 1,373 students, 9 percent more than last year.

The college enrolled 982 students in the regular day program and 391 students in the Evening College. Day enrollment showed a one percent increase over last year's 972, while the evening program registered a 14 percent gain over last year's 308.

A total of 492 students are living on campus, compared to 495 last fall. "We are pleased with our residential enrollment," noted College President Elton Hendricks.

Methodist enrolled 445 new students -- 279 freshmen, 136 transfers, and 30 readmits. The Admissions Office reports that 246 of the new students are resident students and 199 are commuters. Two hundred seventy-one (271) are male and 174 are female.

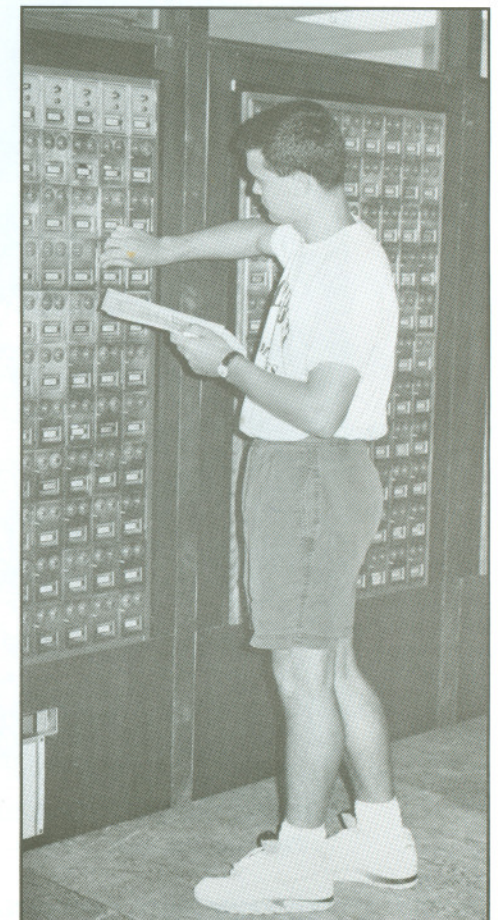

The college begins the new year with two new majors -- international relations and criminal justice/legal studies. Dr. Elton Hendricks begins his ninth year as college president.

Two accreditation efforts are on the agenda for 1991-92. The teacher education program will be reviewed next spring by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). The social work program will be upgraded to prepare for accreditation by the Council on Social Work Education.

Other changes at the college include a 12-point grading scale in which students will receive letter grades with pluses and minuses and quality points weighted to match. A mentor program will be offered pairing students who need special tutoring with other students who have volunteered to be "mentors."

A number of physical improvements were made to the campus during the summer. A new phone system was installed, giving the public direct lines to each office and making phone service available to each resident student. The student store, post office, and Teaching Materials Center were renovated. Holes four and five were constructed on the college golf course; the nine-hole course is slated for completion in the summer of 1992.

A NEW NAME: A workman installs the final "r" on the west balcony of the Student Union. A naming ceremony for the Berns Student Center will be held at 10:45 a.m. Saturday, October 12.

Seven Newcomers Join MC Faculty

Seven persons recently joined the full-time faculty at Methodist.

Mrs. Terry Moore Brown assumed the new position of assistant professor of social work. A 1985 graduate of Methodist, she earned a master's degree in social work from East Carolina University and was most recently employed as a social worker by the Wake County Department of Social Services.

Dr. Tryon Lancaster, professor of education, replaced Dr. Bobby Crisp. A 30-year veteran of the Cumberland County School System, he recently retired as associate superintendent. He holds degrees from Louisburg College, East Carolina University, and Duke University.

Dr. Donald Lassiter, assistant professor of psychology, replaced Dr. Ted Jaeger. He was formerly employed at Tarkio College in Missouri. He holds an undergraduate degree from Tulane University and advanced degrees from Georgia Tech.

Mr. Kunio Mitsuma, assistant professor of mathematics, filled a vacancy created by the death of Dr. Dayah Singh. He was formerly employed at Penn State, where he is completing work on his doctorate. He earned an undergraduate degree at Nihon University and a master's at West Virginia University.

Dr. J. Richard Pratt, associate professor of chemistry, replaced Dr. George Maguire.

He was formerly senior research scientist with Amoco Performance Products in Atlanta. He earned his undergraduate degree at Millsaps College and advanced degrees at Mississippi State University and the University of Southern Mississippi.

Ms. P. Jennifer Jerch, instructor of education and English, fills a new position. Formerly a part-time English instructor at Methodist, she earned bachelor's and master's degrees at the University of Illinois.

Dr. Wenda Johnson, professor of physical education, replaces Carol Hosy. She was formerly employed as a visiting professor at USC-Aiken. She earned a bachelor's degree at Florida State, a master's at Western Kentucky University, and a doctorate at Indiana University.

Other Faculty News

Dr. Jack Peyrouse, professor of theatre and speech, is on sabbatical, studying the life and work of Tennessee actor R. D. McLean.

Mrs. Helen Matthews, associate professor of education, has taken a leave of absence to complete work on her doctorate.

Dr. Suzan Cheek, associate professor of political science, attended a "C-SPAN in the Classroom" seminar for professors Aug. 12-13 in Washington, D.C. She was also awarded a $350 faculty development grant by the C-SPAN cable television network.

Theatre Department Announces Three Plays For 1991-92

The Theatre Department at Methodist College will present three major productions in 1991-92.

Family Linen

Family Linen, Lee Yopp's adaptation of a Lee Smith novel, will be staged September 25-29 in Reeves Auditorium.

The play is part of Methodist's Southern Writers' Symposium honoring novelist and short story writer Lee Smith. Ms. Smith teaches creative writing at N.C. State University and lives in Chapel Hill.

Mr. Yopp is directing his own adaptation, written in close consultation with Lee Smith. It will feature some of Fayetteville's finest acting talent, including Bo Thorp, Pat Reese and Bob Bloodworth. An adjunct instructor of theatre and speech at Methodist, Lee Yopp is artistic director of the Fort Bragg Playhouse.

The novel Family Linen, written in 1988, reveals the "dirty laundry" of four generations of a Southern family. The main character is a young woman named Sibyl, who discovers through hypnosis a dark family secret. Family Linen was reportedly inspired by a Hoke County murder case.

Performances are scheduled for Wednesday, Sept. 25 at 7:15 p.m.; Thursday-Saturday, Sept. 26-28, at 8:15 p.m.; and Sunday, Sept. 29 at 3 p.m. in Reeves Auditorium. Tickets are $5 per person. Call 630-7104 for group rates or reservations.

Skin of Our Teeth

Alpha Psi Omega will stage a benefit production of Thornton Wilder's Skin of Our Teeth Nov. 14 and 15 at 8:00 p.m. in Reeves Auditorium. Mr. Bob Bloodworth, assistant professor of communications, is slated to direct.

A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum

The Stephen Sondheim musical comedy A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum, is set for February 27, 28, and 29 in Reeves Auditorium. Dr. Jack Peyrouse is stage director and Mr. Alan Porter is the musical director.

Circuit Players Tour

Two different productions are planned for the student touring group's seventh season. Please see PLAYERS, Page 5

At 18th Summer Graduation

Dean Speaks Of Friendship, Meaning Of Work

Summer graduates of Methodist College were advised to pick their friends and life's work carefully at their commencement August 28.

Dr. Erik Bitterbaum, vice president for academic affairs at Methodist College, told the 42 summer graduates that Abraham Lincoln demonstrated true friendship—trust, and acceptance of others—in the face of bitter insults. As an example of good works, he cited the late scientist and teacher J. Henri Fabre, who endured a life of poverty to write science books and incurred the wrath of his peers by admitting females into his science classes.

Three foreign students in the summer class — Carole Grace Miller-Seda of Jamaica, Claudia Lucia Munevar of Colombia, and Chukwudi Edward Umerah of Nigeria — presented flags of their home countries to College President Elton Hendricks.

Eight students were graduated with honors during Methodist's 18th summer commencement. Paula Autry Savage, a business administration major from Fayetteville, achieved the highest grade point average in the summer class.

Michelle Denise Mitchell, an ROTC cadet, was commissioned a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army.

Music Dept. Plans Special Events To Celebrate Mozart

The Methodist College Music Department is planning several fall events to celebrate the musical genius of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. This year marks the 200th anniversary of Mozart's death.

Department Head Alan Porter will give a lecture on Mozart's life and music Sept. 15 at 3 p.m. in Hensdale Chapel. He will use material drawn from his travels and research conducted for a sabbatical project last spring.

Alan Porter

The music faculty will give an all Mozart recital Tuesday, Oct. 15 at 8 p.m. in Reeves Auditorium.

Alan Porter will conduct the college chorus and community singers in a performance of Mozart's "Requiem in D Minor" Wednesday, Nov. 20 at 8 p.m. in Reeves Auditorium.

Recital

Mrs. Diane Guthrie, a soprano and part-time music instructor at Methodist College, will give a concert Sunday, September 22 at the Arts Center in downtown Fayetteville. The concert is free and begins at 4:00 p.m.

For the first part of her program, Mrs. Guthrie will perform "Le Passage de la Mer Rouge" (The Passage Through the Red Sea), an 18th century French cantata written by Parisian composer and performer Elisabeth-Claude Jacquet de La Guerre.

Mrs. Guthrie will be accompanied by Mary Frances Boyce (baroque violin) and visiting artists Carol Marsh (viola de gamba), Lynn Gardner (harpsichord) and Andrew Mock (piano).

Diane Guthrie

In the second part of her program, Mrs. Guthrie will sing selections by Gustav Mahler, Claude Debussy, and Gian Carlo Menotti.

1990 LOYALTY FUND REPORT

To Friends of Methodist College:

This Annual Report honors those supporters of Methodist College who were generous donors during 1990. The college received $1.4 million in gifts during the year from all sources. Many individuals and companies made gifts, both large and small. The support of the United Methodist Church and its agencies was constant and significant. The college shared in the monies distributed by the Independent College Fund of North Carolina. Foundation support was instrumental in the completion of the March F. Riddle Center for Physical Activities. An analysis of gifts is shown on the back cover.

The mission of Methodist college is to develop responsible members of society by providing a liberal arts education grounded on ethical values and academic excellence. That the college has, over the years, achieved this goal is demonstrated by the accomplishments of its graduates.

To continue to fulfill its mission, Methodist College must receive the support of its alumni and friends in the years ahead. The college is strong; to remain so is a challenge that can only be met with the assistance of present and future supporters who are willing to share their resources wisely and generously.

We offer our sincere thanks to those who made contributions to Methodist College in 1990. We need and solicit their continuing aid. We encourage prospective donors who seek to make an investment in education to consider Methodist College as a worthy recipient of their gifts.

Sincerely,

M. Elton Hendricks
